Prince Edward Island and New Brunswick Governments are co-operating in a Safety Campaign designed to emphasize the urgent necessity of care, courtesy and common sense on the highways. A radio address was given last Saturday night by Lieutenant Governor Bernard, and advertising will appear in provincial newspapers during the next four weeks. It is to be hoped that the public will co-operate in an effort to save lives, to reduce the number of accidents with a view to making our highways safe for the motorist, safe for the pedestrian, safe for everybody.

C.P.O. Lawson Drake, 186 Prince Street, Charlottetown, P.E.I. — a member of the Navy League Sea Cadet Corps "Kent" — is one of 25 Navy League sea cadets chosen to represent the Canadian sea cadet movement on a visit to the United Kingdom. Under the command of Lieut. Commander James M. Moffat, R.C.S.C., Weston, Ont., the party is scheduled to leave Halifax aboard H.M.C.S. "Warrior" on August 2nd. and on arrival in England, will be the guests of the Navy League of England and the British Admiralty.

Navy League officials say that young Drake has brought honor and distinction to himself, his corps and Charlottetown, by being so well qualified in all respects that he was chosen from among the thousands of sea cadets throughout Canada. In all there will be ten lads from Ontario, two each from British Columbia mainland, Manitoba and Quebec; and one each from the other nine divisions of the Navy League hence the group will be thoroughly representative of the Canadian sea cadet corps from coast to coast.

According to present plans the sea cadets will spend a week in Royal Navy establishments, another week sightseeing and a third week on the Clyde among Royal Navy ships. If time permits, those having relatives will be given an opportunity to visit them. The party is expected to return to Canada about the end of August.

Miss Annie O'Hanley, 68, of St. Peter's was struck and seriously hurt by a car at 6.12 yesterday evening after she had alighted from a bus at Marie, a rural community about two miles east of Morell.

The elderly woman had stepped off the bus and, after walking to the rear of it, had started to cross the road when she was struck by a car driven by Mr. Harold Betts, Rocky Point.

An ambulance was summoned from the City and upon its arrival Miss O'Hanley was rushed to the Charlottetown Hospital where examination revealed she had sustained two broken legs and other injuries.

Her condition last night was considered serious.

Aviswell arrived in Georgetown yesterday to load pit props for the United Kingdom. 2,000 cords are already in Georgetown and it is expected the ship will take the bulk of them, part going as deck load. It is expected the crew of 36 stevedores will require six to seven days to load the ship. The cargo is being shipped by the Bergman Construction Company.

The steamer sailed from Grangemouth, England, and called at Pictou, N.S., before coming here. She arrived in ballast and was piloted in by Temple Gotell and his assistant, Victor Rafuse.

The captain is G. W. Marlon.

LEGION MEETING AT VICTORIA — The Ladies Auxiliary of the Victoria Branch of the Canadian Legion held a most enjoyable and well attended meeting last night at the home of the vice-president, Mrs. Keith Boswell. After disposal of the auxiliary business the men of the Branch were invited to join the ladies and discuss mutual problems with officers of Provincial Command who were present. The President of the Victoria Branch Mr. Keith Boswell presided over the joint meeting and introduced J. S. Walker, Provincial President, T. E. MacNutt and A. H. Peake. Mr. Walker in his address remarked that this was a unique occasion in that it was the first time members of the Provincial Executive had been invited to meet with one of the ladies auxiliaries. At the conclusion of the discussion a delightful supper was served by the ladies and the evening concluded with a singsong and dancing.

BRIDE ENTERTAINED — On Thursday afternoon July 17th the members of the Ladies Aid, New Dominion United Church met at the home of Mrs. Allison MacMillan to honor a recent bride and former associate Mrs. Dr. W. Tidmarsh. Tea was served on the lawn, roses and snapdragons were the decorations on the tea table. Mrs. Geo. MacPhee presided over the tea cups, and Mrs. Hector Currie cut the ices while a number of the younger members including the Misses Florence and Lois McLean, Gloria Burdett, Peggy and Audrey MacMillan assisted in serving. Mrs. Dan Livingston, President of the Ladies Aid in a neat and humorous speech called on Mrs. Bruce McLean who presented the guest of honor with an appropriate gift to which Mrs. Tidmarsh feelingly replied. The members then enjoyed a social hour with their guest.

An important development in Prince Edward Island's rapidly expanding poultry industry has taken place during the past week with the decision of some of the province's largest producers, and several others closely associated with the industry here, to establish another chick hatchery in the province located at Charlottetown.

To accomplish this purpose, the Island Chick Hatchery Co. has been formed headed by Donald A. MacDonald M.B.E., Glenfinnan, whose poultry have been among the heaviest prize-winners at the Provincial exhibitions for many years; with him in the new company are associated, vice-president, Mr Harold Smith of Smith Bros., Pownal, Secretary-Treasurer, Mr W G Mirgo, Charlottetown, and Mr J D MacDonald, Glenfinnan. The new hatchery will be under the management of Mr Basil MacQuaid, Charlottetown, who has had many years experience in all phases of poultry work, and who is well-known throughout the Province.

CELEBRATE 50TH ANNIVERSARY —At their home in Nerepis, Rev. and Mrs L.J. Wason celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. It was on July 15, 1897, that the late Rev. Sedgwick Bayley united in marriage Rev Leonard Wason and Miss Bessie Wilson of Leonardville, Deer Island. The wedding took place in the Methodist Church at Leonard-Island. The wedding took place in the Methodist Church at Leonardville, and the young couple went to Titusville to reside, Mr. Wason being the pastor of the Methodist Church there Mr. Wason has held pastorates at Grand Lake for two terms, Montague, Mount Stewart and Winsloe in P.E.I., and Jerusalem and Silver Falls for two terms, and at Welsford, N.B. It was during his second term at Silver Falls that Mr. Wason retired. He and his family then lived at Loch Lomond for eight years, moving to Nerepis in 1945. Their family included three children, the eldest, Geraldine, who died in 1930; Marjorie (Mrs. Herbert Gaunce., Nerepis; and J.E. Llewhellin, of Castalia, Grand Manan. Cox. Interment was in the People's Cemetery.

The farm labour shortage still remains the greatest handicap confronting the farmers of the Province, the Hon. W. F. A. Stewart said yesterday, and he could not see any immediate relief to the present situation. Shorter working hours with higher pay in many other occupations was the chief reason for the reluctance of many persons to go on the farms.

Commenting on present crop conditions, the Minister said the grain harvest will be a bumper one and that present indications are the root crops will be better than average.

The work of building a concrete foundation and basement for Beach Grove Inn as the preliminary step in converting the former summer hotel to a new Provincial Infirmary is now under way, Hon. W. M. Hughes, Minister of Public Health and Welfare, informed The Guardian yesterday. Messrs. Phillips and Matheson are the contractors. The reconversion work is, Mr. Hughes explained, under the supervision of the Department of Public Works and Highways.

EXECUTIVE OF W. I. HOLD MEETING—A meeting of the Provincial Executive of the Women's Institutes of Prince Edward Island was held in the Institute rest room on Tuesday, July 29th at 1.30 o'clock. Mrs. Alan Stewart, Provincial President, welcomed the new executive members and plans were laid for the conveners' projects for the coming year. Mrs. Alan Stewart and Mrs. Julian Herring were appointed to act on the Policy Committee for the coming term with Mrs. George Martin acting in advisory capacity, and resolutions passed at the annual convention were handed over to the Policy Committee for further action. Mrs. Fred Gates was appointed Publicity Director.

Work was commenced last week by the Provincial Government on repairing the wooden approach for both pedestrian and vehicle traffic, of the Rocky Point ferry wharf on the Rocky Point side. The project consists mainly of filling in road and replacing of decayed and worn out planking. This job which is being done by day labor, is under the direction of job foreman William Mutch. The repairs to be done on the Charlottetown side have not been started yet, other than the tearing down of a coal shed on the wharf site, but is expected to commence just as soon as the work to be done is laid down by engineers in charge.

Preceding this wharf project, H.J. Phillips and Son, under contract let by the Dominion Government in June 1946, completed the repairing of the guide piers of this wharf, putting in new pilings and reinforcing the piers generally, in order to give them added support against the heavy ice and high tides to which they are subjected to each Spring. All timber portions vulnerable to the tides, were of creasoted material, to protect them from Teredo Navalis or shipworm, the job having been completed satisfactorily by the first of June of this year. Steel floats, which were constructed in Pictou, N.S. were also put under the floating ramps.

Mr. Joseph Roland MacMillan, LL.B., son of Hon. Dr. W.J.P. MacMillan, O.B.E., was admitted to the Bar of this Province yesterday morning at an adjourned sitting of the Supreme Court.

Chief Justice Thane A. Campbell, who presided, congratulated the new barrister and solicitor and extended best wishes for success in his chosen profession. His Lordship made reference to Mr. MacMillan's father, Hon. Dr. MacMillan and his long period of public service in the Province and expressed the hope that the splendid public devotion of the genial Doctor would be imitated by his son.

Congratulations were also extended by Mr. Justice McGuigan, Judge C.G. Duffy and visiting Justice Barlow of the Ontario Supreme Court. Mr. H.F. MacPhee, K.C., spoke briefly on behalf of the Law Society.

The application for Mr. MacMillan's admission as an attorney and barrister was made by Mr. M. Alban Farmer, LL.B.

Mr. MacMillan is a graduate of St. Frances Xavier University and Dalhousie Law School and is a member of the Nova Scotia Bar Society having served his required time with Mr. J.A. Walker, K.C., of Halifax. He was a former student of Queen Square School and St. Dunstan's University. During the war he served as a Lieutenant with the Canadian Infantry, serving in Canada England and North Western Europe.

He will practice his profession in Charlottetown, and is opening a law office on Queen Street.
