Side By Side.
"We see today in this Cathedral two beloved clergymen lying side by side in death. Never before in the history of this diocese has an occasion like this taken place. We have seen young men, coming two, three and four at a time and sacrificing themselves to gether on the altar of this Cathedral to go forth to do the Master's work. But never before have two returned to the Sanctuary to give an account of their stewardship almost together. Let us think what the priesthood means to us. It is the eternal priesthood of God and Jesus Christ Himself who conditions their work here below. For the purpose of sacrifice were ordained. Christ asked the apostles to continue His labors. He took bread and broke it and said to them "This is my body," and taking the wine He said "This is my blood." Except ye eat of the flesh of the Son of Man and drink of his blood ye shall have no life in you. And He said to the apostles: "Do ye this in My name." This is the faith of the Catholic Church and the duty of the priesthood. Ever, when he stands before the altar, he offers the same sacrifice, and the assurance is given that Christ who died upon Calvary is substantially present upon the altar. With what sentiment of holiness therefore must the Priest enter the Sanctuary and go into the presence of God! In the administration of his office he breaks for the people the bread of life and brings to them the Redeemer that He may come into their soul and abide with them. "He that eateth My flesh and drinketh My blood will abide with Me and I with him and I shall raise him up on the last day." The place the priest takes in our Christian hearts is a high and holy one. He offers the sacrifice of propitiation to the Eternal Father, asking God that He will have mercy upon His people. He is the ambassador of Christ with power of reconciliation between a sinful man and his Creator. In Christ's holy name he pronounces the absolution here below but which is ratified forever in Heaven. Is it any wonder then, that we call the priest "Father," that we pour out our respect and love toward him who sacrifices his young life that he may become another Christ, to be engaged in service for others, to bring the gospel of Salvation to the nations that sit in darkness; to break the bread of life, to give consolation to the afflicted. These are the solemn and exalted duties of the priesthood of Jesus Christ.

Long And Valiant Work.
Referring to the late Father Ronald B. McDonald the speaker dwelt upon his long and valiant work in the Master's vineyard. He had died in the fullness of years, after a lifetime of service. He was one of the first students to be enrolled along with two others in the St. Dunstan's College, on January 17, 1855. He was ordained in 1856 and for fourteen years gave his active service to this diocese. He was a leader in the Temperance cause, preaching it from one end of the province to the other. He joined the Jesuit Fathers and for many years labored with them in his Master's service. He travelled extensively and his voice has been heard from the Gulf of Mexico to the St. Lawrence. It might be said of him that the law of God was on his lips. He preached salvation and turned many away from iniquity. During this long and valiant ministry he broke down in health and sought to recuperate in his native province, where his duties would be less strenuous than those in which he had been engaged. "We all acclaim him" continued the speaker warmly, "as the chief among the pastors of the Church here for the noble, valiant work he accomplished. No

ANNUAL MEETING OF CHILDREN'S AID SOCIETY

Dr. McMillan Re-elected President. Need of More Funds Strongly Emphasized. Agents Report Read and Adopted.

The annual meeting of the Children's Aid Society was held in the City Council chambers last night with the president Dr. McMillan in the chair and a representative attendance. The secretary treasurer, Mr. W. L. Cotton read the minutes of last meeting and after their adoption showed an expenditure of $644.23, leaving a balance on hand up to Nov 1st of $169.57. Mr. L. E. Shaw, agent for the Society submitted the following report: Mr. President and Members of the Executive of the Children's Aid Society.

An agent of your Society and Trust Officer for the City of Charlottetown, I wish to submit this report to my work for the months of September, October and November, 1922. On September 6th I received my appointment and spent the next two or three days in seeking to find out as well as possible how best to proceed in my work, and in visiting those places where boys are most likely to be found. In this way I soon got to know parents and having their children not in school that should be. A number of the latter were actually truant while others were rather slow in getting back to school. These I had very little trouble with but had to adopt stronger measures in dealing with the habitual truants. I found fifty-five during this period which I considered as such. Twenty-six of these I arrested and took to school, while the others had to be watched very carefully, and by doing so I got them to attend school fairly regularly. There are four or five boys who are acting very badly, but in the majority of cases they are doing very well—attend school regularly and are making good progress. During this period I made two hundred and forty-eight visits to homes, some of which I had to go to three or four times before I succeeded in getting the children to school. I find that in at least ninety per cent of the cases of truancy or irregularity of attendance, that it is the lack of home training and indifference on the part of the parents, that is the cause, while, in a few cases, extreme poverty prevents the parents from having their children properly clothed for school. These cases have been reported.

I visit the schools every day, Queen Square and West Kent, sometimes two and three times a day—and through the co-operation of principals and teachers have been enabled to find cases that otherwise I might not have been aware of. I fully sixty per cent of my time is taken up with this branch of my work. With respect to Children's Aid Work, my attention has been called to several cases that I find you have been dealing with for some time past, each of which I have carefully looked into. In one of those cases I have been able to place the two girls in good homes and to find suitable boarding places for one of the boys. The other boy is now living with his father. In two of the other cases nothing definite has yet been done. Early in September another case was brought to my attention and everything has been satisfactorily arranged. The mother and two children are now living in comfortable quarters. A few days ago I learned that a young lad—a work of this Society—who had been adopted by a family in the country had come back to his old home. This case is now under consideration. In conclusion I may add that since undertaking this work I have had my eyes opened to the necessity of dealing with those children who are not receiving a proper home training but are running wild and eventually may become a real menace to our city. There are several cases of this kind—boys who have no fear or respect for their own parents nor for the officers of the law. If our people could be brought to realize the importance of this work and the need of help and co-operation on their part, a great deal of good could be accomplished, and the Children's Aid Society would have a much larger membership than it now has.

Respectfully,
L. E. SHAW.

Mr. E. T. Higgs, M.L.A. in moving the adoption of the report expressed pleasure that the Society had secured the services of Mr. Shaw. The report was unanimously adopted. The following officers were then elected for the ensuing year: President, Dr. W.J.P. McMillan

(Special to The Guardian.)

American Property Destroyed By Quake

SANTIAGO, Chile, Nov 27.—Property of the American Refining and Smelting Company and small coastal boats were destroyed and larger ships damaged in Sunday's earthquakes and tidal wave north of Coquimbo according to despatches here today.

Further discussion was taken part in by Rev. Mr. Raymond Messrs. J.O. Hyndman, W.L. Cotton, Rev. Father St. John, Coun. Smith, Donald McKinnon, Coun. Moran, Mayor Jenkins, Mr. Henry Smith, Mr. Higgs and others. A resolution referring to the appointment of a board of management to consider amendments to the provincial act for the care of delinquent and dependent children to co-operate with the Social Service Council board already appointed, and that a draft of the Act containing provisions suitable to the conditions in this province be submitted to the Legislature at its next session, was lost on a vote of the meeting.

Dr. McMillan referred to the present arrangements for caring for delinquent boys. The Protestant home for girls at Truro has been found satisfactory. But the industrial home at St. John and the Protestant home at Halifax, have not been satisfactory. There is a satisfactory place for Catholic boys in Halifax. Through Mr. J.O. Hyndman the attention of the Society has been called to the Shawbridge Reform School near Montreal. This seems to be a splendid place and they can accommodate a certain number of Island boys at $35 per month per boy. This covers all expenses except transportation.

Coun. Moran as chairman of the Finance Committee said it would be impossible to appropriate any additional funds this year, but assured the Society of his keen sympathy and practical support for the coming year. His Worship Mayor Jenkins also expressed his appreciation of the good work done by the Society.

At the conclusion of the meeting a vote of thanks was tendered the president and officers of the Society for their untiring efforts during the year.

TEN PERSONS PERISHED IN ST. BONIFACE COLLEGE FIRE

Twenty Injured and Million Dollars Damage Done Jesuit Priest Blames Ku Klux Klan for Fire.

(Special to The Guardian.)
WINNIPEG, Nov 27.—Nine students and one member of the staff of St Boniface College known to have been in the building at the time the fire started early Saturday morning failed to answer the roll call this morning. All are believed to have perished in the flames. "The Ku Klux Klan is responsible for the fire in St. Boniface College in the same manner as other Roman cathedrals and institutions in the North American continent, including the recent one in Montreal." This declaration was made by one of the Jesuit Fathers who distinguished himself by his bravery during the fire Saturday morning. He however, made the earnest request that his name be withheld, partly because he did not wish to be marked for the special attentions of the "Invisible Empire," partly due, also, to the natural diffidence of his calling. "The explosion that immediately preceded the fire" he continued, "occurred in a part of the building where there was no material of any kind stored that could have given rise to such an explosion."
