Fredericton Notes

Miss Mary Stevenson has returned to her home after spending a pleasant week-end visiting in Charlottetown, the guest of her aunt, Mrs. MacKinnon, School St. Miss Ruth Culliffe, Cape Traverse, now attending C. B. C. student, spent the week end visiting friends and relatives at Hunter River and Fredericton. Mrs. William Tinney of Charlottetown, was a recent visitor to Fredericton, where she attended the funeral of the late Elmer Buchanan. A very interesting meeting of the Young People's Society of the United Church, was held at the home of Mrs. Frank Culliffe on Tuesday. The devotional period was led by Miss Florence McSwain and the discussion by Rev. Mr. Palehorpe. The officers for the next quarter were elected as follows: Pres., Mrs. Frank Culliffe; Secy., Miss Isla Weeks; Organist, Miss Ruby Sharpe. It was decided that they celebrate the anniversary by a chicken supper. Mrs. Culliffe has kindly loaned her home for the purpose. The next regular meeting is to be held on December 10, at the home of Miss Florence McSwain, Pleasant Valley. One shoe manufacturing concern in France has 500 retail stores.

Sores Flea Before It.—There are many who have been afflicted with sores and have driven them away with Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil. All similarly troubled should lose no time in applying this splendid remedy, as there is nothing like it to be had. It is cheap, but its power is in no way expressed by its low price.

Our genial merchant, Mr. Walter Weeks, is making an addition to his already fine store. Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Ramsay of Hamilton, have returned home after visiting friends and relatives at Springfield and Fredericton. The stork arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Weeks and left them the proud possessors of a bonnie wee lassie. Dr. Murchison, the popular doctor at Hunter River, has been getting a great many calls to the surrounding districts. Mr. Richard Creed was inspecting potatoes around this vicinity recently. The Refuge Division held their regular meeting on Thursday night. Miss Agnes Arthur acted as Worthy Patriarch in the absence of Mr. Norman McDonald. We were glad to welcome Mr. Roland Hickox into the

IMPORTANT FUR NEWS

The recent tremendous changes that have taken place in the Stock Markets and the credit situation in Europe has brought about a decline in Fur Prices. The fact of the matter is that all merchandise classed as Luxuries is meeting with a decline in prices. That is natural. People who had lots of money to spend last year were good buyers. This year that class of people—the Speculators and the Rich—are broke or badly bent.

Hudson's Bay Company of London, Eng.

we are prepared to maintain our position as Fur Buyers in this Province, paying as in the past, the top Market Prices for Silver Fox and other Furs; but we must be frank and tell you that we cannot pay the prices paid last year.

If you are willing to accept the changed conditions we are willing to buy. IF YOU DON'T WANT TO SELL AND YOU THINK THAT THE MARKET WILL BE STRONGER FOR SILVER FOX FURS LATER ON WE ARE READY TO GIVE YOU THE ADVANTAGE OF THE HUDSON'S BAY AUCTION AND ACCEPT YOUR FURS ON CONSIGNMENT, GIVING YOU A GENEROUS ADVANCE IN CASH AGAINST A FAIR VALUATION.

NO CONSIGNMENTS TO THE HUDSON'S BAY COMPANY WILL BE ACCEPTED BY THEM UNLESS MADE THROUGH US.

BRADFORD, England, Dec. 3.—News has been received here that new Australian tariff involves abolition of the British preferential tariff given on woolen yarns, also the addition of a specific of 25 cents per pound on the extra foreign import duty of 35 per cent. It is pointed out in Yorkshire the higher priced yarns now sent Australia from the west riding of great textile manufacturing co now sell at $1.25 per pound so the new duty of 25 cents is all bound to exclude them altogether. "We cannot believe the whole of preferential tariffs has been down," said Douglas Hamilton, president of the Bradford Chamber of Commerce today. "We are not some mistake has been made."

plebiscite is Nonsense "It is nonsense to determine by a plebiscite that a people doesn't want to pay. Of course it doesn't want to pay. The only question is whether it must pay or not. A plebiscite on this question is sheer nonsense." Although admitting that he was obliged to make certain reservations for the present, Dr. Curtius openly endorsed the Young Plan. "In comparison with the Dawes plan, the new scheme, on a different political basis, is to bring an import-
