Chicago Paper Comments

 Bishop Kelly can now take to himself pride in the fact that he made a faux pas into a fashion. The vision of the newly selected bishop has not now, and never has had, a narrow horizon. He is a Catholic. Let Mexico narrate his battle that the Church might live. No man need take exception to his amiability. The fight for the Mexican Church was that of a two-listed man. Politicians did not like it but it has ever been Bishop Kelly's motto to please God rather than man. The Catholic Church in Mexico, under God, lives through the exalted courage of a single man. And there is a fitness in the very selection of the see for the bishop. It is as yet partly missionary. It will be a laboratory to test the alchemy of his phenomenal resourcefulness and versatility. Our separated brethren have many misadventures about us there, but who can better stay it than one doubly American, by choice and service? No one better to represent his Church than the soldier-bishop; none fitter to defend it. Oklahoma is to be envied in the possession of a great man, humble, efficient, affable, amiable. Within its borders there will be no greater human asset than the Bishop of Oklahoma City.

Buys Village And Offers Free Homes

(Canadian Press)
 CANTON, Ohio, July 4.—The entire village of Lindentree, Ohio, with its 43 dwellings is waiting for occupants to move in with rent free promised for a year.

The village was purchased recently by C. A. Kolp, Canton business man, at public auction. It was prosperous when the mines were working. Now it is deserted by all excepting the Mayor, the Town Marshal, his deputy, and one family.

Following his purchase, Kolp announced that he would place the "keys of the village" in the hands of any Ohio organization or group of responsible persons who would occupy it for any length of time up to one year.

In addition to the dwelling the village has one schoolhouse, a garage and meeting place, a public square, one store building and one town pump.

Aged Mother Refuses To Forgive Daughter

(Canadian Press)
 NEW YORK, July 4.—Mrs. Katharine Eagan, 74, pressed her complaint of felonious assault against Mrs. Mary Hamilton, 34, with whom she lived, when the latter was arraigned in West Side Court on a charge of urging her pet dog to attack her mother and severely hit her. Mrs. Hamilton was held in $5,000 bail.

According to the aged woman's testimony, her daughter, while under the influence of liquor urged her bulldog "Mickey" to attack her, and the animal inflicted deep lacerations on both her arms. She succeeded in fighting the dog off and locked him up in a bedroom. She started to run from the apartment, but her daughter, she continued, opened the bedroom door and again urged the dog to attack her. Springing upon her, she testified, the dog dragged her to the floor and she was rescued with difficulty by neighbors.

After passing considerable time in the hospital he grew much better and the mill company offered him a life job in the mill at light work. He did not feel himself able to accept the offer and instead accepted a lump sum of $300 and came to his old home this spring quite ill and from which he never recovered. His remains were buried at St. Columba, Thursday.

New Famine Now Threatens Russia

(Canadian Press)
 MOSCOW, July 4.—Widespread areas in Russia are threatened with a new famine because of a crop failure caused in part by the poor quality of seeds imported from America, dispatches here said today.

A widespread drought and unprecedented heat also has contributed to the crop failure, Government advices show.

Conditions are especially acute in the Volga, northern Caucasus, Cuban Don and Astrakhan regions, with a combined population of more than 5,000,000.

The Government, however, has issued a reassuring statement declaring the panic among the population is disappearing as imported material moves into the threatened area, and price regulation measures go into effect.

Ash-man Passes Up Good Sized Fortune

WASHINGTON, July 4.—May J. Fiske, who runs her own boarding house has clung to the old-fashioned custom of pinning her money to her corsets. Her savings amounted to more than $20,000, and were folded inside a little leather envelope and fastened to a corset.

To deceive a house-breaker Mrs. Fiske put her corset inside a heap of Sunday papers.

George Washington Jones, colored trash collector, got around early, and Mrs. Fiske, in her kimono and minus her corset, in a moment of mental aberration passed him the bundle of papers. It was not many minutes before she started to dress, missed her "stays", went into hysterics and sent for the police.

George Washington Jones was after waste paper not corsets.

*ROAD WORK.—Road work has started in a small way on the unfinished work on the North Side. Road a few men mostly from the Souris Line Road are working this week on the Big Pond Hill. Mr. Frank McInnis, Souris Line Road is in charge of the work.

*THE FISHING.—The lobster fishing during this extension week has failed to prove remunerative and fishermen are taking in their traps. In no other way than by a fall season, from sometime in August to sometime in September can the lobster fishery be profitable and also provide work and money for the people, and considerably lessen the usual fall exodus from our shores.

TRUTH
 The affairs of this world are kept together by what little Truth and Integrity still remains among us; and yet I much question whether the absolute dominion of Truth would be compatible with the existence of any society now existing upon the face of the Earth. Pure Truth, like pure Gold, has been found unfit for circulation, because men have discovered that it is far more convenient to adulterate the Truth, than to refine themselves. They will not advance their minds to the Standard, therefore they lower the Standard to their minds.—Colton.
