

HOUN' DAWGS HIT BY MARKET SLUMP.
 WASHINGTON, July 10—There is a little general store in a rickety old frame building in Pennsylvania Avenue, close to Capitol Hill. The widow who runs it bought a supply of miniature "houn' dawgs" about a month ago, when the Champ Clark boom was at its height. She filled the window with them and advertised them at 25 cents. Now she has removed the quarter sign and put a "two for a nickel" placard in its place.

THE TOBACCO HABIT.

Tobacco is the most extensively used luxury on the face of the earth, and its consumption is not confined to any particular class or nationality. People of all walks of life and of all races are addicted to its use and the habit is growing in a manner that is astounding. America, in the use of tobacco, holds a record that is hard to surpass. The internal revenue derived from tobacco consumed in the United States in a year would build fourteen battleships of the first class, or it would pay the salary of the President for nearly a thousand years.

A FRIENDLY INVITATION.

Come where the breezes are sighing. Where the roses and lilies sleep. Where the green is richest and freshest. Where the shades are cool and deep.

Come where the zephyrs are sea-made—Cooled from their play with the brine, And perfumed from wandering o'er hay-fields and gardens where blooms the thyme.

Come where the birds sing gaily Their matin and vesper hymn, Where they chant their lauds at noon-tide From flower-shaded branch and limb.

Come where the bee sips honey From blossoms of wood and field, And flowers that grow in the gardens, The sweetest nature can yield.

Come where the brooks and stream-lets Babble adown the dells With a sweet and refreshing music Like the sound of silver bells.

Come where the moonlight sparkles On dew-drops that cling to the rose— Where it silvers the sleeping meadows And the blossoms bowed in repose.

Come where the freshness of morning Lingers throughout the day Till it kisses Hesperia's ringlets, When it silently steals away.

Come and see for yourself, friend, And stay—even for the shortest while, And share the charms so varied That bless Prince Edward Isle.

—T. G. Gorman, 178 Western Ave., Cambridge, Mass.

SOURIS EAST AND MONTAGUE

...It pays to buy in this Province.

...Miss May McIntyre, Souris, who spent the winter in Virginia, returned home Thursday.

...Laurie Kelly was in Souris Thursday repairing the telephone lines which were damaged by the recent heavy electrical storms.

...Three persons spent Thursday night in the coope for being drunk and disorderly, they were released yesterday on receipt of the demands of Magistrate McCormick.

...Messrs Hall, H. Bertrand, and P. E. Cote, of the Public Works Dept., Ottawa, were passengers by the S. S. Lady Sybil, Thursday enroute to Etang du Nord, where they intend surveying the coast, sandbars and shoals for a Government wharf and breakwater which is to be constructed shortly.

...The following passengers were on the S. S. Lady Sybil on Thursday from Souris enroute to the Magdalen House Harbor: Rev. De Gruchy, and his brother, Grindstone; Mr. Carbenegu and family; Caspe who intend spending the summer at the Magdalen's, and Miss Leslie of Halifax.

...A correspondent writes from Little Pond that the new road system is in vogue around Little Pond under the efficient management of the road master Alex F. McDonald. The roads were never in a better condition than at present. Miss Mary T. McConnell, has arrived home from Uncle Sam's domain to spend the summer with her mother, Mrs. Margaret McConnell. Miss Sarah and Novena McConnell are visiting their old home at Little Pond. John A. Steele is seriously ill, but there are good hopes for his recovery. Mrs. William McDonald, Glenfinnan, was a visitor to Little Pond last week. Miss Mattie McDonald, Charlottetown, spent Dominion Day at Little Pond. Alex. A. McDonald, King's Co's Agent, is doing a rushing business selling perfect spray pumps, as potato bugs are very plentiful.

SCOLD YOUR WIFE.

If you wake up feeling bad, Scold your wife;
 If the weather makes you sad, Scold your wife;
 If your collar button slides Into some dark nook and hides, As you move with angry strides, Scold your wife;
 If the coffee's cold or flat, Scold your wife;
 If your chop has too much fat, Scold your wife;
 If you chance to get your sleeve In the butter, do not heave Soft sighs or in silence grieve— Scold your wife;
 If your hat has gone astray, If you're late upon the way, If the day brings any loss, If you fall to please the boss, Journey homeward feeling cross— Scold your wife;
 Never mind what ill she bears— Scold your wife;
 Add your own to all her cares— Scold your wife;
 That's the way to get along; She is weak and you are strong; Every time a thing goes wrong, Scold your wife; —Anan.

A WOMAN'S AMBULANCE CORPS.

Women are very much to the fore just now in many fields outside the political arena. Quite recently, according to The Sphere, Mrs. St. Clair Stohart fully demonstrated the utility of the Women's Sick and Wounded Convoys Corps at the field day at the Hampstead Garden Suburb, near London. Not only were the members particularly alert in the pitching of a fully-equipped hospital tent, making bivouacs and supplementary ambulances, but the camp kitchen was prepared in quite a soldierly manner, and the luncheon it provided was excellent. The manoeuvres also were carried out with great efficiency, especially the movement "succoring the wounded," and there is no doubt that the corps is undertaking a patriotic work that is not only ennobling but calculated to have a lasting effect for good on the character as well as physique of the members belonging to it.

A COSTLY WEDDING.

NEW YORK, July 10—The cost of financing a society girl's wedding is revealed in papers filed by Robert B. Roosevelt, Jr., father of Mrs. Olga Roosevelt Bayne, of Washington who was married November 15, last. Among the items are: Wedding supper—$564. Trousseau—$1,200. Dinner dance at Chevy Chase Club—$87. Music—$105.

Tips given by bride—$15. Bride's gift to clergyman—$100. Bridesmaid's lockets (five)—$375. This makes a total of $2,446. In addition, the living expenses of the bride for the month of the marriage were $305 and her father paid $300 for fidelity, her horse. Mrs. Bayne reached the age of twenty-one April 5 last. Because she is no longer an infant to the eyes of the law her father wishes to turn over to her management the estate she inherited from her mother, Grace Roosevelt. Mrs. Roosevelt died in 1894, leaving most of her estate to her daughter. She was a cousin of ex-President Theodore Roosevelt.

Mrs. Olga Roosevelt Bayne is the wife of Dr. Joseph Breckenridge Bayne. Her mother died in 1894, when Mrs. Bayne was three years old, leaving $70,000 in trust for the little girl. This is the third legacy Mrs. Bayne has received in three years. Three weeks ago she got $300,000 from the estate of her grandfather, Lorenzo G. Woodhouse of Burlington, Vt. Three years ago she inherited $200,000 from the estate of Mrs. Stephen S. Cummins. This totals $815,000. The interest accumulated during her minority will bring the whole over the million dollar mark.

THINGS THAT PLEASE.

A Woman Likes:— To be called sensible. To be complimented on being well dressed. To be told that she is fascinating. To be told that she improves a man by her companionship. To depend on some man and pretend she is ruling him. To be treated sensibly and honestly, and not as a butterfly with no head or heart. To be loved and admired by a man who is strong enough to rule her and make his way her way. To find happiness in being ruled by an intellect that she can look up to admiringly, and one to whom her own mind bows in reverence. A Man is Pleased:— To have a woman love him. To have a soft magnetic hand alleviate the pain of an aching head. To have a woman's hand smooth away the careworn expression and wrinkles from his brow. To have a woman's strength to help him over the weak places in his life. To have a woman sometimes treat him as a big baby, to be cared for and caressed. To have a woman ask his advice. To have a woman tell him that he is twice as smart as he really is—not, of course, in so many words.

TESTIMONIALS.

DEAR SIR:—I had a mare which had a very bad cough and heaves for almost six months, and besides so thin there was nothing left apparently but skin and bones and I was tempted to shoot her. A friend of mine who had used Dr. J. Woodbury's Horse Liniment, with good success, induced me to try one bottle of it which I used with the best result. I used just give the very best results for distemper. I certainly consider it the best on the market, and would never be without a bottle in my stable. (Signed) WALTER SLATER, "Cash Library" Hillboro, N.S.

MESSES FRASIER, THORNTON & CO., Limited, Cookshire, Que.

GENTLEMEN:—I have used your "Dr. J. Woodbury's Horse Liniment" for the past seven years for coughs, colds, and lameness of all kinds, and find it gives the very best results for distemper. I certainly consider it the best on the market, and am never without your Liniment and Condition Powders in my stable. (Signed) G. E. CRONKHITE, (Foreman) Hawkehaw, N. B.

DEAR SIR:—I have used Dr. Woodbury's Horse Liniment for a number of years, and have found it to be the most excellent article for the feet of horses kept in the stable. It prevents dryness and hardness, promotes a smooth and healthy growth and will used according to directions, soon remedy anything like contractions of the hoof. W. A. C. RANDALL, M. D.
