GETTING TOO MUCH GOAL

Canada should have the same treatment as the United States in respect to the delivery of fuel. Mr. Brennan complains that Canada is being favored and getting a coal embargo against Canada hard coal which the United States as embodied in the resolution of needs. He expresses the suspicion Representative Brennan, of Michigan that coal-carrying roads in Canada, is not likely to result in an embargo being declared, according to the best information here. The United States because they get a long attitude of the Fuel Distributor haul and more money in freight from the beginning has been that charges.

A GIFT FROM ENGLAND.—Yesterday many were interested in the pair of pheasants displayed in the Two Macs window. The birds were the property of Mrs. (Dr.) Gordon Alley, having been sent to her from her home in England, coming direct by express in cold storage, in excellent condition. The delicacy is much appreciated and a bystander was heard to remark that it would not be a bad idea to try and secure some live pheasants from England to see if they could be bred here for future game purposes.

PRESENTATION AND MISCELLANEOUS

On the evening of Thursday, December 21st the many friends of Miss Maud Kennedy, Bradalme assembled at her home and gave her a pleasant surprise in the form of a presentation and miscellaneous shower combined. Shortly after the spacious drawing room, Rev. John Stirling took the chair and after having called the gathering to order read the following address from the Presbyterian church of which Miss Kennedy was organist for some eight years.

Miss E. Maud Kennedy, Dear Friend:—The members and adherents of the Bradalme congregation along with other of your friends have gathered this evening to express their esteem and goodwill toward you.

Time brings its changes in our individual, social and community life. Now and then we pause and these are impressed upon us. To many of us it only seems as yesterday since you were one of the happy school girls in our village. It is only when we actually count, that we discover that for nine years—ever since the present building was erected—you have been the organist of our church. Several ministers have occupied the pulpit during that time and we have seen many changes. Now you are about to leave us for new scenes and a new home. And we cannot permit you to go without some expression of our appreciation of your services during these years. The position of organist is not one of the easiest and not more so in Bradalme than elsewhere. Through those years you were faithful and persevering, you sought to make the music and the work of the choir harmonize with the rest of the service and contribute to the special end in view.

We ask you to accept these gifts with our sincere wishes for your happiness. The first in importance though not the most costly in money value is a copy of the Holy Scriptures. This we hope may be a reminder of our church and of the gospel we have heard there, above all may it speak to you of Him without whose friendship life can moralize its true happiness.

We will miss you and we know you will be missed in your home. In this world we cannot have everything. We have to give up some things that we may enjoy others. But our prayer is that you and he with whom you are to walk the pathway of life may be very happy in each other in your new home, in the blessing of God's favour, and in the service which you may together be permitted to render to him and to the world.

John Stirling, Hugh McLure, Clerk of Sessions; James McSwain for the managers.

At the close of the reading of the address Mr. James McSwain in behalf of the Presbyterian congregation presented Miss Kennedy with a beautiful leather bound Bible and a handsome silver tea service. Although very much taken by surprise Miss Kennedy in a few well chosen words thanked her many friends in the church for their great kindness in presenting her with such splendid gifts. The audience then broke out into singing "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow."

A SAD CALL.—Mr. R. B. Towriss, Manager of the Union Bank, received a telegram yesterday announcing the death of his sister, Mrs. Walter Taber of Athens, Ontario, which occurred in the General Hospital, Brockville at 6 o'clock yesterday morning. She had been operated on for appendicitis a few days ago, it was hoped, successfully but later complications set in and she passed away as above stated. She leaves to mourn her husband and four young children, the youngest only eight years of age. Mr. and Mrs. Towriss will have the sympathy of a host of friends in this regard. The funeral service will be held at the Presbyterian church of which Mrs. Kennedy was organist for some eight years.

long be surpassed. The presentations were followed by short addresses from Rev. R. H. Stavert, Messrs James McSwain, Fred W. Haslam, Hugh McKay, Dr. Geo. Green and Rev. John Stirling. All spoke in very high terms of Miss Kennedy and of the faithful services she had rendered to the Presbyterian Church in particular and to the community in general. She will be greatly missed in all of the different spheres of life.

After the addresses were over all joined in singing several verses of "Blest Be the Tie That Binds." The rest of the evening was very pleasantly spent in music, games and social intercourse. Before bidding each other a fond adieu, all joined hands and sang "Auld Lang Syne" after which the gathering was closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

Women Need More and Better Blood

To be strong, well, equal to demands of home, society, office or shop. It is a fact proven by thousands of grateful letters that Hood's Sarsaparilla is remarkably beneficial to young or older women. The most common ailments of women drain and weaken the system and sometimes result in anemia, nervous weakness, general break-down. Hood's Sarsaparilla gives the blood more vitality and better color, makes stronger nerves, and contributes to the length and enjoyment of life.

Maritime Religious Educational Council

The minutes of the Annual Meeting of the Religious Educational Council of Canada has recently come to an end and condensed items of interest to Sunday School Workers will be found occasionally in this column from the minutes of the M. R. E. C. annual meeting.

The Executive of the R. E. C. C. reported that a full time secretary had been found necessary and Dr. P. R. Hayward had been appointed as General Secretary last Jan.

The headquarters of the organization has been set up at 87 King Street East, Toronto, and the organization of the joint offices and common supply depot for the National Girls' Work and the National Boys' Work Boards has been completed. The "Canadian Mentor" has been enlarged from a monthly paper for leaders in Boys' Work to include the larger field of Girls' Work and general news etc on Religious Education. Action was taken during the year in connection with the reception into membership in the R. E. C. C. of the Student Christian Movement of Canada and the Sunday School Board of the Canadian Conference of Evangelical Churches, and also for close cooperation with the Missionary Education Movement of Canada.

The relationship between the International Sunday School Council of Religious Education and the R. E. C. C. has been worked out and the former has officially recognized the latter as the National Agency for Canada through which the programme of the International S. S. Association is being promoted and is to have full responsibility for securing and administering its own budget. Also that the R. E. C. C. General Secretary shall be a member of the staff of the International S. S. Association.

Under this new re-organization of the Religious Education forces of North America, it has been recommended that Canada's contribution to the International Budget would be the amount required for work in Canada. Therefore it was decided by the Council that as it was recognized that some of the units represented in the R. E. C. C. desired to continue some financial contribution to the International Sunday School Council of Religious Education, while at the same time supporting heartily a Religious Education Council of Canada, it was referred to their consideration that they so increase their contributions to the treasury of the R. E. C. C. that one tenth of those contributions may be forwarded to the International S. S. Council for Religious Education.

"Go-to-Sunday School Day" that has been carried out in several provinces proved most successful and a committee was appointed to prepare a programme and assist in furthering this idea.

A committee was also appointed to prepare a Rally Day program in co-operation with the Baptist, Congregational, Methodist and Presbyterian churches.

It was decided that in all of the work for the coming year the key note to be stressed should be "Training for Leadership."

Canadian Girls in Training

The Canadian Girls in Training Council of Moncton recently held its first meeting of the season and appointed the following officers: President—Doris Morton Vice President—Evelyn Wannamaker Secretary—Marion Goodwin Treasurer—Betsy Spencer.

Plans were made for a series of inter-church events to be held periodically throughout the year and this fall in line with the C. G. I. T. Councils of St. John, Fredericton, Halifax, New Glasgow, and Charlottetown. Each Council is composed of the president and one elected member from each C. G. I. T. Group in the community. The result of the coming together of these representative girls to interchange their ideas and gain stimulus for the work in their respective churches is becoming very apparent.

In order to allow for the greatest possible interchange of thought the girls are divided into small discussion groups, each led by an older girl. During the supper some topic of interest and practical help to all girls is discussed. The reasonable theme of this meeting was "Forms of Christmas Service for C. G. I. T. Groups," and the girls resolved to put a number of the suggestions into practice in their own groups.

BUFFET REFRESHMENTS.

For afternoon refreshments served in buffet style have tea, coffee, lemonade, fancy sandwiches, cut very small, ice-cream or a cream dish such as charlotte russe or snow pudding, little cakes, and small fancy dishes of candies such as small chocolates. Or, if so much is not wished, omit the lemonade, ice-cream and cream dishes. For a noon or evening entertainment add solids to as much of the above as you wish, serving anything that can be easily partaken of with a fork while guests are possibly standing and holding their plate. Serve the solids hot or cold, as is most convenient to you. Hot, has scalloped oysters if they are available, or salmon (steamed), creamed chicken, chicken croquettes, etc. For a cold solid use nice brown or a mould or minced chicken in gelatine, or a salad of chicken, tongue, or salmon, with lettuce if it can be had, or served with a nice potato salad; always remembering in the selection of fishes that they must be easily handled if the guests are to enjoy them.—Housewife.

Cancel Pact of Allied Debt

NEW YORK, Dec. 26.—Otto H. Kahn, banker in a letter to Senator Reed Smoot, of Utah, member of the Debt Refunding Commission, made public today by the Committee of American Businessmen, has outlined a plan whereby he believes the United States can consistently aid toward relieving the European situation and at the same time meet the sentiment of the country which seems opposed to the cancellation of the Allied indebtedness to the United States.

Mr. Kahn expressed himself as being strongly in favor of the policy of cancelling at least a portion of the indebtedness of the Allies nations.

"I am convinced that it would be to our ultimate advantage to do so," he wrote. "I feel sure that such action would turn out a good investment."

"But if public opinion and Congress will not at present consent to the relinquishment on our part of a portion of the Allied debt," he continued, "then my suggestion would be the following:

"Of the two and three quarter billion dollars, or thereabouts, which Allied nations loaned to the United States, at least, as was not applied to the settlement of war contents here, or if offset by valid counterclaims, is intrinsically distinguishable from the balance of the Allied debt to us. It should be promptly put in the way of repayment with a reasonable rate of interest. For instance, America might stipulate interest at the rate of three per cent or three and a half per cent, and an annual sinking fund of one per cent, beginning after, say, five years. The refund
