

THE KING'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Office in Montague, Capt. W. A. Johnston, Agent, and in Souris, A. J. McDonald, Agent.

The latest news, first of all.

Miss Grace McKay, Sussex, is visiting Miss Clark of Souris.

William Bruce has returned from Boston to his home in Commercial Cross.

Wendall H. Gordon, has returned to Montague after a visit to the City.

Miss Ella Docherty of Riverton was in Lorne Valley last Friday on a visit to friends.

Jonathan J. McLeod returned on Saturday from Calgary to his home in East Valleyfield.

Mrs. Joseph A. Kennedy of Bangor paid a visit to her former home in Montague Saturday.

Reuben and Miss Georgie McCannell of Lorne Valley were at Murray River last week on a visit.

Rev. Ewen McDougall will preach Sabbath, August first, at Dundas at 10.30 a.m. and Bangor at five p.m.

Angus Martin, wife and son Willard of Boston are spending a pleasant vacation in Commercial Cross.

Rev. Mr. McLean conducted the evening service in the Lorne Valley Church on Sabbath July eighteenth, and Tuesday.

Mrs. B. S. Hamilton and little son, who have been visiting friends in Montague have returned to their home in Grand Etang, C. B.

There may be seen in the garden of S. Mutch, Montague, rhubarb of immense size, the leaves of which measure twelve feet in circumference and the length of the stems from the ground up to the leaves is eighteen inches. The bed is fifty-four feet long and is a sight worth seeing. Although not a market gardener, Mr. Mutch understands to perfection the proper and successful cultivation of vegetables and flowers. Besides his garden and premises are models of neatness and cannot fail to arrest the attention of the beholders.—Com.

The many friends of Wm. N. McLeod, East Valleyfield, will regret to hear that she is very low and no hope is entertained for her recovery.

The efficient and popular Inspector for King's Co. J. J. McCormac examined the Lorne Valley School on Friday. He was accompanied by Mr. Newton of Toronto.

The branch office of the Charlottetown Guardian will be found in the store of A. J. McDonald & Co., Souris. A. J. McDonald is the agent. 6-30dtd.

An unusual amount of interest was taken in an assault case tried in Souris Court House Tuesday before two Justices of the Peace, in which Ronald McIsaac (baillif) was the plaintiff and A. Chiverie was the defendant. The alleged assault took place on the 14th day of July instant on the grounds where the Souris tea party was held. A large number of witnesses were examined and after a well-waged battle the case was dismissed. Arthur McQuaid appeared for the prosecution and Calvin McCallum for the defence.

The Georgetown District S. S. Association held its convention in the Methodist Church, Lower Montague, July 22nd. The first session was opened at 2.30 by devotional exercises led by Rev. F. A. Wightman. This was followed by a review of the year's work by the Pres. Rev. E. A. McPhee, and the report of Sec'y-Treas. Reports from delegates being read, seven schools responded. Committee on nomination was appointed as follows: S. B. Aitken, Isaac Bears, and Miss Elva Stewart. A very interesting paper was then read by Rev. E. A. McPhee on "The Boy Problem," which was followed by discussion by Rev. F. A. Wightman and Rev. J. B. Ganong. An offering was then taken followed by a conference led by Field Secretary. Meeting closed with singing and benediction. Evening Session was opened with devotional exercises led by Rev. F. A. Wightman, who occupied the chair in the absence of the President. The minutes of afternoon session being read and approved the report of nominating Com. was given as follows: Pres. Rev. F. A. Wightman; Sec'y-Treas. Miss Elva L. Stewart; Supp. Teacher-Training, Rev. A. B. Wade; Ad. Bible Class, Isaac Bears; Home Dept. Miss A. Robertson; Temp. Cyrus Moore; Cradle Roll, Mrs. E. Leeman, Additional Executive, S. B. Aitken, A. Reynolds, J. N. McDonald. Rev. F. A. Wightman then gave an address on "Literature in the Sunday School," urging that the best books be used in the S. S. Library. After the singing of a voluntary by the choir, Rev. Mr. Ganong addressed the convention on "The Idea of Definite Organization." Meeting was closed with prayer by Field Sec'y.

Much thanks are due the people of L. Montague for the kindness to the delegates and also the choir which gave some beautiful selections.

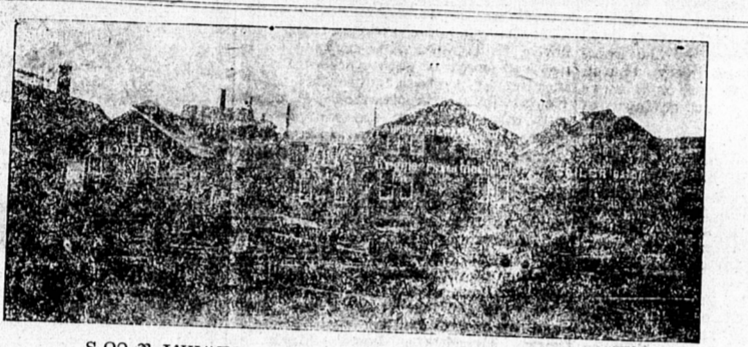

The Charlottetown Guardian has secured the right to use the International Newspaper Bible Study Club Lessons each week for the term of one year, commencing with the lesson for August 23rd, 1908. But one paper in each town can use these. The Guardian takes pleasure in being able to present to its readers such a valuable help along the lines of Bible study. The Morning Daily and the Rural Daily, only paid-in-advance subscribers to either paper are eligible to join this club. There is no fee for entrance, and no conditions other than those stated below. Everybody stands the same chance and has the same opportunity to get the valuable prizes without the investment of a cent. There is one condition that must in every case be complied with and that is, that every one entering the contest must be a regular subscriber as above.

A VALUABLE PRIZE CONTEST

The Charlottetown Guardian has secured the right to use the International Newspaper Bible Study Club Lessons each week for the term of one year, commencing with the lesson for August 23rd, 1908. But one paper in each town can use these. The Guardian takes pleasure in being able to present to its readers such a valuable help along the lines of Bible study. The Morning Daily and the Rural Daily, only paid-in-advance subscribers to either paper are eligible to join this club. There is no fee for entrance, and no conditions other than those stated below. Everybody stands the same chance and has the same opportunity to get the valuable prizes without the investment of a cent. There is one condition that must in every case be complied with and that is, that every one entering the contest must be a regular subscriber as above.

Each question must be answered on one side of the paper only. No answer must contain more than two hundred words and may be less. It will be a convenience if students will write their answers on letter paper, about 8 1/2 inches by 11 inches. Each answer must have the name and address of the writer at the bottom of the answer, together with the date label of a current issue of the Guardian so it can be identified, giving a number, registered, and then the name will be put out of the examiner may know it by number only. Students should be careful to understand the question before answering. To do this the lesson text must be read and especially the verse based. The answers from this Local Club must be delivered to the Guardian office, and they will be collected at the close of the contest and forwarded to headquarters for independent examination by competent examiners. The prizes will then be awarded according to the highest number of marks, won by members of the International Newspaper Bible Study Club, and prizes which may be awarded to members of this Local Club will be given out from this office.

THE PRIZES.
First Series—A gold medal to each of the first five contestants.
Second Series—A silver medal to each of the next five contestants.
Third Series—A Teacher's Bible, price $5.50, to each of the next five contestants.
Fourth Series—The book "The Heart of Christianity," price $1.50 to each of the next thirty-five contestants.
Fifth Series—A developed mind, an expanded imagination a richer experience and more profound knowledge of the Bible and of life, to all who take this course whether winning any other prize or not.
Each medal will be suitably engraved, giving the name of the winner and for what it is awarded, and in the like manner each Bible and book will be inscribed.
All who can write, and have ideas, are urged to take up these studies regardless of the degree of their education, as the papers are not valued from an educational or literary standpoint.

GOLD AND SILVER MEDALS, BIBLES, BOOKS.

Persons may join the club at any course, answer the 53 questions hereinafter explained, to qualify for the prizes. It is however, desirable that the questions be answered as the lessons are studied.

The International Newspaper Bible Study Club is for the purpose of promoting, in an unfettered way among the masses, a wider study of the Bible, the basal truths of Christianity, and the problems which enter into every man's life. It is composed of all those who join a Local Club, and take up the simple course herein outlined barring City ordained clergymen. Although with their sympathetic co-operation, it is not considered fair to have them compete for the prizes. It is however desirable that Bible Class scholars, and church-goers generally, may belong to this newspaper Club, also non-churchgoers, of all shades of opinion. All such who have not joined are warmly invited to do so and compete for the prizes. The Guardian has secured the right to publish the International Sunday School Lesson questions by Rev. Dr. Linnecott, D.D., which have aroused to much interest elsewhere, and they will appear weekly. One of these questions each week is to be answered in writing, and upon these answers the prizes are to be awarded. The Guardian is authorized to form a Local Newspaper Bible Study Club for its readers, and guarantees to all who join and fulfil the conditions, that everything here promised shall be faithfully carried out.

CONDITIONS OF THE CONTEST.
1. Each contestant, on his or her family, must be a paid in advance subscriber to The Guardian, during the continuance of the contest, in order to qualify for membership in the International Newspaper Bible Study Club and the Local Club.
2. Each contestant in this Local Club must answer each of the written questions for 53 consecutive
