THE TRACTOR ILLUSTRATED. - A fairly large number including members of the local Legislature were present at the Strand Theatre Thursday afternoon to witness a five reel show on "Power Farming." The pictures were bright and clear and gave the audience most convincing proof of the superiority of the tractor over the horse. Scenes of farms being ploughed and harrowed, harvest cut, stacked and threshed all with the tractor, were most interesting. During the showing of the reels Mr. Hayes gave a lecture on "Seed Bed Preparation" and Mr. Dobson on "Mechanical Construction." At the close of the entertainment an interesting talk was given on mechanical appliances.

ENTERS THE CHURCH - On Saturday March 19th, the feast of St. Joseph, the novitiate of the Sisters of St. Joseph in St. Paul, was the scene of a beautiful religious ceremony. On that occasion, twenty-eight postulants, received the habit of the congregation, while ten sisters pronounced their final vows. The Mass was said at 9.30 A. M. by Rev. Virgil Michel, G. S. B. His grace Archbishop Dowling presiding at the various ceremonies. The postulants one of whom was Mary Lamb of Emerald, P. E. I. were beautifully attired in their bridal robes, and carried shower bouquets of roses. During the procession the choir of sisters rendered appropriate musical selections. After blessing the religious habits the Most Rev. Austin Dowling, D. D. delivered an eloquent sermon on the religious life. The postulants kneeling at the sanctuary rail expressed the desire to change the robes of the world for the robes of the holy habit of the Sisters of St. Joseph. Having obtained the desired permission from the presiding prelate, the Most Rev. Archbishop, they withdrew from the chapel. Miss Lamb now takes the religious name of Sister Mary Almoda, and her career will, in all ways, be followed with interest by her P. E. I. relatives and friends.

College Girls Dance in Church Ritualistic Interpretation of Annunciation Given in St. Mark's in the Bouwarie NEW YORK, April 7 - Before six bare-footed young women appeared in the Episcopal church of St. Mark's in the Bouwarie in the ritual dance of the Della Robbia Annunciation, the Rev. Dr. William N. Guthrie, the rector, asked the congregation to bear witness that the dance was a holy thing no matter what misunderstanding may get abroad. The rector outlined the thesis of the dance, declaring emphatically: "If you do not know that a dance can be religious, the fault is yours, not mine - a fault in your culture." Positive ignorance and prejudices have made many persons believe that God will be happy if the church is closed to everything except that which bores, Dr. Guthrie continued. "But I believe the church should be open to everything that will bring men joy," he added. "Those who saw the dance yesterday - and included in this number were newspaper reporters who had been especially invited to see for themselves and not get their information from hearsay" - made no criticism of it as a violation of the sanctity of the church. The dancers were barefooted, but not barelegged. The young women wore simple, white satin draperies, but their costumes were not disparaging.

WHAT ONE OF THE BEST KNOWN TRAVELLERS IN CANADA SAYS "Now I am going to give you an unsolicited testimonial, as they say the patent medicine advertising hereafter. I have had a profound contempt for patent medicines, particularly so-called liniments. Perhaps this is due to the reason that I have never been ill a day in my life. One day last fall after a hard day's tramp in the snow of Montreal, I developed a severe pain in my leg and of course like a man who has never had anything wrong with him physically, I complained rather boisterously. The good little wife says: 'I will rub them with liniment I have.' 'Go ahead,' I said, 'I am a humorist.' 'Well, it comes with a bottle of MINARD'S LINIMENT and gets busy. Believe me the pain disappeared a few minutes after, and you can tell the world I said so.' (Signed) FRANK JONES, Montreal.

Sanctuary Veiled. Before the dance the sanctuary was veiled with curtains which harmonized in tone with the dais upon which the dance was given. The dais was directly in front of the first pews, and the dance could be seen from every seat in the church. As the sanctuary was veiled the organ played "Av Maria" and as it was unveiled after the dance Handel's Largo was played on the harp. The dance was inspired by the Della Robbia plaque which hangs in the church. The performance interpreted what it is assumed preceded and followed the scene which the painter depicted. The dancers were Bernard College girls, student of Miss Bid Larsen, professor of aesthetic dancing. The dance was marked by religious spirituality. All of the four scenes were touched with beauty.
