NORWAY AND SWEDEN LOST OVER HUNDRED SHIPS THROUGH WAR

COPENHAGEN, via London, March 27.—Ninety-six Norwegian ships have been lost during the war through submarines or mines, according to a newspaper statement published here. It has been established, says the statement, that twenty Norwegian steamers have been destroyed by German submarines, seventy-seven Norwegian subjects thereby losing their lives. But Germany has compensated Norway for only four steamers.

The total Norwegian tonnage lost amounts to 125,000, valued at 28,000,000 kroner while the cargoes were valued at 90,000,000 kroner.

In addition, German prize courts have seized a large number of Norwegian vessels.

Sweden in the same way, has lost forty vessels of a tonnage of 50,000, valued at 10,000,000 kroner. One hundred and twenty-eight Swedens have lost their lives.

STRANGE MEETING PLACE OF ISLANDERS

The following letter was received by Miss Grace Davey from her brother Brenton now at the front.

Belgium, February 23, 1916.

Dear Sister Grace:-

Received your ever welcome letter of recent date and was very pleased to hear from you, also glad to know you are well. We have been out of the trenches now for three days and are enjoying ourselves immensely behind the firing line. We indulge in all kinds of freaks once away from the trenches but to-day it is snowing hard, so we are indulging in cards in our dug out.

Just got the news of Russia's success on the Caucausian Front and was more than delighted. The winter up to the present has been very mild quite a difference to the weather we experienced last winter. We are holding practically the same line as we did this time last year but you would never know it was the same place. The reinforcements coming out now are enjoying the hard work we did last summer. But I am glad they don't have to suffer like we did.

In the line of clothing and food we fare fine. We are back with the Canadian Contingents now and meet quite a lot of old friends in other regiments. The other day I was looking for wood back of the firing line and ran accross Jerome Graham from Gaspereaux. He could hardly believe his eyes. Everybody says I am looking fine and never felt better in my life. Tomorrow we go in the trenches for five days but we expect to have an easy spell. Well Grace there is very little of importance to write except on military matters and we are not allowed to give any detail, if we were I could write a book on recent events. Give my regards to all inquiring friends. With love.

From, W. B. Davey, 1757.

HORSE NOTES

Baby Logan 2.18½ winner of second money in the New London Club Championship race seems to have all her old time speed and will likely be seen on turf again this summer.

* * *

In winning the final for the championship of the New London Club, Queen Catherine paced her eight winning race in the year, five of them which were won in straight heats. She is rated one of the most perfectly gaited pacers ever seen on our island tracks and although trained and driven by a rank amateur has hewn a "half" on the ice in 1.02 and miles on the turf in 2.18. She will not likely be raced the coming season.

It was impossible owing to the storm to secure the services of a doctor till the day before his death when medical aid was procured but alas it was of no avail. All that could be was done to stay the hand of death but on Monday morning he passed to his eternal reward. HER DREAMS CAME TRUE

Life Unbearable from Indigestion Health Restored by "Fruit-a-tives"

MELLE. C. GAUDREAU

Rochon P.Q., Jan. 14th, 1915.

"I suffered for many years with terrible Indigestion and Constipation. I became thin and miserable. I had frequent dizzy spells and became so run down that I never thought I would get well again.

A neighbor advised me to try 'Fruit-a-tives'. I did so and to the surprise of my doctor, I began to improve and he advised me to go on with 'Fruit-a-tives'. I continued this medicine and all my Indigestion and Constipation was relieved. I consider that I owe my life to 'Fruit-a-tives' and I want to say to those who suffer from Indigestion, Constipation or Headaches, try 'Fruit-a-tives'. Give this lovely fruit medicine a fair chance and you will get well the same as I did"

MR. ROGERS FARQUHARSON.

The death occurred yesterday morning from bronchial pneumonia, of Rogers Farquharson at his home in Bunbury. He was only 52 years of age, but had lived such a useful life that his years are not considered. He was the son of the late Mr. Henry Farquharson, and his aged mother is still living in her 82nd year. She is a sister of the late Honorable Benjamin Rogers, of Charlottetown.

The late Rogers Farquharson was one of the representative and most progressive farmers South of the Hillsboro. He was noted for his untiring efforts in the direction of developing his farm, increasing his stock, and raising them to the highest standard. For many years he had been engaged in the milk business and in this way became known to scores of people in the city. Besides being one of the Islands best' farmers, Mr. Farquharson was a man who commanded the respect and affection of all. He was recognized as one of the most charitable and kind-hearted citizens of the province. Whatever good move was instituted, Mr. Farquharson was there with his sympathetic and practical support. His demise will be a great loss not only to the community in which he lived, but also to the country at large. He was a christian gentleman, exemplifying by his daily walk and conversation the virtues of the good and upright man. He is survived by an aged mother and one sister, Miss Anna, both of whom are on the homestead. To the bereaved family and relatives is extended most sincere sympathy.

MR. JAMES BYRNE.

Many will learn with deep regret of the death of James Byrne, one of the oldest and most respected residents of North River, which took place at his home on Saturday, March 25th. The late James Byrne was born in Charlottetown August 15th, 1831. In early life he moved with his parents to North River taking up farming as his profession. Deceased who was a person of many amiable qualities and a pleasing conversationalist, won for himself a large circle of friends and acquaintances, and as a member of the community he will be much missed. During his illness he was visited and consoled by his devoted pastors, Rev. Peter S. Duffy and Rev. Maurice McDonald, and, fortified by the last sacrament of the Catholic Church, he passed to his eternal reward. His wife and two sons predeceased him some years. There are left to mourn three sons, three daughters and five grandchildren, who will long cherish the memory of a kind father and devoted guardian. His funeral took place on Monday, the 27th, to St. Dunstan's Cathedral, and was followed by sorowing friends who came to pay their last respects. The funeral service was performed by Rev. Maurice McDonald. His remains were laid to rest in the Catholic Cemetery. The pall-bearers were Messrs. William Warren, William Leonard, Spurgeon Warren, John Collins, John Moreside, George McDonald.

CHARLES WILFRED BUCHANAN.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Buchanan, of Clyde Station, will deeply regret to hear of the death of their son, Charles Wilfred, at the early age of 13 years. He succumbed to the dreaded disease of meningitis of the brain. Although only thirteen he was a bright and promising youth. The little fellow, who was apparently in the best of health, attended school on Monday morning, the 13th, but was stricken at noon by the dreadful disease, from which he never recovered. All that loving care and kindness could do was done, to ease his suffering, but to no avail, and on Wednesday morning, the 15th, his spirit took its flight to be with God. He leaves to mourn besides a sorrowing father and mother, an aged grandmother, a large number of relatives and friends and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Angus McLeod, New Bedford, Mass.; Mrs. Alden Bagnall, Radisson, Sask.; Nettie and Edith at home. The following are the brothers: Alex, of the 105th; Ben, attending Prince of Wales College; an, Lloyd, George and Alden, at home. The funeral services were conducted by their pastor, Rev. J. McAll. The remains were laid to rest in Hartsville Cemetery.

Another friend from us was taken,
Never to return again,
For he's gone to be with Jesus
On that broad field of fame.
His schoolmates all will miss him,
But now since 'twas God's will,
We hope to meet him up in heaven,
Where we shall be with him.
