J. W. Windsor of Montreal has offered to establish a canning and preserving factory in Charlottetown to handle small fruits provided a sufficient quantity can be obtained. In order to get an estimate of the probable supply I wish to hear from those persons who can supply strawberries, raspberries wild or cultivated gooseberries and currants for the coming summer. State the quantities of each you will have for sale. Giving the information asked for does not bind you in any way. Should a sufficient supply be available Mr. Windsor will give information as to prices and other conditions. This is a chance for the people of this Province to share in a very profitable industry for which this Province is especially adapted. What are we going to do about it and all interested should write to A. E. Dewar, Secretary, Fruit Growers Association, Charlottetown.

Recently Bro. Silas A. Murley, of Argyle Shore presented with an address stating that "on behalf of the members of Argyle Local Orange Lodge, No. 1775, we, the undersigned desire to convey to you our sincere sympathy in the great affliction you have sustained—the death of your beloved wife. By her death at so early an age, you have lost in life a loving and dutiful partner who by her kind and thoughtful disposition had endeared herself to all who knew her. Although we realize the frailty of human efforts, to console still we mourn with you, dear brother, and sympathize with the little children who have been bereaved, the Great Physician—blessed Jesus—who alone can comfort and console. May He comfort and cheer you in this your sad bereavement. We pray in His infinite wisdom to help you realize that she who was so dear to you has only 'gone before,' and enable you through His Grace to say 'Thy will be done.' We would also convey our sympathy to the other members of your family, and to the deceased's parents, brothers and sisters." Signed W. M. A. J. MacNevel, R. S.; A. A. McDougall, Com.

The thanks of the Union Commercial College are due Rev. G. E. Ross for his most excellent address last evening in the college hall. Mr. Ross in an eloquent address emphasized the three great essentials in business, (1) preparation (2) industry (3) courage.

Messrs. Dickenson and Calvar, Sydney, have secured the contract for a general overhauling of the S. B. Restigouche, preparatory to the steamer resuming her summer service between Summerside, Charlottetown and the Sydneys. The Restigouche has been lying in the Sydney harbor since the closing of navigation in the Gulf and Northumberland Strait.

Sydney hockey fans will have an exhibition of how they play the game in New Brunswick tonight when the near champions of that province the Fredericton Capitals will visit the city and Glace Bay. Manager MacAdam of Rosslyn Rink Sydney has received word that the Fredericton puck pushers would play an exhibition game with the Sydney Hockey Club tonight and at Glace Bay tomorrow night.

A newspaper received from Demerara, West Indies, contained extended and very complimentary notices of the performances given in the theatre there by the W. S. Harkins Company. Mr. Harkins' acquaintances here will be glad to know that he is passing the winter months so pleasantly in the genial atmosphere of the West Indies, and will later on have the opportunity of greeting him when he comes, with his company, to enjoy a visit during the incomparable summer season of this Province.

The Cavendish Literary Society at their last meeting discussed the important question of transportation, both provincial and interprovincial. The branch railroad to Stanley Bridge which was promised to this section long ago, and route for which has been surveyed, was spoken of as an urgent necessity which should unite in demanding from the Dominion Government. Most of the speakers were strongly in favor of dropping the useless expenditure on breakwaters on our northside harbor and instead put the money into the branch where it would do good. The Tunnel also came in for a large share of discussion, and the policy of the Government in refusing to complete the surveys and borings at the Capes—so that a proper estimate of the cost could be given—was severely criticized. In the matter of transportation across the Straits all the speakers were in favor of taking the matter out of the hands of the company, and making it government ferry between the two Government railways. The three shippers were voted as against the exceeding expensive nuisance that should not be tolerated longer. Everybody here is for the Tunnel and behind The Guardian in its strong advocacy of the rights of the matter. The questions for debate next night are the telegraph and telephone matters and the running of automobile on the country roads.—Com.

According to the annual report of the St. Joseph's Hospital for the year for insane at Falconbridge the average number residing during the year was 223, the largest in the history of the hospital. The increase in the number of residents is largely due to the presence of cases who have been insane for several years before admission, and not to any marked increase in the recent development of insanity. The wharf was completed at a cost of $3000. 16 vessels were discharged thereat, landing 1244 tons coal, 184000 brick, 110 bbls. of lime, 30,000 feet of lumber, and 110 tons stone. The truckage from the wharf would have cost $1786. A fair estimate of the amount saved would be $1500. The farm report shows a balance on the right side. Dr. Good will suggest the advisability of transferring the entire stock farm over to the Hospital, and have it cultivated for its benefit. In an other year the Provincial Infirmary with 100 patients will be required to be supplied with vegetables and milk, and will be required for this increase. The total expenditure for maintenance was $31,847. The revenue from fees etc., was $2332. Next year the estimated expenditure is $30,500. Dr. Goodwill Medical Superintendent reported that there were 223 inmates at the beginning of the year, 69 were admitted during the year, 38 were discharged, and of this number 30 or 50 per cent of the number admitted were recovered. There were 31 deaths, 10 per cent of the number under care.

"The three Durands are certainly the best thing that has been seen in the city for a long time and Wonderland announces an entire change of act for these artists each night during their week here. This means plenty of fun and laughter for Charlottetown theatre goers.

UNIQUE ROYAL ANNIVERSARY

King Edward and Queen Alexandra of England, Who Last Week Celebrated the Date of Their Wedding.

LONDON, March 23—An interesting date in the British history fell this week, for Tuesday was the anniversary of the wedding of King Edward and Queen Alexandra, and it was pointed out by a courtly investigator that they now are the oldest married pair among the crowned heads of Europe. The King and Queen of Roumania, are, of course, older in years, but they married late in life. Yet I am sure that here in England that thought of the King and Queen could never become familiar. They were throughout the long reign of Queen Victoria looked upon so much as the young married couple that to think of them as the oldest crowned pair is difficult.

It is almost as impossible to believe that when they were married Lord Palmerston was the great figure in the political life of this country. He is ancient history now. The King, who is enjoying himself thoroughly at Biarritz, is benefitting greatly from the change. He is not there as King Edward VII, but merely as the Duke of Lancaster, his incog name, and now the Princess Louise, Duchess of Argyll, has gone off to the Continent as Lady Sutherland. She at present is staying a few days in Paris prior to going on to Biarritz to stop with her brother, the Duke of Lancaster.

Soiled Curtains and Odd Window Shades

Closing Out At a Bargain To-day

CLEANING UP the stock in the new annex results in some notable bargains for you. We have gone over every line—thrown out every curtain that is soiled, every window shade that does not look fresh enough to sell you at regular prices, every remnant of curtain muslin, and chopped the prices to clear the lot today.

Seven Dozen Odd Shades—Worth to 75 cts—On Sale Today—Choose at 25 cts

This lot includes some very good lines, odd patterns that we are discounting, as well as some that are rightly soiled etc. There are plain shades, lace edged, fringed, in all colours included in the lot and the values run as high as 75c 25c each, today.

The Soiled Curtains. Just a limited lot of these, not more than three pairs in any style—only one pair in most some of them badly soiled—some very little soiled—all of them deeply price cut. About enough for two hours selling.

The Bargain Muslins. We have gone over all the muslins—picked out the short ends—and some full pieces as well and have cut the prices down to a point that will close out the lot in about one day's selling.

Most important matter of all—is the matter of getting here on time—in all of these lines the quantity is limited and if you want any it is necessary to be on time.
