Messrs. C. M. Lampson & Co., report that their market is firm in consequence of increasing confidence, and consider January prices. With a moderate offering, it is not unlikely that advances may be obtained for some of the staple articles. Prospects are good for all Fine Furs.

Mothers Be Careful

Much of the trouble weaning the baby is developed by the use of a cheap and unsanitary nipple. The Nobility nipple is sterilized and is sanitary, transparent and non-collapsible. It is put up in a separate box with a red band on each nipple. You will meet with the doctor's approval if baby uses a Nobility nipple.

The Fishing Industry Of Prince Edward Island

(By PAUL IN THE CANADIAN FISHERMAN.)

Although last season the fishing industry has been almost practically demoralized by the low prices lobster packers are now busily engaged in preparing for the season's pack. The price to fishermen will be much lower this spring than last, but after all, the net returns will be better than last year, as all material and food stuff are lower in prices, so that the industry will be carried on, this year, on a gain basis; even the fishermen with lower prices per hundred for their lobsters, will be ahead of last year.

Inspector Gallant of this province, has just published a tabulated statement of the fishing industry of Prince Edward Island, the first report of the kind ever made public. Following is the report for the calendar year of 1920:

Table with 2 columns: Item, Value. Includes Lobsters, Cod, Haddock, Herring, Smelts, Eels, Oysters, etc.

The capital invested in the fishing industry during the year 1920 was: for vessels; boats; nets; trawls; hand lines; lobster traps; piers and wharfs; freezers and ice houses—$12,250. People employed—men, 3,801; females 890. It will be seen by the above report that the fishing industry of Prince Edward Island is of considerable importance and there is no doubt, that if careful manipulation of the business was carried on, the yearly result would be most gratifying.

Along the north coast of the province, where lobsters seem to abound in the early spring, many fishermen realized last season as high as $1800 per boat of two men. This was an abnormal sum of money to be made in less than six weeks, but lobster men were being paid as high as $10 per hundred pounds. This coming season the price will be much lower but as I state above, the result will be even better, for both fishermen and packer.

Many lobster factories are exchanging hands this season, some packers going out of the business and new ones coming in. It is pleasing to note with what stoicism some of the old packers are preparing for the new year's work. Smelts are not as plentiful in our rivers as former years. The exporters, however, are getting big prices for the delicious little fish but considerable losses have been sustained by certain ones, due to the carelessness of the transportation companies. In one case a shipment of boxed smelts from Tignish to New York was eight days in transit, reaching the market in poor condition, thereby making a total loss to the shipper. But the worst feature is that the Express Company does not wish to assume the blame.

Our Ottawa Letter

(Continued from Page four) towards clear and right thinking instead of being constructive in their criticism. Instead of helping to solve the admittedly serious problems of finance and taxation, in stead of co-operating towards the restoration of real peace and the removal of unrest, they are pandering to every destructive agency and listening sympathetically to miscontents of all kinds. Their criticism is carping rather than constructive; they have no practical ideas about taxation, upon which they are united. On the big question of the discount of our dollar in the United States, they simply bury their heads in the sand and hold up ineffectual and important hands. They hold out no hope of betterment of the country's condition; they do not grapple with the Nation's problems and declare definitely how they should be solved. Their tactics are hopelessly small and pitifully childish; it is difficult to treat these men seriously. They are not worthy of it; at a time when the main objective of the Canadian people is how to make bread and butter and keep the Nation alive, how to pay interest on our war debt, pay pensions and true to the principles about which they are so fond of prating would join hands like real men and state men to pull the country through; but alas, alas, instead of that they present the appalling and deplorable spectacle of men who think more of their small, selfish political ambitions, than they do of their country. If that be their idea of patriotism it is impossible to understand their psychology. "Ill fares the land to hastening, ill a prey" when its public men in Opposition are either too lazy to understand public questions or too engrossed in the advancement of their own narrow ends to care about their country's crying needs. Official Liberalism has made many mistakes in recent years. Their gravest blunder was committed in 1917 when they allowed themselves to be little Canadians of the narrowest kind. Since then they have gone from bad to worse, until today the Liberalism, as interpreted in action, spells stagnation, self infatuation, bitter partisanship and disregard of country. It is lamentable yet, only too true!

DICKY DIPPY'S DIARY.

MONDAY CALLED ON BESSIE HART LAST NIGHT AND IT SEEMED AS IF I HAD BEEN THERE ONLY A FEW MINUTES WHEN SHE ADVISED ME TO GO, AS SHE EXPECTED HER PAPA HOME.

AS WE STOOD IN THE HALL I THOUGHT I'D ASK HER FOR A KISS, SHE LOOKED SO CHARMING. BUT, WHEN I TRIED TO, I BECAME BASHFUL.

WORDS FAILED ME! I KNEW NOT HOW TO BEGIN! AT THIS JUNCTURE—

HER PAPA CAME IN AND HELPED ME OUT!
