IN MEMORIAM

MRS. ISABELLA PORTER

After an illness extending over a period of some years and finally culminating in an attack of influenza, Mrs. Isabella Jenkins relict of the late John Porter departed this life on December 21st 1918, in the 56th year of her age.

Although in feeble health, as stated, the deceased did not relinquish the stern duties of an arduous life, but by indomitable perseverance and thrift succeeded in maintaining the home in an efficient state.

Of a quiet and unassuming disposition, she was much endeared to the people of this vicinity, and will be much missed by those with whom she associated. The nature of the sickness prevented that social intercourse which was always shown by her neighbors, yet the faithful few who did attend testify that all through her illness she exemplified an implicit trust in her Saviour and was resigned to leave this earthly tabernacle to inhabit a world where pain and sorrow are unknown.

The deceased leaves to mourn a family of three: William N. and Annie of Murray River and Raulston at home.

The funeral services, necessarily brief were conducted by the Pastor Rev. A. Sutherland and the remains were interred in the Cemetery at Murray Harbor North. "There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.—W. L. M.

MRS. (LIEUT.) CAMERON, McFARLANE,

With deep regret do we record the death at McDonald College, Quebec, on the 25th day of January last, of Mrs. Cameron McFarlane, wife of Lieutenant, N.C. McFarlane.

Mrs. McFarlane, formerly Fredericka Campbell of Park Corner, Prince Edward Island, graduated from Prince of Wales College at the early age of fourteen. Following a successful career in the teaching profession she took a course in Nature Study at Guelph, Ontario. Later she entered McDonald College, St. Anne de Bellevue and graduated with honors in Household Science, being Valedictorian of her class. She was then appointed Vice Principal of Red Deer Ladies College, Alberta, but returned to St. Anne de Bellevue, the following year and accepted the position of Domestic Demonstrator for McDonald College, which position she held till her death.

About three months ago her brother the late George L. Campbell and his little son died of infuenza. Mrs. McFarlane hastened to her home where she nursed and cared for the stricken ones. Shortly after her return to McDonald College she contracted the dread disease which caused her death. Mrs. L.M. McDonald was with her during her illness.

Mrs. McFarlane was the daughter of the late John Campbell who died about one year ago. She is survived by here mother and two sisters, Mrs. Wilson and Miss Stella of California.

She was an exceptionally bright and clever woman. Her services were highly appreciated in the Province of Quebec and at McDonald College, where she was regarded as a leader in her profession.

She was a cheerful, witty conversationlist.

By sincerity of purpose, courage and optimism she won the respect and admiration of all who knew her.

The degrees of success attained in the various enterprises of the Homemakers Clubs in Quebec are attributable in a large measure to her clearness of vision and her unfaltering, tireless energy.

The funeral service, conducted by the Rev. Mr. Goodwill of Kensington, assisted by Rev. Mr. Murchison, and Rev. Mr. Sterling, took place at the residence of her late father on the 31st day of January. Mr. Bruce D. Howatt touchingly sand Herbert Johnson's "Face to Face". The remains were interred in the Geddy Memorial Cemetery, French River, P. E. I.

Human sympathy, however deep however profound, cannot comfort in the hour of bereavement, for every human soul must tread its Gethsemane alone. Yet such as we have do we extend to those who long for the touches of vanished hands and the sounds of voices that are still.

BERTRAM D. PENPRAISE.

The death occured at St. Roch's Hospital, Winnipeg, on Friday, Oct. 18th. of Bertram D. Penpraise, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Penpraise, of Victoria, P.E.I. He had been sick less than a week with Spanish Influenza which developed into pneumonia.

Bert, who was twenty-five years of age, was a quiet lovable young man, greatly liked by all who knew him. He was very faithful in the discharge of his duties and a great favorite with all the office staff at the Canadian Northern Railway offices where he worked.

Some three years ago he visited his parents in Victoria.

Early in the winter of 1915 he joined the 184th. Battalion, then being recruited in Winnipeg, but, in the summer of 1916 was, much to his regret, honorably discharged as medically unfit.

The funeral, which took place in Winnipeg on Oct. 22nd. was a private one, but this did not prevent a large number of friends from going to Clark Leatherdale's funeral chapel to pay their last respects.

Interment took place in the Soldier's plot at Brookside Cemetery. Rev. Mr. Colwell of Grace Methodist Church conducted the service at the graveside.

Besides the sorrowing parents, there is left to mourn one sister, Florence, who arrived in Winnipeg the night before her brother took ill and was able to be near him during his illness.

The sympathy of the whole community goes out to the family in their sad bereavement.

Cross, Feverish Child is Bilious or Constipated

Look, Mother! See if tongue is coated, breath hot or stomach sour

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm tender stomach, liver, bowels

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs," that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish, or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue, mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. When the little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomachache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here, so don't be fooled. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company."
