CHARLOTTETOWN SCHOOL OF COOKERY.

Miss Hamilton will be at home every afternoon this week to receive applications for entering the classes for instruction in cooking.
 The courses taken up will be as nearly as possible those taken up at the Boston Cooking School this year. As we cannot in our markets get all the necessaries now for a complete third course, the second and third courses will be combined taking the best from each.
 A class consists of eight pupils, and I can take five such classes during the week.
 Eight and sometimes nine things are made during a lesson, which is three to three and a half hours long, and every pupil learns how everything is made. The food cooked is served after the lesson.
 The tuition for these classes is:
 First course—plain cooking—twelve lessons for $7; materials extra, $1.50.
 Second course—richer cooking with luncheon, dinner and tea menus—twelve lessons $8; materials extra, $2.
 This price being paid for these same lessons at the Boston Cooking Schools are:
 First course $12; materials extra, $3.
 Second course $18; materials extra, $4.
 Private lessons in cooking $1, (by appointment) materials extra.
 Lessons in chafing dish cookery $1; (By appointment) materials extra.
 A class in invalid cookery will be organized as soon as possible.
Junior Lessons in Cookery—A class conducted on the lines of cooking in the public schools but with more cooking will be organized for children from twelve and not exceeding fourteen years of age. This will be held on Saturday morning. Sixteen will be admitted to this class and the tuition will be twelve lessons $4.00 materials included.
 The classes in plain and fancy cooking will be held in the afternoons, beginning at 1.30, and I hope to have at least one class ready to begin Monday January 12th. Below are sample lessons:
 Plain Cooking—Lesson III—Soup stock mock bisque soup, baking powder biscuit, mutton chops, baked macaroni baked potatoes, chocolate, blanc mange.
 Lesson IX—Broiled oysters, maitre d'hotel butter, roast beef, Yorkshire pudding, cranberry potatoes, slaw, brown bread, pineapple pudding.
 Second course—Lesson I—Clam soup with poached eggs, broiled steak with oyster blanket, bearnaise sauce, potato croquettes, corn gems, apples in bloom cream sauce, coffee.
 Lesson IX—Tomato bouillon, smelts meniere, chicken salad, mayonnaise dressing, quick rolls, puff paste, oyster patties, cheese straws, Vienna canapes.
 We will use the Souvenir range, as it is excellent.
 My syllabus is being printed and I will have copies to send out on Monday. If every lady interested will send me through the mail, Box 27, a list of ten names whom she thinks would be interested it will assist greatly in a distribution of the courses of study.
