P. E. I. Presbytery Meets At Alberton

The Presbytery met in the Church at Alberton on July 6th with the Moderator, the Rev. J. A. McGowan of Kensington in the chair, and the clerk, the Rev. T.H.B. Somers of Charlottetown, at the desk.

Authorization was given by the Court to the congregation of Zion Church, Charlottetown, to secure funds, not exceeding $20,000, to carry out repairs to their church building.

It was reported that the new manse at Alberton would soon be ready for occupancy.

Reporting for the budget committee, Rev. Chas. D. Henderson of Murray Harbour North stated that eleven congregations had exceeded their allocations for the year ending January 31, 1948.

The Rev. A. Neil Miller gave a most informative address on the decisions of the recent General Assembly regarding budget, administrative needs and the setting up of a Laymen's committee to study ministers' stipends.

At the evening sermon the Presbytery conducted the solemn service of Induction of the minister-elect for the Charge of Alberton and West Point, the Rev. George B. Cunningham, B.A., who has served there both as student missionary and ordained missionary.

It is believed that an approaching car and truck caused such dust, that visibility was very poor, and they crowded the car driven by Mr. Seaman.

Mr. Seaman received a broken leg and a number of probable broken ribs, besides cuts on his face.

P. E. I. Presbyterial

The sixty-first annual meeting of the P.E.I. Presbyterial of the Women's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church in Canada was held in the Kensington Presbyterian Church on Thursday, the 10th of July.

The devotional period, at the morning meeting, was in charge of the local Auxiliary when Mrs. James Jardine was assisted by Mrs. Carrie Kennedy, Mrs. Alexander Hiltz and Mrs. L.B. Linkletter.

The committees were appointed as follows: For nominations, Mrs. Alexander Hiltz, Kensington; Miss Hattie MacLeod, French River; Mrs. K.M. Martin, Charlottetown; Mrs. Hardy Ramsay, Tyne Valley; and Miss Mary A. MacKenzie, deaconess at Tryon; for resolutions and courtesies, Miss Margaret MacDougall and Mrs. R. Hurst, Charlottetown.

Reports were brought by Mrs. T.H.B. Somers, corresponding secretary; Mrs. R.A. Stavert, literature secretary (read by Mr. Heckbert); Mrs. A.A. Campbell, home mission secretary; Mrs. Rende Larter, home helpers' secretary; Mrs. George P. MacLeod, "Message" secretary; Mrs. L.B. Linkletter, vice-president; and Mrs. Frank Bagnall, treasurer.

The morning meeting closed with the benediction by Rev. J.A. MacGowan.

At the evening service, Rev. J.A. MacGowan, minister of the Kensington congregation, was assisted by Rev. W.A. Young, Tyne Valley, and Rev. T.A. Duke, Caladonia. The local choir, with Mrs. Erwin Jay at the organ, led in the service of praise and sang "World for Christ Win."

The guest speaker of the evening, Rev. Edwin White, B.A. of St. Matthews Church, Montreal gave an inspiring address, basing his remarks on "For we are laborers together with God." He stated that mankind is a building God is trying to erect as a glory to Himself and as citizens of an eternal Kingdom and went on to say that we must be the saints of God for the bringing about of his glorious purposes among men and co-partners to work in this glorious task.

In conclusion the speaker left words of inspiration for the resumption of the work that is so important-work that is dear to all, the work which is one part of the whole church of Christ, who created all according to his purpose and will. "Let us labor in that love that binds us all."

The report of the committee for resolutions and courtesies was read by Miss Margaret MacDougall, as follows: 1. Resolved that we, the members of P.E.I. Presbyterial W.M.S. at this our 61st annual session of the P.E.I. Presbyterial do humbly and gratefully express our thanks to our Heavenly Father for His many gracious mercies to us throughout the year and in that same love care we place ourselves anew to greater efforts in His service fulfilling the Divine command of Christ.

2. Resolved that this Presbyterial express appreciation of the hospitality tendered the delegates by the ladies of Kensington Presbyterian Church. 3. Resolved that we place on record our thanks to the minister and other members of the Session for the use of the church for our meetings today; to Mrs. J.A. MacGowan for her gracious words of welcome; to Rev. C.D. Henderson, for bringing us in such an informative way, the highlights of the General Assembly; to the Rev. J.A. MacGowan, Moderator of Presbyterial, for the warm greetings and words of commendation from the Presbyterial of P.E.I.; to the Rev. Neil Miller, Field Secretary for Budget and Stewardship Committee, who gave a thought-provoking talk on the upkeep of the church and stressed the need of more generous giving to meet the higher living expenses.

The report of the Mission Bands was brought by Mrs. George MacLeod; that of girls' organizations by Miss Margaret MacDougall. Both showed improvement over last year. The Mission Band banner was awarded to Murray Harbor North band for the highest standing in the work; the North Tryon band being the runner up. Miss MacDougall urged that as many girls as possible attend the Camp Geddie in Merigonis, N.S. this Summer.

During an intermission Rev. Neil Miller took moving pictures of the assembly, after which Rev. F.N. Young, Marshfield, favored with the vocal solo "Just For Today" accompanied at the organ by his brother, Rev. W.A. Young, Tyne Valley.

The report of the nominating committee was read by Mrs. Hiltz, as follows: 1st. Vice-President, Mrs. F.A.A. Mutch, 2nd. Vice-President, Mrs. L.B. Linkletter, Kensington; 3rd. Vice-President, Mrs. A.M. Green, New London; 4th Vice-President, Mrs. R.A. MacKenzie, Pinette; 5th Vice-President, Mrs. William Irving, Alberton; 6th Vice-President, Mrs. C.J. MacLure, Murray Harbor North; Recording Secretary, Mrs. J.W. MacKenzie, Summerside; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. T.H.B. Somers, Charlottetown; Treasurer, Mrs. W.A. Young, Tyne Valley; Girls' Work Secretary, Miss Margaret MacDougall; Mission Band Secretary, Mrs. George P. MacLeod, New London; Literature Secretary, Mrs. Robert Jardine, Kensington; Home Mission Secretary, Mrs. A.A. Campbell, New London; Home Aiders' Secretary, Mrs. Rende Larter, Charlottetown; Messia Secretary, Mrs. Elmer MacLeod, New London. Following the prayer of dedication by Rev. J.A. MacGowan, the benediction was pronounced.

Mrs. Robert MacNutt, Malpeque, presented a number of old missionary papers to be placed in the historic collection in Charlottetown.

At the evening service, Rev. J.A. MacGowan, minister of the Kensington congregation, was assisted by Rev. W.A. Young, Tyne Valley, and Rev. T.A. Duke, Caladonia. The local choir, with Mrs. Erwin Jay at the organ, led in the service of praise and sang "World for Christ Win."
