Closing out all the untrimmed straw hats at 50c

To-day all the untrimmed straw hats, including the widest variety of shapes bought for this season's trade, receive orders to quit.

In the lot of course there are many styles—and every style is new and good, there is a good choice of colours, and there are hats for both ladies and children—all sorts of prices are represented in the showing, but regardless of value the whole lot is displayed on big tables, for your choosing at, each..... 50c

One third off Children's Headwear

This lot is comprised of hats and bonnets, in silks and muslins very handsome in design, a generous range to choose from—beautifully made and daintily finished by the smartest children's millinery factory in England. We are not waiting for the closing of the season—but right now when you have still before you months of weather for their use, we offer them at

One third off

Another lot of lace yoke ends--19c

The tremendous rush for the last lot of these suggested that we try to get you another line of the same sort. We have succeeded, and the new lot is even better than the last—the remnants are 16 inches wide and 18 inches long, just enough to make a pretty yoke in a wash dress, the quality of lace is such as would sell in the ordinary way for 60c to 1.00 per yard, and while these are here you may choose for..... 19c

Get Under a "Prowse" Straw and Laugh at old Sol

Throw away the last season's straw Mr Man, and get one of these light, feather weight straws, of which we are selling so many. They are just the snappiest and most catchy models in men's straws that you will find anywhere. From the cheapest to the best they represent the finest quality at the price.

Reginald H. Earle of St. John's, Newfoundland, is in town from New York via Ottawa and Montreal en route to Newfoundland. He arrived last evening by S. S. Trinidad. Forty-four years have elapsed since Mr. Earle arrived from Halifax to Pictou. He well remembers the journey by horses from Truro. Mr. Earle is a brother of Prof. S. N. Earle, of Charlottetown.—Pictou Advocate.

The Sons of Temperance in this province will be greatly disappointed to learn that the most worthy Patriarch, J. O. McCarthy of Toronto has decided to postpone his visit to the Maritime Provinces. Both Nova Scotia and New Brunswick were anxious that he should defer his visit until the annual sessions in October and he has concluded to do so. This information has been communicated to his deputy here by a letter received a few days ago. It is Mr. McCarthy's loss not to visit this Province in July, was anticipated, and get a breath of the invigorating sea breeze Rhile old sol is getting in his warmest work, but "the boys" will give him the glad hand, when he comes, and show him the fading beauties of this "gem of the gulf" in October.
