COAL BROUGHT BACK

BERLIN, Oct. 21.—For the first time on record a cargo of coal was shipped yesterday from Berlin for the United States. This coal is part of a consignment of anthracite which was originally sent from America to Berlin to the firm of Gustav Schultz & Co. as an experiment. Owing to the strike in the United States, the coal was repurchased by the seller at the retail price ruling here.

A Breakfast Relish Prepared According to the Ideas of Great Medical Food Experts.

MALT BREAKFAST FOOD
Contains the True Elements of Health for Young and Old.

The ideas and suggestions of such celebrated food experts as Dr. Fothergill, Prof. W. M. Williams and Sir Henry Thomson regarding the use of Malt in connection with grain foods have been practically and successfully carried out by the manufacturers of Malt Breakfast Food. Users of Malt Breakfast Food obtain all the virtues of pure Malt in a form that conduces to health, strength and robustness. It should be remembered that one package of Malt Breakfast Food contains more nourishment than can be found in a dozen bottles of liquid malt extracts costing vastly more money. All Grocers sell Malt Breakfast Food.

The service in St. Mary's Church, Summerside, on Wednesday evening, Oct. 29 will be of a special character. When in addition to addresses to be given by the clergy attending the clerical association, an address will be given by Rev. W. J. Cox, B. D. formerly chaplain to the forces in South Africa.

There is a strong vein of practical humor in the mental composition of Mr. Hector and throughout his lecture succeeded without any apparent difficulty in keeping his audience in roars of laughter.—Toronto World—Mr. Hector will lecture in Methodist church Summerside tomorrow evening.

George Sinclair and his son James with his wife and family, purpose leaving on Monday for California where they will reside in future. Mr. Sinclair is one of Malpeque's oldest residents, and his departure means a great loss to the community. His many friends wish him a pleasant journey to his new home.

When looking for a fur jacket be sure that the name Jas. Coristine & Co. is marked on the back of the collar, some other are genuine. Sinclair & Stewart has them and can show you how every jacket is made. This is why a Coristine Jacket gives such satisfaction.

The new steam heating apparatus in St. Paul's R. C. Church of this town was used for the first time on Sunday and gave the best of satisfaction. Although under very low pressure the system worked so well that the building was almost uncomfortably warm. The popular pastor Rev. J. C. McLean and his congregation are to be congratulated on this acquisition to their beautiful church property. The apparatus was installed by Rogers & Rogers.

As Market Hall has already been engaged for Wednesday night and as Epworth Hall is considered too small, the minister and officers of the Methodist church have kindly given that church for the lecture by the Rev. J. H. Hector on "Slavery in the past and slavery to-day." Mr. Hector will be accompanied by Mr. Coffin, a noted colored singer, which will add greatly to the interest of the meeting. Do not fail to attend. You will be sorry if you miss it.

HE CAN PROVE IT.

Mr. Chelker is prepared to substantiate the Truth of the Statements He Has Made.

HOUSEY'S RAPIDS, Ont. 27th.—(Special)—The open letter of Mr. George C. Chalkler, of this place, published in the daily papers some time ago, has created quite a sensation and considerable inquiry from those who do not know Mr. Chalkler. His friends are well aware that he would not put his name to any statement that he could not substantiate the truth of every assertion he made. In the letter he said—

"I was laid up with Kidney Trouble and was so bad that I could not do a day's work. My back was very sore. I had heavy, aching arms and dull, bloated eyes. I was very weak and much reduced in weight. Six boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills cured me completely and I have not the slightest trace of Backache or Kidney Trouble."

Elegance and good taste in design and color good stock and well-dyed yarn in Home Made Tweeds gratify the salesman, the buyer, the shopman and the farmer. That's why all prefer to have Reid's Tryon make. 28 11

A WORD TO FARM TOILERS.

Paine's Celery Compound

The Home Friend of the Farmer and his Family in the Autumn Season.

After the labors and toils of the summer time, and harvesting of crops in the early autumn, many of our farmers, their wives, daughters and sons, find themselves in a condition of health demanding careful attention if suffering is to be avoided later on. Many experience kidney trouble of some form; with some the liver is torpid; there is biliousness, nausea and vomiting, with loss of appetite and depression of spirits. Thousands who have been exposed to cold, damp winds and rains, now feel the twinges of terrible rheumatism; others run down by worry, overwork and irregular dieting, are tormented with the pangs of dyspepsia.

To the thousands of rundown, sickly and half dead men and women in farm houses we recommend with all honesty and confidence the worker's friend, Paine's Celery Compound, the only medicine that can quickly and fully restore strength to the weak body and vigor to the muscles. Paine's Celery Compound tones the stomach; it removes poisonous acids from the blood which cause rheumatism; it feeds the weak and diseased nerves and banishes neuralgia, tortures; it purifies the blood and gives true vitality and life. The use of Paine's Celery Compound in autumn means the establishing of a perfect physical vigor to withstand the rigors of a severe winter.

RURAL EDITOR'S LOGIC.

A number of country weeklies have taken up the fight of the local merchants against big mail order houses, and are pleading with their readers not to patronize out-of-town merchants, says the Mail Order Journal. How ably they are pleading for the local merchants can best be judged by the following editorial published by a country weekly in Kentucky: "Who sympathized with you when your little child was sick? Was it your home merchant, or was it Sears Roebuck & Co., of Chicago? Who credited you last winter when you were out of a job and had no money? Was it the New York Store in Louisville, or was it your home merchant? When you want to raise money for your church or some needy person in town, do you write to the Fair Store in Chicago, or do you go to your home merchant? How much does the firm of J. Eason & Sons of Louisville, give towards keeping up the sidewalks of the town or paying the minister's salary? When you were sick, how many nights did Siegel, Cooper & Co., of Chicago, sit up with you? When your loved one was buried, was it your home merchant that dropped the tear of sympathy and uttered the cheering word, or was it Deppen & Sons, of Louisville?"

The High Grade Art Parlor is carrying a nice line of picture mouldings all sizes and of all grades and styles of engraving from tintypes, photos and from groups and make any changes that may be necessary.
