

TRoubled All Life With Constipation

But Kellogg's ALL-BRAN Brought Real Relief

If you are subject to headaches, loss of appetite and energy, sleeplessness and other effects that so often result from constipation, read Mrs. Turner's voluntary letter.

"For the past six months I have been eating Kellogg's ALL-BRAN, and cannot praise it too highly.

"Am fifty years of age. All my life have been troubled with constipation. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN has not only helped me, but has cured me.

"I thought I couldn't like the taste of bran, but Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is delicious."—Mrs. C. J. Turner (address upon request).

Tests show ALL-BRAN contains two things which overcome constipation: "Bulk" to exercise the intestines; Vitamin B to help tone the intestinal tract. ALL-BRAN also supplies iron for the blood.

"The 'bulk' in ALL-BRAN is much like that of lettuce. Instead of the heavy, soft mass which gently clears the intestines of wastes.

Certainly this is more natural than taking pills and drugs—so often harmful. ALL-BRAN is not habit-forming. Two tablespoons daily will correct most types of constipation. If you have intestinal trouble not relieved this way, see your doctor.

WAIF TO MISSIONARY — LONDON, Oct. 5.—In "Daughters of Africa," G. A. Gollock tells of Ann Daoma, whose life of active service ended this year, and who will long be remembered in Cape Town. One of Africa's heroic missionaries — Bishop Mackenzie — found her on the roadside by her dying mother. Slave-traders had left them there as useless things. Ann was so small that the Bishop often carried her on his shoulders through the wild country. She was sent to a mission school, and was ager, and able to control others it was believed that her father must have been a chief. After a time she was given charge of the infants in the school, and kept this post till 1919, when she retired on a small Government pension.

Mr. Mellish was accompanied as far as Toronto by his wife and daughter, Margaret, who is a graduate of Manitoba University, and is now taking a Faculty Normal course at Toronto University.

HON. DR. MACMILLAN — Hon. Dr. MacMillan, Minister of Health and Education, was greeted with cheers when he came forward to address the meeting.

He said it gave him great pleasure to speak to a gathering of young Conservatives. It augured well for the future of the party in the Fifth District to see such enthusiasm.

The speaker recalled when he was president of such an organization in Charlottetown, which at one time was a doubtful constituency. Now it is strong for the Conservative party, and has held the city for the party in five contests during the last eight years. This was owing in no small measure to the splendid organizing and determined efforts of the younger men of the party.

He felt that what was done in Charlottetown can be repeated here and this seat will belong to the Conservatives in this election and held in future elections.

GOVERNMENT POLICIES ABLY REVIEWED BEFORE ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING

Warm Ovation Tendered Conservative Candidate In Coming By-Election. Liberal Neglect Of Public Health And Finances Charged By Hon. Dr. MacMillan In Masterly Defence Of Stewart Gov. Policies.

It is generally a healthy sign when the young people show enthusiasm for politics; and Mr. H. M. Downing, the Conservative candidate in the Fifth District of Prince, can rest assured that he has the backing of the younger voters of the District if Tuesday's meeting of the newly organized Young Men's Conservative Association is any indication.

This organization, which was formed about ten days ago, now has a membership of over 200 and is doing splendid work.

Mr. Osbourne Lefurgey makes a very capable president, and presided like an old campaigner over the meeting which was held in the Town Hall on Tuesday night.

Mr. Downing was given a rousing reception. He congratulated the young people on their splendid efforts and wished the organization every success. He referred with deep regret to the death of Hon. L. M. McNeill and also to the illness of Hon. J. D. Stewart, but was pleased to state that the Premier's condition is improving.

Mr. Downing pointed out to the young men what a splendid heritage they had in belonging to the British Empire, the Dominion of Canada, and last but not least to Prince Edward Island and the Conservative party; and it was their duty to uphold these traditions.

The speaker then discussed the debt which the Liberals had left as a legacy to the present Government when they came into power, and also the bond issue which the Liberals had criticised but which the Stewart Government had arranged very satisfactorily.

Mr. Downing also dealt with the way in which the Bennett Government had faced the serious shortage of money and the depressed state of world trade and commerce.

The Mackenzie King Government had favoured the United States markets to such an extent that Canadians had lost millions of dollars in trade during the Liberal regime. In the prosperous years before 1929 the Liberal Government had a loss of $50,000,000 from the C. N. R. and at the end of 1929 an adverse trade balance of $300,000,000.

The Bennett Government had cut down the salaries of the highly paid officials of the C. N. R. and dismissed some altogether, thereby making a saving to the country of over $90,000 without affecting the usefulness of the railway.

He also referred to the statement of Mr. Mackenzie King, made shortly before his government's defeat, when he said he would not give a 5 cent piece to the unemployed in the Provinces under Conservative Government. The Bennett Government on the other hand gave $90,000 to unemployment relief in this Province shortly after coming into power.

The present administration in Prince Edward Island had spent $55,000 to relieve those who have been in need during their short term of office.

Mr. Downing concluded by saying that a vote for the Conservative party was a vote for the welfare of the community and for the future well being of young Canadians.

HON. DR. MACMILLAN — Hon. Dr. MacMillan, Minister of Health and Education, was greeted with cheers when he came forward to address the meeting.

He said it gave him great pleasure to speak to a gathering of young Conservatives. It augured well for the future of the party in the Fifth District to see such enthusiasm.

The speaker recalled when he was president of such an organization in Charlottetown, which at one time was a doubtful constituency. Now it is strong for the Conservative party, and has held the city for the party in five contests during the last eight years. This was owing in no small measure to the splendid organizing and determined efforts of the younger men of the party.

The Minister went on to say that he was proud to address Summerside at this time on account of what has happened recently at Ottawa.

The Imperial Conference is now history but we should be proud to know that the Conservative party in Canada has a man big enough, who in the trying period of the last two years, has dared to stand up and declare a policy, which met with opposition and was debated last year in London and now at the end of the Conference has been accepted, with great benefits to the whole Empire. (Applause). It is true it has been the cause of the resignation of a few discontented men in the British Parliament but that will not change the views of the men of the British Cabinet who came over to the Conference.

Continuing, the speaker declared that the Fifth District had in Mr. Downing the type of representative that was needed today—a "go-getter" and worker, a man of the rank and file and who was willing to devote his whole time to his district.

The speaker referred in scathing terms to the criticism of the present Government for repairing the Golf Club Road. The Government had been asked to do this work and other repairs, and having felt that they were necessary had done them.

JUSTIFIES APPOINTMENT

Dr. McMillan then took up his own appointment as Minister of Education and Public Health, which had been criticised by Dr. McNeill as an extravagance. The Liberals, he pointed out, did not like to think that $2,000 was being spent in the interest of education and public health, but they could dump several thousand dollars on the roads and think nothing of it.

Dr. McNeill had said that he could have taken the position himself but he did not think the time was opportune. "Does anyone believe that?" asked the speaker, (cries of "No"). No! He thought he could make more money at his practice than by doing his duty to the electors as a member of the Government. Well, let him have his practice, and elect a man who is prepared to work for his constituency. (Loud applause).

The speaker pointed out that when the Summerside School Board, town officials and others, had asked for assistance to establish Grade Eleven in their school, the Government saw the importance of the step and its benefits to Summerside and Prince County.

"And what have you now? One of the finest schools in the Province, which would you rather have, the money dumped on the roads or a permanent building which will benefit your children and their children?" (Applause).

The Government said they would pay for one teacher, but when they saw the full importance of the project they willingly paid for two. Both teachers are Island girls and come with the highest qualifications. There are 56 pupils receiving the benefit of this higher education. "Would Doctor McNeill or the Lea Government have given you that?" asked the speaker. He was answered with loud cries of "no!"

"Is not the health of our people a very necessary and vital matter?" he continued. "Our Island was very backward in this respect until the coming of the Red Cross Society. The health of the community is just as important as good roads, in fact more so."

OTHER ACTIVITIES

The Stewart Government, he continued, have always recognized their responsibility to the people in matters of public health. Special clinics for the control of venereal disease have been provided in Charlottetown and Summerside and this necessary work will be carried on.

The Government since it has been in office has not had an easy task. Owing to the death of the Minister of Public Works and the illness of the Premier, two men have had to do the work of four, but the speaker did not think any department had suffered. The roads had been maintained in a good condition.

the recent Liberal meeting in Queen's County to nominate candidates for the Federal Parliament which has still three years to run. The selection had to be abandoned because, according to one of their own delegates, they did not have a candidate of the proper calibre.

Mr. L. R. Allen had said in the House last year that he was going to file a complaint at Ottawa as to the manner in which the unemployment money had been expended.

"Did he do so?" asked Dr. MacMillan. "Not because he could not furnish the proof. Not in one single instance." (Applause).

In referring to Dr. McNeill's accusations in regard to the purchase of drugs Dr. MacMillan said the statement was absolutely untrue.

He referred to the loss of Prince of Wales College and Falconwood Hospital, pointing out that all the patients of the latter institution are being well cared for and at a saving to the country. No complaints had been made in regard to the present arrangements.

The students of Prince of Wales had passed their exams last year very creditably and had suffered no great inconvenience from the fire, as the Government had been prompt in finding new accommodations, thus protecting the interests of the parents and children.

REBUILDING OPERATIONS

The Doctor showed beyond question that the Government had spent the people's money wisely in the building of the new Prince of Wales College. The contract had been given to an experienced Quebec firm because their tender was the lowest. The same applied to all the sub-contracts.

In answer to criticism that dated not a single sub contract has been given to an Island firm, the doctor replied that Messrs. Bruce Stewart and Co. have the contract for boilers and stokers for the College. Moreover, the Hall Manufacturing Co. of Summerside has the contract for 250 desks, (applause), and he believed some of their desks were in use in the new school here. "They are turning out good desks and the Government likes to encourage local industry," he said amid further applause.

"Do you consider that spending your money extravagantly? Would you sooner have the money spent on education or on the roads?" (Applause).

Island labour had been employed at the College wherever expedient, but the contractor was responsible for the work done and where Island bricklayers had been discharged it was on account of standard and output. There were only four key men from outside the Province and out of 180 men 156 were local men.

OLD AGE PENSIONS

Hon. Dr. McMillan discussed Old Age Pensions and explained that the Government has had a returned man compiling statistics on the subject and at the next session of the Legislature it was hoped to introduce the Old Age Pension Act in this Province. This, he said, was not a charitable measure, but the just reward of those hardy pioneers who were the backbone of the country and who have made this province what it is today. The present Government have in this year of world depression heavy demands upon their resources and at the last meeting of the Government 55 names were handed in for direct relief, making an annual expenditure of $3,600.

The Government have also had twice the number of delinquent children to take care of this year, who have been sent from Charlottetown and Summerside to the Reformatory at Halifax.

"The Government has not as yet sent letters to the clerks of Charlottetown and Summerside Town Councils stating that they will no longer pay for any children to go to the Reformatory and would not be responsible for them." (Applause). This was what the Saunders-Lea Governments had done, an action, the speaker said, which was a disgrace to any government. The Liberals cannot deny that they refused to look after delinquent children.

Dr. McMillan next took up the question of the bond issue and the Liberal debt and pointed out that the Liberal Government had lost the Province over four hundred thousand dollars because they did not look after their overdraft and buy bonds when the market was favorable. When this Government came into power they were faced with a huge overdraft at the bank and when they wished to borrow another million for the building of Prince of Wales College and Falconwood Hospital they were told by the bank they could not have the money until they looked after the overdraft.

The Lea Government could have bought bonds at 4 1/2 per cent when money was cheap, but the present Government was forced to buy when money was dear. "We bought where we could get the best price and local bond houses said the offer we received was better than they could have done. So there is no criticism to be made from that quarter." (Applause).

The doctor closed his address by asking for the support of Mr. Downing who is an energetic worker and who knows the needs of his district.

Mr. Heath Strong, M. L. A., moved a hearty vote of thanks to Dr. McMillan. The money spent on education, he pointed out, had not been wasted and the roads were being well maintained as a letter from a prominent Liberal in the Fourth District stated.
