

FORD SCHOOL FOR RCAF

CONTRIBUTING greatly to the success of spectacular bomber and fighter plane operations are the unheralded but important services of air force personnel such as the group pictured here. These boys are members of the Motor Transport Division, R.C.A.F. and their specialty is to know all about land transport so they can handle the supplies that keep the aircrews flying. Above, they receive advanced mechanical instruction at a school conducted by Ford of Canada at Windsor. Operated for training of army mechanics since 1940, the Ford school has more than 1,000 graduates and recently introduced special classes for R.C.A.F. men. Left to right, LAC, R. In Memoriam

LONA JEAN FRASER

Friends in both this city and Vernon were shocked to learn of the death of Miss Lona Jean Fraser, who passed away on June 17th at her home in Vernon after an illness of about three months, at the early age of 23 years. The late Miss Fraser, who was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Fraser, was a young lady of pleasing disposition and a general favorite with all her acquaintances. While residing in the city she was a popular saleslady with the firm of Prowse Bros. and here she enjoyed the confidence of a large number of customers, by her kind and obliging manner. She leaves to mourn, besides her bereaved parents, two sisters, Mrs. William Howlett, and Mrs. Richard McRae, both residing in Vernon. A profusion of flowers and messages of sympathy received by the bereaved family testified to the high esteem in which she was held. The funeral which was largely attended, was held on Sunday, June 13th, service at the house and grave being conducted by Rev. A. S. Weir. The hymns sung were: "What a Friend We Have in Jesus", "Safe in the Arms of Jesus." The pallbearers were: Messrs. Edison Drake, Lorin Drake, Lloyd Furness, Staunton Jenkins, Claude Henry and Guy Sullivan. Interment was in St. John's Presbyterian Cemetery at Belfast.

GET FOOD VALUE OF VEGETABLES

We now know that the method of cooking vegetables is just as important as the choice, in obtaining a maximum amount of vitamins and minerals, says an official of the Health League of Canada. Baking is the best method as the least amount of vitamins is lost, but not every vegetable can be baked satisfactorily. But we can steam practically all vegetables and, as they are not in the water, only the vitamins destroyed by heat (about 10 per cent B1) are lost. If we boil the vegetables and throw the water away, as most of us do, vitamins C and members of the vitamin B complex are lost because they are water soluble. Most of us cook vegetables in too much water, but science tells us they need be just covered with water. In the case of leafy vegetables, just the water that clings to the leaves after washing is necessary. Two Classes We should divide vegetables into two classes: 1. The leafy vegetables, chard, spinach, cabbage, broccoli and strong-flavoured vegetables such as onions, turnips and kohlrabi are cooked without a cover. Cooking Rules If you follow these few rules in cooking, you will be getting the maximum food value from your vegetables: 1. Use raw vegetables. 2. Boil vegetables frequently. 3. Boil vegetables in skins. If possible, in little water and only until they are done. 4. Wash, peel or cut vegetables just before cooking. 5. Use the cooking water for soups, sauces, etc. 6. Serve immediately.

Canadian Film Heralds Allied Attack on Italy

Forecasting the exact assault coast for the invasion of Europe by the Allied forces, the current National Film Board release 'Gates of Italy', has treated historically and militarily the potential power of Italian resistance. From enemy film (top) 'Gates of Italy' shows a portion of the defenses of the Italian coast. Benito Mussolini (right's top) hasn't time for balcony speeches today. With the impact of war having finally struck the boundaries of his fascist Italy, he is feeling the effect of the boot this time on the Allied foot. Unseen in Italy's fighting territories in case of invasion, uncolored Germany, has sent Nazi troops into Italian territories to bolster the de-
