

Are Your Glasses Right

Vision changes as all things do with the years and the glasses that were just right a few years ago may be all wrong today. If they have outlived their usefulness, you are doing your eyes an injury by wearing them and bring on headaches and nervous disorders. Better let us test your eyes and see whether your present glasses are suited to them.

A gentleman who came over by the Minto from Pictou on Thursday said that the only ice encountered that day was and that, once over that, the steamer did not stop speed at any time and that the passengers were surprised when they found the Minto had, when about sixteen miles from town.

The marriage took place in Brookline, Mass., Dec. 21st, 1910, of Almon H. Willey of Conway, New Hampshire, to Mary L. Pethick, of Cornwall, P. E. Island. Rev. L. A number of city men are still working on the ornamental trees in the squares and on the streets. They are pruning and trimming and here and there are cutting down any decayed or diseased trees which may detract from the beauty of the surroundings or prove to be valueless.

The farmers, writes a South Melville correspondent, are busily engaged in procuring firewood but owing to the scarcity of snow, they find a somewhat arduous task. Many are now advocating the entire use of stoves which are held here tri-weekly, seem to be a source of great intellectual improvement and culture to the young people of this district. The Debating Club has been reorganized and many interesting debates and programs help to pass away the long winter evenings. As a rule visitors receive a cordial reception.

Miss Grace Dunsford has returned from Charlottetown where she has been residing for the last few months. Miss Lauretta Egan of Hampton is visiting here the guest of her sister Mrs. Fred Dunsford. Miss Sadie Monahan, John and Patrick Malone have returned from a sojourn with friends in Bonshaw. Among the recent visitors to South Melville have been Misses Margaret Ferguson of Hampton, Carrie Costello of Bonshaw and Will and Peter Towle of Bonshaw. On Friday night a number of the youth and beauty of the district were entertained at "Lynch's" the home of Chas. Dunsford. The early hours of the evening were pleasantly spent in dancing, to the sweet strains of the violin, as played by Fred and Joe Dunsford. A notable feature was the step-dancing by some of the young ladies, which goes to show that the art has not quite declined in this section at least. After a very tempting repast had been served in Mrs Dunsford's usual good style, the company repaired to the drawing room, where they were treated to a musical program of a high order. Instrumental music by Miss Grace Dunsford on the organ, violin and harmonica selections by some of the young men along with well rendered solos and duets by others of the young ladies and gentlemen, gave evidence of South Melville possessing great musical talent. After Auld Lang Syne had been sung in which everyone joined the company dispersed to their homes, but not without tendering their sincere thanks to host and hostess for the most pleasant evening spent in many a day.
