ORWELL COVE SCHOOL.—The half-yearly examination of the Orwell Cove School, was held in the school-room on Wednesday June 30th. A number of interested parents were present. The examination was conducted by the teacher, P. J. Bolger, assisted by Prof. W. T. McLeod, and Joseph McDonald, ecclesiastic. The advanced class was examined by Mr. McLeod in English, Mathematics and Geography; by Mr. McDonald in the Classics; and by the teacher in Botany, Physics and History. Considering the fact that the teacher had done the work formerly done by two teachers, the results of the exam were highly creditable. The answers given to the many different questions showed a thoroughness in teaching not often found in the common schools. The advanced class, five in number, showed a splendid grasp of the higher subjects. A composition on the European War, by James McDonald who is scarcely twelve years old, was excellent, well written and is deserving of special mention. When the exam. was over all repaired to the Hall, where some vocal selections by Prof. McLeod, were much enjoyed. The singing of The National Anthem brought an enjoyable afternoon to a close.

WEDDING BELLS.—A quiet but pretty wedding took place yesterday forenoon at ten a.m. at the home of Dr and Mrs T. R. Borbett, Crystal City, Man., when Rev. Mr. Miller united in marriage Miss Flora Corbett, sister of Mrs Corbett, and George W. McPhee, barrister, of Yorkton, Sask., formerly of Charlottetown, P.E.I. The bride was given away by her brother-in-law, Dr Corbett, entering the drawing-room to the strains of Lohengrin's march, played by Miss Corbett. The bride looked charming in a travelling suit of sand-colored serge, trimmed with Belgian blue, and a blouse of pale pink crepe de chine. She wore a becoming pink poke-shaped hat trimmed with Belgian blue sprays and black velvet streamers and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. Immediately after the wedding ceremony a dainty luncheon was served in the dining-room, the luncheon honours being performed by Miss Olive Davis and Miss Archena Corbett. The bridal couple were unattended, and left by the noon train on an extended trip to the Pacific Coast. The groom is a prominent barrister of Saskatchewan and liberal candidate for the Federal District of MacKenzie in that province, and the bride is a graduate nurse from Morden Free Masons' Hospital. The groom's present to the bride was a fitted walrus travelling case, and to Miss Corbett a sunburst of pearls, and dainty pearl pins to Miss Davis and Miss Corbett. Mr and Mrs McPhee on their return from their honeymoon, will reside in Yorkton, Saskatchewan. — Manitoba Free Press.

SPLENDID RECORD.—From time to time The Guardian has had the pleasure of recording the splendid output in crops, etc., made by farmers throughout this Garden Province giving to one and all a splendid idea of the fertility of the soil and the up-to-date methods used in farming. This time it is a dairy record and is made by Mr. Percy Mutch of Mt. Herbert, who on July 5th sent to the Charlottetown Condensed Milk Company 1450 pounds of milk from a tested herd. Mr. Mutch is a large producer and has a most enviable reputation having sent to this factory the following amounts during the past six months:—January, 16,795 pounds; February, 16,743; March, 17,959; April, 18,060; May, 18,364; June 18,777.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE CONVENTION.—The second annual Convention of Prince Edward Island Women's Institutes will be held July 20 and 21 in Prince of Wales College Hall, Charlottetown. ADDRESS OF APPRECIATION.—Following is a copy of the address read to Mr and Mrs A. J. Dougan, Tracadie Cross, by Mr J. J. McDonald, prior to their removing to Charlottetown, as previously reported. The address was accompanied by a beautifully carved silver butter dish:—"Dear Mr and Mrs Dougan and family,—On the eve of your departure from our midst we the undersigned of Tracadie Cross and vicinity, cannot allow you to pass from amongst us without extending to you some expressions of our appreciation of your worth as true friends and neighbours. As neighbours you have always been ready and willing to lend a helping hand in time of need, and as friends not only will we miss you, but also the weary travellers who have found shelter under your hospitable roof. As citizens you have always striven for what was the adornment and welfare of the community, and the interests of the people. We feel that in losing you our loss is a great one, but as you have decided to leave us we all join in wishing you the choicest blessings of success in your new sphere of life. Please accept this gift as a small token of our esteem for you, and our appreciation of your worth as true friends and neighbours, which will not soon fade as the hallowed associations are entwined in our sweetest memories."
