RECENT San Diego, Cal., newspapers contain very complimentary notices of Walter F. Moore the Street Superintendent of that city. Mr. Moore's work on the streets is highly praised and the esteem in which the citizens and the city rulers hold him is evidenced by the fact that one paper records the news that his salary had been raised from $110 to $125 a month; and another journal chronicles the presentation of a silver supper service "to Mr. Moore in recognition of his efficient service as street superintendent of the city of San Diego, California, by his appreciative friends." The most enthusiastic praise is bestowed upon the fine streets which have resulted from Mr. Moore's supervision since his term of office. Mr. Moore is a brother of Mrs. J. R. Davison of this city and of Jas. St. C. Moore of Eldon.
