CARNIVAL, on Tuesday night.
The Abegweits second team returned yesterday morning from a visit to Souris.

COME with the crowd to the young men's social in the First Methodist church tonight.

A CONCERT will be given by the pupils of Prince Street School on Friday 11th, in Kindergarten Hall.

At a meeting of the Water Commissioners held last night Simon W. Crabbe was re-elected chairman of the Board.

THE returns received from Milton last evening were McLean 88, Hazard 46. This gives Mr. Hazard a majority in all of 311.

THE names of D. Ryan and P. D. Bowlen, Cardigan are mentioned as probable for a candidate to contest in the Liberal interests in the election for the vacant seat caused by the death of James E. McDonald.

A MALE quartette composed of Messrs. G. H. W. Moore, G. F. Hutcheson, A. G. Putnam and W. C. Turner will sing at the Y. M. C. A. Men's meeting on Sunday afternoon at 3.45. Rev. H. M. Matheson of Haverhill, Mass. will be the speaker. All men are invited.

A VERY enjoyable social was given at Grace Church parsonage last night by the missionary society. A very large number of the congregation were present and a choice program of readings, recitations and solos was given. Refreshments were afterwards served by the ladies.

THERE was crossing both ways at the Capes yesterday, the mails consisting of 36 bags arriving at Cape Traverse at 3.30. The special that left for the Cape Wednesday afternoon was engaged in fighting the snow between Emerald and Cape Traverse all day yesterday and only succeeded in reaching Traverse at seven o'clock. She left on return to the city at eight and only reached here shortly after midnight.

The first session of the annual meeting of the Grand Lodge, L. O. A. opened at 2.30 p. m. yesterday afternoon in Boyne Lodge Room, Wright's Hall. Owing to the delayed trains and the almost impassible state of the roads the session shortly adjourned till the arrival of the train from the west which reached the city shortly before nine o'clock. The Grand Lodge again met upon the arrival of the passengers from the train with a good attendance and as there was a large amount of routine business for transaction continued in session well into the morning hours.

WEDDING BELLS—At the residence of the bride's father, Junius Simpson, Hope River, Wednesday evening Feb. 17 at 8 o'clock Miss Agnes Simpson and Robert J. Anderson of Stanley Bridge were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Rev. Ewen McDonald. The bride was attired in cream voile with trimmings of lace and chiffon. She was attended by her cousin Miss Ada Simpson dressed in grey voile. The groom was supported by B. McEwen. After the ceremony upwards of fifty guests partook of the sumptuous repast provided for the occasion. The evening was passed pleasantly with games etc. The presents were numerous and costly showing the high esteem in which the young couple are held in the community. The Guardian joins with their many friends in wishing them "Bon Voyage" along the journey of life.

ABOUT two years ago John McNeill, son of Roderick McNeill, Vernon River, left for the Northwest to seek his fortune. During the past year his parents have not heard from him until yesterday when they learned that he had died at a boarding house in Pitou on Wednesday while waiting for the Minto to take him home. It is thought that he had been in ill health and left the Northwest to return to Vernon River but while at Pitou he passed away from the effects of his arduous trip across the Dominion. The remains were taken over in the Minto yesterday and the young man who hoped soon again to see his old home alive will be taken there today a corpse.

GO! LAME BACK OR LUMBAGO!
No need of that now. That sort of pain can be knocked out in short order, for Poison's Nerviline, which is five times stronger than any other penetrates at once through the tissues, reaches the source of suffering, drives it out and thus gives relief almost instantly. Not magic, but strength that gives Poison's Nerviline this power. You will think it magic however if you try it, pain goes so quickly. Sold by dealers everywhere, in large 25c. bottles.

MARRIED.
