ANNUAL MEETING—The annual meeting of the Catholic Women's League was held yesterday afternoon in the Assembly Hall. The election of officers took place and resulted as follows: President—Mrs. F. J. Casey; 1st Vice-Pres.—Mrs. J. J. Johnston; 2nd Vice-Pres.—Mrs. W. K. Ledwell; Recording Sec.—Mrs. Dr. Gillis; Treasurer—Mrs. Adrien Peters; Correspondence Sec.—Mrs. P. T. Murphy.

GREENVALE CONCERT—The concert which was held in Brookfield Hall on Monday night, April 2nd was a decided success. Notwithstanding the night being rather unpleasant, the hall was well filled. The net sum of $53.65 was realized which will go toward improvements for Greenvale school. A well rendered programme was enjoyed by all those present, as evidenced by the hearty applause and excellent order maintained. At the close a vote of thanks was tendered those outside the district who took part in the programme and those in general who helped to make the entertainment a success. The following is the programme: Opening Chorus—"Call Me Back Pal O' Mine." A Speech by John Matheson. Song "A Welcome" by Laura MacRae and Mildred Carow. Recitation: "When Pa's Sick" by Russell Smith—Solo "Do You Ever Sit and Dream" by Olga Waye. Recitation, "Miss Edith Hilda" by Alice MacRae. Reading by Mrs. Green, encored. Recitation, "The Inventor's Wife" by Ruth Corney. Duet "Star of Twilight" by Alice MacRae and Olga Waye, encored. Recitation, "How Paddy Stole the Rope" by MacPaul. Solo "The Little Esquimaux" by Mildred Carow. Free hemming of towels, sheets, linens, table linens, etc., wonderful bargains! AGASSIZ, B. C., March 16.—The funeral of the late J. D. Gillis, who died here on Thursday, March 15th, took place on Saturday afternoon from the family residence, Mr. Gillis was the second youngest of the thirteen children of Archibald and Catherine Gillis, and was one of seven alive at the time of his death. He was born on the 18th of July 1865 at Strathalban, Rose Valley, Prince Edward Island. He remained on the farm until 18 years of age and then went to Minnesota. In December of the year 1884 he turned his attention to the west and arrived in B.C. that year. He was a teaming contractor for one year, and in 1885 he went to the Cariboo, where he remained for 21 years. He was married on April 14th, 1898, to Clara Collingsworth, of Ashcroft. During 1898 and 1899 he was stage driver on the Cariboo. In 1899 he opened a meat market in Ashcroft selling out shortly afterwards. After this he was in the forwarding department of Harvey, Bailey & Co., Ashcroft. He was at this for some years and then went with the water and light company. On December 29th, 1906, he moved to Agassiz where he bought the Aberdeen hotel, later changing the name to the Agassiz hotel. While in Agassiz he took a great interest in current events and local activity of the community. He took an active part in the athletic of the rising generation, and was an enthusiastic baseball fan. His two sons, John and Clarence, who attend the North Pacific Dental College, Portland, and a high school in Seattle, were with him at his bedside when he died. Among the many floral wreaths from his numerous friends, wreaths were received from the Methodist church cemetery, the Sir James Douglas Chapter of the I.O.O.F. of the Agassiz, the high and central services, senior and intermediate baseball clubs.—Before his death he named J. McRae, M.P.P., and Harry McRae, as requested by him before his death. Rev. Cecil Lancaster conducted the funeral service at the family residence and the Methodist Church. To mourn his loss he leaves his widow, two sons, one mentioned above and one daughter, Clara. He is also survived by four sisters, Margaret Gillis of Rose Valley, Mrs. Ann Cook of Charlottetown, Mrs. Mary Shipley of Boston and Mrs. Flora Turnbull of Washington state and two brothers residing in Prince Edward Island.—Messrs Hugh Gillis and Kenneth Gillis of Rose Valley are brothers of the deceased. Mr. S. Angus McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Roderick Nicholas of Charlottetown are first cousins.

Navy League Popular Center

Charlottetown citizens are beginning to appreciate the very convenient and up to date entertainment hall in the Navy League building and notwithstanding the extraordinary weather conditions this winter the hall has been in considerable demand. Now that Spring is opening up, it is expected that the hall will be in greater demand than ever for teas, concerts, lectures, ice cream and berry socials, card parties, dances and various other attractions. These excellent facilities are available to the general public at an extremely reasonable rental, either for day or night entertainments. In the summer months the view of the harbor and surrounding country is not surpassed and with the promenade grounds attached makes the premises most ideally situated for a community and boating centre. Enquiries can be made to Command or Lewin, Supervisor of the Navy League, or to Petty Officer Hearns, a returned sailor, and his wife who reside on the premises with the latter satisfactory arrangements can also be made for catering when desired.

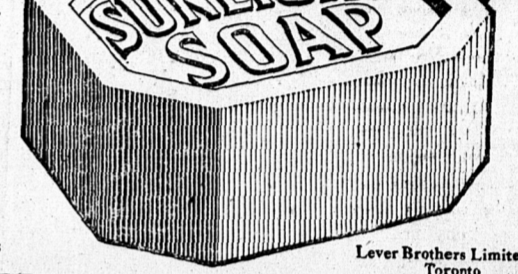

JUST as sunlight purifies our homes, and gladdens the heart of man, so Sunlight Soap purifies our clothes, and gladdens the heart of woman.

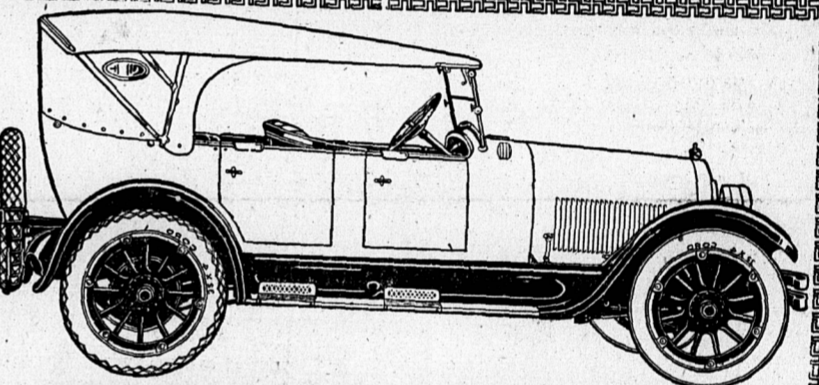

The coconut oil produced in tropical sunlight, gives Sunlight Soap its soft rich lather. Palm oil makes Sunlight Soap hard, firm and economical in use.

Above all, just as the sunlight itself is pure, Sunlight Soap is the very essence of purity.

'Sunlight' is more than the name of a soap; it stands for brighter homes, less work, and money saved. Buy Sunlight today.

"JUST AS GOOD AS A McLAUGHLIN-BUICK"

How often you hear this remark. There must be some good reason why a car salesman uses it. Why? Simply because the McLaughlin-Buick reputation is so high, so well known, from one end of the country to the other, that the cars have become the

"STANDARD OF COMPARISON"

Every buyer wants a car "as good as a McLaughlin Buick", but there is only one way to have one—BUY A McLAUGHLIN BUICK, and all doubts are ended. You know then that you have the car you want. Don't take a chance on any of the "just as goods." You buy a car only once in many years and mistakes are costly. A McLaughlin-Buick will, with proper care, last a life time.

"DON'T MAKE A MISTAKE"

The new models are on display in our show-room. Call in and see them. Drop us a line and we will send you the new catalogues for 1923. McLaughlin Buick prices range from $1395.00 to $3500.00 delivered to you. Fifteen body models to choose from, all equipped with the genuine "Buick" motor.
