Mt. Mellick W. I.

The 17th annual meeting of Mt. Mellick W. I. was held at the home of Mrs. W. J. Mutch and Miss Lila Mutch on November 5th, with thirteen members present.

The president, Mrs. J. E. MacEachern, presided, and the meeting was opened with the Ode and creed. Roll call was responded to by paying membership fees—14 fees paid.

Minutes of last annual and regular meetings were read, approved and signed.

Sick Committee reported that one visit had been made, and bill for fruit was presented and paid.

Three songs were selected, as this Institute's choice for publication in the Song Book.

The Treasurer then gave her report which showed a balance on hand of $47.26.

Election of officers was held with the following results:

Mrs. W. J. Mutch, president.
Mrs. Jack MacRae, vice-president.

Mrs. Edmund Robertson, secretary (re-elected).

Mrs. Lodge Lauder, treasurer.
Mrs. Albert Bruce, Mrs. Lawson MacEachern, Miss Edna Robertson—directors.

Mrs. Edward Wood, Mrs. Arden Richards, auditors.

Mrs. Lawson MacEachern, Mrs. Albert Bruce, Sick committee for 3 months.

Mrs. J. E. MacEachern, Mrs. Edmund Robertson, school committee for 3 months.

At this point, the president asked the members to stand while a presentation was being made to the retiring treasurer, Mrs. Malcolm MacRae. An address of appreciation was read by Mrs. J. E. MacEachern and the presentation of beautiful book ends was made by Mrs. W. J. Mutch. Mrs. MacRae, who has been the efficient treasurer of this Institute for over half of its seventeen years, graciously thanked the members for their thoughtfulness.

Correspondence was read and plans were made re the Home Economics Scrap Book.

Collection amounted to 75c. A member expressed her thanks for fruit sent to her husband.

Mrs. J. E. MacEachern invited the December meeting when call will be answered by "A way to improve our conventions," and Sewing materials were distributed in exchange of Christmas gifts among the members.

A vote of thanks was extended the retiring officers for their work during the past year.

The singing of the National Anthem brought the meeting to a close after which a delicious lunch was served by the hostesses.

Anglican Y.P.U.
The annual meeting of the Local Council of the Anglican Young Peoples Associations of Prince Edward Island was held in St. Mary's Hall, Summerside, on Thursday, November 14th with representatives from each parish and an attendance of one hundred or more. Opening devotions were led by the chaplain, Rev. D. E. Noel, Kensington, with Mrs. James Millman, Summerside at the piano. An address of welcome was extended to the guests from Mr. Harold Rodd, vice-president of St. Mary's, Summerside. In the absence of the secretary, Miss Molly Lewis, Charlottetown, was appointed secretary for the meeting. Minutes of the last annual meeting held in Kensington were read and adopted. The Vice President, C. Ross MacKenzie, Summerside, occupied the chair. Written reports were received and read by the following: Drama Committee, Ross MacKenzie, Summerside; Bible Reading Fellowship, prepared by Alberta Bryant, Charlottetown and read by W. R. Brennan, Summerside; Sunday School by Post report written by Reagh Dennis, Port Hill and read by Alin Lecky, Summerside; Rule of Life by Rev. Douglas Noel, Kensington.

Rev. J. W. Nowe, Alberton reported on the Diocesan Times Magazine and the used postage stamp collection used by the Bishop of the Windward Islands in financing the building of churches in that district. These items were adopted by the meeting. Rev. S. J. Davies, Milton, spoke on the wonderful work being accomplished by the Sunday School by radio broadcast from CFCY every Sunday morning to which the meeting pledged their support. Reports were received from the following retiring officers:
