CHARLOTTETOWN and QUEEN'S COUNTY

It pays to buy in this Province.
Any one who has not heard Major Bartlett's lecture on Ancient Rome should go to Grace Church tonight and hear the beautiful story.

Rev. D. McLean will preach at Churchill on Friday, Feb. 17th at 7 p.m., Stanchel, Saturday, Feb. 18, and Sabbath Feb. 19, at 10.30 and at Glasgow Road at 3 p.m.

The Ladies' Aid of Grace Church on Monday evening entertained in the schoolroom the choir, the Sunday School teachers and officials of the church. The supper was excellent and the decorations on the tables and in the room were very pleasing indeed. After the supper a short program was given and a thoroughly enjoyable evening was spent.

Notwithstanding the cold weather and many counter attractions, the People's Theatre was filled as per usual last night and certainly every one got their money's worth. The Little Station Agent was a thrilling story, and the Old Swimming Hole was a pretty development of an interesting plot. The Deputy's duty seemed to end where the Deputy fell in love and Newk Sawyer's rendering of "To the End of the World with You," was superb. His specialty in character was fine and he certainly brought down the house. It was all good, but then the People's Theatre shows always are.

A. J. McDonald, Souris, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Macdonald is representing the well known Supreme Steel Range Company, Welland, Ont., and is on his first trip out from Souris. He has recently disposed of seventeen of these ranges and is putting them up for the chesera. Mr. Macdonald also handles an excellent line of aerated waters and sundries manufactured by that reliable old firm, Bigelow & Hood, Truro. He leaves this morning for Murray Harbor and later will return to this city and proceed to the western part of the Province.

An important decision in an interesting will case was given by His Honor, Judge of Probate, Richard Reddin, when he decided in the case of the two wills made at different times by Margaret T. Murphy, late of Cherry Valley. There was an application to prove the latest dated will in solemn form but His Honor, in giving judgment refused probate to the last will, made a short time before death of testatrix, by which she left the property to one Kathleen Murphy, but granted probate to the prior will under which M. W. Murphy is the sole beneficiary. McLeod, K. C., and Bentley for M. W. Murphy and A. A. McLean, K. C., and D. A. McKinnon for other parties.

The funeral of the late William Laird, New Glasgow, took place yesterday at noon. There was a very large attendance at the funeral evidencing the great respect and esteem in which the deceased was regarded in the community. There were also several members of the Legislature from other sections of the province in attendance. The funeral was from his late residence to the New Glasgow Presbyterian Church and Cemetery. At the funeral services the Rev. John Starling gave an excellent address on "Practical life in Church and State" in the words "He served His Generation." The following were the pall-bearers: Lieutenant Governor Rogers, Hon. J. H. Cumiskey, Hon. John McMillan, James Bullman, Charles Stevenson and Geo. Brown.

Many friends, and indeed the whole community, will regret to learn that Mrs. Donald Farquharson, city, passed away yesterday morning at five o'clock. She had been ill for years; even before the death of her lamented husband, the Hon. Donald Farquharson, she was unwell—and her end was therefore anticipated. Born in this city, the daughter of the late George Moore, of the Bank of Prince Edward Island, she had reached the age of sixty-seven years, the greatest part of her life being happy and uneventful. She was of an even temper, kindly, lovable and sympathetic, and she leaves many warm friends, besides her three children, Charles Farquharson, now residing at High River, Alberta, Miss Etta Farquharson, also of High River at the present time, and Miss Fannie Farquharson, at home. Numerous other relatives in the city and elsewhere include her brother, Colonel F. S. Moore, Theophilus Moore of the Inland Revenue Department and George Moore of the firm of Moore & McLeod, and her sister, Mrs. Henry Mutch of Southport.

Everyone should reserve Tuesday, the 21st, for the afternoon tea in St. Paul's schoolroom.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Donald Farquharson will take place from her late residence Upper Prince St., on Friday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. Interment in People's Cemetery.

The marriage took place at Calgary, Alta., on Jan. 11, 1911, of Miss Lizzie A. Bruce, formerly of Brooklyn, P. E. I., to Orlo Edward Simpson, of Calgary. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Esler, pastor of Grace Presbyterian Church. Miss Christina Bruce acted as bridesmaid, while Neil M. Bruce supported the groom, niece and nephew of the bride. The bride was becomingly attired in blue pongee silk and only the immediate friends of the contracting parties were present.

A despatch from Moncton has the following which will interest the following followers of the "pro" game in this province: Asked today regarding the visit of the Canadian Hockey team to the provinces and the possibility of their playing in Moncton. Mr. Joseph Bourque, stated that in all probability the speely Upper Canadiens would be seen in action on local ice. The only obstacle would be the probability of too large a guarantee being demanded and he thought this would not be prohibitive. Canadiens play Halifax Feb. 23 and 24, Thursday and Friday of next week. If they come to Moncton it will be on Saturday the 25th. One hitch appears to have arisen and that is the fact that Thursday the 23rd is one of the dates for the Victoria-Crescent Post series. It was proposed to have Crescents here on Tuesday and Thursday, Feb. 21, and 23 and have Victorias go to Halifax for two games on the following Tuesday and Thursday. This will no doubt be overcome and everything worked but satisfactorily.

A very sudden death occurred at Brookfield on Monday, the 16th ult., the result of paralysis of the heart, the victim being J. Alexander McLean in the 56th year of his age. He was a son of the late Charles McLean of West River and for the past twenty-seven years resided at Bar Harbor, Maine. He came to this Province last December to spend the winter with his friends, and died at the residence of his sister, Mrs. John Drummond. He was a member of the Oddfellows, Red Men and other societies and was a prominent citizen of Bar Harbor. He leaves to mourn besides a large circle of friends, one brother, Angus of West River, and two sisters, Mrs. John Drummond, of Brookfield; Mary A., of Providence, R. I.; Mrs. F. W. Hughes, of Hanley, Sask., and Isabella, of Brookfield. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Wason of Winsloe. The remains were laid to rest in Brookfield Cemetery. The pall-bearers were Alex. McNeill, Angus Cameron, Daniel McDonald, W. Murray, W. D. Shaw and Duncan McNeven.
