The people of New Annan and friends and relations were surprised when the sad and sorrowful news spread over the country that the grievous messenger of death had visited that locality on Feb. 20th and claimed as its victim Mrs. John Baker of New Annan in the 84th year of her age. Deceased had been in poor health for the past year and the last two months she was confined to her bed, but despite all the care that loving hands could bestow death came at an early hour to relieve her of her sufferings. She was a consistent member of the Roman Catholic Church and led an upright life and was much respected and esteemed by all who knew her. She was attended through her illness and in her last moments by her spiritual adviser and beloved pastor Rev. Mgr. Gillis. Her remains were laid to rest in St. Mary's Cemetery, Indian River where a large assemblage of friends and relatives had gathered to pay their last respects. A solemn requiem High Mass was celebrated by the pastor Mgr. Gillis after all that was mortal of a just woman was laid in the adjoining cemetery. She leaves to mourn a grief stricken husband two sons and two daughters John H. of New Annan; M. A. of Lynn, Mass.; Mrs. R. McHouall of Kennington; Mrs. H. B. Irwin of Bangor, Maine.
