IN MEMORIAM

MRS. HENRY ABBOTT.

The death of Mrs. Henry Abbott, Union Road, has cast a gloom over this and adjoining settlements as she was well and favorably known both in city and country. Her illness was of very brief duration—only three days—and few even of her neighbors were aware of her sickness. She was a daughter of the late Charles Kennedy and her remains were laid beside those of her parents in the family plot at Marshfield. The burial took place on Saturday, May 3rd. The funeral services were performed by the Rev. D. MacLean, and Messrs. Geo. Bearsto, Edward MacDonald, Thomas Prowse, Joseph Bryenton, John Holmes and Cephas Mallett acted as pall-bearers. She leaves to mourn their loss a husband, four boys and two girls, besides a sister and one brother in Montreal. One of the sons Wm. Clifford, lives in Western Canada. Much sympathy is felt for the family in their sad and sudden bereavement. Although in the prime of life—being in the forty-ninth year of her age—her work was done and an all-wise God has called her away from the troubles and trials of this life to the rest that remains for the people of God. It is impossible for finite creatures such as we are to comprehend the doings of an Infinite Being, yet we receive the teachings of God's word which tells us "He will make all things work together for good to them who love to be called according to His purpose."—Com.

DOUBLE BEREAVEMENT

The home of Mr. Aquila J. Rollings, North Rustico, has been visited by severe affliction. Whooping cough protracted through the greater part of two months was followed by measles and the nurse was a veritable hospital when Mrs. Rollings and six of the family were ill at one time. On the 19th of April the youngest, a bright little fellow of nineteen months passed away, and ten days later, Annie, a girl of eight years, who was a favorite with all was also taken. During this time the lives of two others were trembling in the balance and in the case of one of these the verdict of the doctors gave no hope. They, however, have been spared and are now making good progress toward recovery. The sympathy of the community was evident in the large attendance at the funeral services which were held in the Presbyterian Church, North Rustico. Interment was in Cavendish cemetery beside the grave of a little brother who was taken about six years ago. In their bereavement the hope of re-union in the presence of Him who said: "Suffer the little children to come unto Me."

MR. P. McCARTHY

Died at his residence, Morell, on Friday, 25th of April, Mr. Patrick McCarthy in the 86th year of his age leaving two sons and one daughter to mourn their loss. Charles on the old homestead, and Michael residing in Morell Rear, and Mrs. John D. Sinnott of Bristol. On Saturday, the 26th, the funeral which was largely attended, took place from his late residence to St. Joseph's Church where a solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. A. J. McLeary after which the procession returned to the cemetery, where the last rites were performed and where the deceased, beloved and respected for his many Christian virtues, was laid to rest in the family vault.
