STOCK QUOTATIONS

Stock Markets At A Glance

CHICAGO Sept. 28 — (AP) — The killing frost threat has been raised out in most of the major corn belt and long liquidation influenced by this factor pushed grain futures downward more than a cent a bushel at times today.

MONTREAL Sept. 28 — (CP) — Strength entering trading late today on the Stock Exchange and Curb Market when New York trends worked up higher enabled most of the key groups to wind up the week's transactions in better positions after edging down during a spell of liquidation earlier in the session. A number of leaders managed to wipe out losses and some turned losses into gains.

NEW YORK Sept. 28 — (AP) — Peace of industry utilities and assorted industrials the Stock Market today touched another new high for more than eight years with gains of fractions to better than two points on expanding volume.

WINNIPEG Sept. 28 — (CP) — Rice, wheat and American exchange today on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange. Prices were firm in early trading but lost ground before the close, following the lower trend at Chicago. Locals and American interests were moderate sellers.

TORONTO Sept. 28 — (CP) — Stocks edged forward to net small gains in the four index groups to-day on the Toronto Exchange. The action was again heaviest in the gold group and these had a gain of .29 at the close. Industrials were up .27, Base Metals added .17 and the Western Oils .06. Volume was quite heavy at 2,580,000 shares slightly under the week's average.

ABERYDYNOV, Wales — (CP) — A soldier's wife, whom it was charged sold her clothing coupons for money to buy liquor, was sentenced to six months imprisonment for neglecting and abandoning her six children.

The rhinoceros is dull of sight but its hearing and scent are very acute.
