The Late Mrs. Philip Coyle

The Guardian regrets to chronicle the death of Mrs. Philip Coyle, which occurred at her home Queen Street, at noon Saturday. She was a native of Charlottetown, and a daughter of the late Mr. Enoch Carmody.

Up to a very short time ago, Mrs. Coyle had enjoyed her usual good health, then it was noticed that some illness had taken hold of her,—but it was not considered serious until a few days ago, when she was stricken with apoplexy. Medical aid was quickly summoned and all that could possibly be done in regard to skill and loving attention was bestowed upon her, but all in vain. Not long after the first stroke, Mrs. Coyle became unconscious and continued in this condition until she passed away.

The late Mrs. Coyle was a Christian woman in every sense of the word. She was a loving wife, a kind indulgent mother, and a true friend and neighbor. At the time of her demise she was what might be termed scarcely past her prime being sixty-five years of age. After a well spent life of earnest endeavour and tireless duty in the home and in other worthy ways, this christian woman has gone, but she leaves behind her a fragrant memory of an unselfish and excellent life.

She was a devout member of St. Dunstan's Congregation, and her husband and family in their sorrow, and while life lasts, will cherish her memory. The members of the family left to mourn besides her husband are: James, Foreman in the Patriot Publishing Company, Fred. in Cambelford, Ontario, Mrs. Wm. McCrory, Mrs. Thomas Grogan, Mrs. A. Cody all of New York, and Miss Ella also of New York and Miss Kathleen, employed with the firm of Prowse Bros.

To the bereaved The Guardian extend its most respectful sympathy.

Many a father can't be in style because his son doesn't wear his clothes out quick enough.

Wash Your Kidneys By Drinking Water

If Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers, Also Take Some Salts

Flush your kidneys by drinking a quart of water each day, also take salts occasionally, says a noted authority, who tells us that too much rich food forms acids which almost paralyze the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken; then you may suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To help neutralize these irritating acids, to help cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste, get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days, and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

LAND COSTS LOWERED

Wallace's Farmer says that farm lands in Germany could be bought today for from one fifth to one tenth the price, measured in dollars, that they could before the war. Of course these lands have been much run down because of the lack of labor and imported fertilizers during the war, but it does seem strange that land should be so much reduced below pre war levels, while other commodities are about at pre war levels as measured in dollars.

NECKTIES AND CRAVATS

The necktie is a comparatively modern invention. In 1660 it was introduced in the form of the cravat by a regiment of Croats or Crabats, which came to France. A bandage of silk or muslin was worn about the neck of the officers, while the soldiers wore simpler stuff. The ends which fell over the breast were disposed in bows or hung in tassels. After the Revolution cravats disappeared along with tight breeches. In 1796 they recovered popularity, and were increased to a degree of extravagance. Huge pieces of muslin were worn around the neck by some persons, while others wore a padded cushion of numerous folds. The collar worn at this time arose about the ears and the mouth and chin were buried nose deep by the upper edge of the cravat.
