Col. Ralston Has no Comment On Invasion

Defence Minister Ralston, visiting his constituency in Prince County, said last night that he had no comment to make on the latest action in which Canadian troops are taking part, the invasion of the Italian mainland. In fact, he said, he was not fully abreast of the latest developments.

Col. Ralston arrived by plane Thursday and will leave again for Ottawa Sunday afternoon.

Yesterday he visited several districts in western Prince County and today he will make a tour of the eastern section of the County.

He will be in Summerside tonight.

He has not visited military establishments in the Province yet and it did not appear that they would be included in his round of activities in this trip.

In Memoriam

MISS CATHERINE J. ROSS

The death occurred at the Prince Edward Island hospital on Sunday, August 15, 1943, of Miss Catherine J. Ross of 243 Richmond St., Charlottetown, in her 71st year. Miss Ross was taken suddenly ill on Saturday, Aug. 14 and was removed to the hospital for medical and nursing care where she passed quietly away on Sunday evening.

She was the fourth daughter of the late William Ross and Jessie Currie Ross formerly of Fairview, West River. After spending several years in the United States she and her sister Margaret returned to P. E. Island and took up residence at 243 Richmond street where they lived quietly and happily together until the death of her beloved sister about three years ago whose passing caused her much grief and sorrow.

In her girlhood Miss Ross united with the Presbyterian Church in New Dominion and while living in Charlottetown worshipped at Zion Church. In the absence of the pastor, Rev. Mr. Webster, the Rev. T. H. Bussell Somers of St. James Church officiated at the funeral service at her home and the burial service in New Dominion cemetery where she was tenderly laid to rest in the family plot beside her beloved parents and sisters who had predeceased her.

Although of a quiet and retiring disposition, Miss Ross was a woman of strong character, honorable and just in worldly matters and friendly and hospitable in her home life. The respect and affection of her numerous friends and relatives was amply proved by the largely attended funeral and the many beautiful floral offerings and messages of sympathy received.

Remembering her great love of flowers it seemed most appropriate that her last resting place should be so profusely banked with lovely blossoms.

Miss Ross is survived by her sister, Mrs. Wallace Wheatley of East Royalty, to whom sympathy is extended in her sudden bereavement.

The pall-bearers were Messrs. Victor Coyle, Garnet Campbell, Ferg. Robertson, A. K. McPhee, Donald McKinnon, John B. Roper

Are We Going To Let China Down?

We have been asked for an amount of $7,000 to relieve the suffering of these brave people. Contributions received to- date amount to little more than $3,500. The balance must be raised if we are to fulfill our obligation and retain our own self respect. We have two days in which to do it. Our response to the Greek and Russian appeals was magnificent surely we shall not fail in our duty to our gallant ally China, who for six long years, under the most desperate conditions has defied and held at bay the might of Imperial Japan, and who so urgently needs money to buy food, clothing and medicines for her starving millions.

Women of Prince Edward Island, we ask you to assist that courageous woman Madam Chiang Kai Chek, the Joan of Arc of China, who all during this terrible struggle, has kept alight the flickering torch of freedom in her own country and has been an example of courage and fortitude to womankind the world over.

Every one of us in this smiling land of plenty can spare something, a dollar, five dollars or even ten dollars. Let our conscience dictate the amount and send it today to the Hon. Treasurer, W. R. Cruikshank, Manager, Royal Bank, Charlottetown.

Lew Ayers, Laraine Day Reunited in Mystery Drama

Psychological thrills through suggestion augment physical excitement in a new type of detective story in 'Fingers at the Window," fantastic tale of a murder chain and hypnotic "mental remote control," now showing at the Capitol Theatre, Summerside.

With Lew Ayres, Laraine Day and Basil Rathbone heading the cast Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's newest incursion into mystery deals with a strange series of murders committed by lunatics under hypnotic control. When Miss Day, as a night club dancer, is menaced by the axe killers, Ayres, enacting a debonair young actor, turns amateur detective and despite police opposition succeeds in tracing the crimes down to a "master mind."

Ayres and Miss Day, formerly seen as the respective interne and his nurse-sweetheart in the popular "Dr. Kildare" pictures, again make an attractive screen team, Ayres playing his amateur-detective role with assurance and amiability, and Miss Day giving a fresh and ingratiating quality to her role of the frightened night club dancer.

Re Local Fruit Prices

Owing to a misunderstanding with reference to the prices of peaches, pears and plums, which has arisen because of information supplied this paper by Mr. F. S. Reeves, the following statement has been issued by Mr. Norman Saunders, Foods Officer of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board:

"Mr. Reeves was quoting retail prices for Island plums whereas the prices I had given in a previous press interview were the maximum wholesale charges for Ontario fruit."

"Further, he mistakenly compared prices on 11-quart baskets of plums by stating that this should have sold at $1.60 instead of $1.75. The $1.75 figure on which I was quoted applied to pears. Yesterday the wholesale prices for Ontario pears and plums showed a further reduction and now are selling as follows: pears, 11 quart baskets $1.50; plums, 6 quart baskets 90 cents."

ENLIST IN R. C. A. F. — Persons from this Province who enlisted in the Royal Canadian Air Force recently included; George Jennings Rogers, son of Mrs. George J. Rogers and the late Mr. Rogers, 230 Prince Street, Charlottetown; Augustus A. Mallard, son of Mrs. James Mallard, Clear Springs; and one woman, Annie Wilma Ramsay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Roy Ramsay of O'Leary. Mr. Rogers enlisted for aircrew training and left for Lachine Manning Depot of the R. C. A. F. All three were signed up at Moncton.

DWELLING BURGLARIZED — Some burglars in this city seem to be afraid of the approaching cold weather and the shortage of fuel. At least when they entered the residence of Mr. E. S. Coffin at 12 Greenfield Avenue they concentrated entirely on bed clothing. The plunder consisted of blankets, quilts, pillows, etc., amounting to probably $300 in value. At the same time valuables, much more easily carried, were left untouched. The break occurred while Mr. and Mrs. Coffin were at their summer home.

TOURIST TRAFFIC TO BOOST —Mr. F. R. Sayer, C. N. R. Publicity representative was here yesterday from Moncton. He reports the railway is labouring under terrific strain handling the enormous passenger and freight traffic with plant largely depreciated due to War conditions. He is confident this Province with its delightful assets, will have a boom in tourist business and as a health resort. The new mode of air travel will enable citizens on the Mainland, as far as Toronto even, to send their families here for the summer and visit them at week-ends by the Airways.

SANATORIUM WEEK — Donations to patients at the Provincial Sanatorium during this week, known as Sanatorium Week, included the following; Mrs. Noel DeBlois, a basket of fruit; the Home League of the Salvation Army, a case of oranges; the Holy Redeemer Parish, $15; Mrs. Joseph Haggerty and Mrs. James Wilson, Cardigan, $5.00; Canadian Legion $25. Yesterday members of the Royal Edward Chapter, Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, visited some of the patients and distributed toilet articles. The chapter has purchased $10 worth of flanelette which will be fashioned into women's pyjamas.

GROUP MEETING — At the invitation of Mrs. Mary McLean, Vice President of the Presbyterial of Prince Edward Island, the Women's Missionary Auxiliaries of Clyde River and Marshfield met with the St. James Society in the Kirk Hall on Thursday evening. After the local routine business in which Mrs. W. A. Stewart and Mrs McLean gave interesting papers, the meeting was addressed by Rev. T. H. B. Somers who welcomed the guests and spoke encouragingly of the great work being undertaken by the Women's Missionary Societies in Home and Foreign Fields. Mrs. Dixon and Mrs. Darrach of Clyde River spoke feelingly on the need and comfort of continued prayer, especially in this time of stress. Mrs. Munn of Marshfield made valuable suggestions for W. M. S. studies. After a social hour during which refreshments were served by the Kirk Auxiliary the enjoyable gathering came to a close with the benediction pronounced by Moderator Rev. Thomas Goodwill. Miss Mary Irving, President, presided during the evening.

TRINITY Y.P.U. — Trinity Y. P. U. resumed its regular meetings after a summer season of outdoor programs. As soon as members arrived the leader of recreation, Pansy MacCausland, invited them to join in contests and games followed in which the emphasis was "Know Your Neighbour." The President, Leonard Jordan presided. Following the games several hymns were sung. The Scripture lesson was read in unison and Helen Thompson lead in prayer. The offering was dedicated by all singing the hymn "We Give Thee But Thine Own." The president presented a statement of suggestions for this season's meetings, the work of a program committee. The plans were discussed by the members and all agreed to try a new form of meeting. All sang "Lord Speak To Me" and Miss Marie McDougall addressed the group on the subject "What is my idea of the Christian Church — what place has the Y.P.U. in it"? The World Day of Prayer was then recognized in a suitable ceremony, using prayers of confession and thanksgiving and closing with singing "Prayer is The Soul's Sincere Desire" and the Misp[illegible] benediction.
