GOOD FORM IN CARVING.
In medieval times all the carving was done by the lady of the house, who was invited to the upper end of the table not out of gallantry, but to perform hard work. Ere long, however, from her characteristic cleverness in making the best of things, she regarded her carver's stool as a throne of state, and affected to preside over the company to which she had been brought to help them to food. And in time her position as hostess became unassailable, and her lord and master meekly performed her duties.
There was a time when it was no more correct to speak of "carving" this, that, and the other meat than

It would be now to speak of the "left side" of a ship or a horse. Dr. Salmon in 1596 gave a list of the proper expressions, any misapplication of which would bring ridicule upon the blunderer. It was correct to say, "leach that brow," "lift that swan," and "rear that goose." Instead of carving, one was expected to spoll a hen, fract a chicken, unlace a coney, unbrance a mallard, disfigure a peacock, display a crane, unlash a curlew, unjoin a bittern, ally a pheasant, wing a quail or a partridge, mince a plover, thigh a pigeon or a woodchuck, border a pasty, and break a hare.

HOW TO GROW HAIR
It has been proven that Henna leaves contain the ingredients that will positively grow hair. That they contain this long-looked-for article is proven every day.
This preparation is called SALVIA and is being sold with a guarantee to cure Dandruff and to grow hair in abundance. Being daintily perfumed, SALVIA makes a most pleasant hair dressing. Geo. E. Hughes, your druggist, is the first to import this preparation into Charlottetown and a large, generous bottle, can be procured for 50c.

OH! LET US GAE A-ROVIN'.
The auld hairst moon, wi' glowin' face,
Comes up aboon the trees,
An' 'spreads its broad an' kindly beam.
Across the sleepin' lass,
An' 'dean' mang its forsaken haunts
The burn goes runnin' by,
As if 'twere hoardin' up its sang
Tae sing when thou art nigh.
Then let us gae a-rovin',
A-rovin', a-rovin',
Oh! let us gae a-rovin',
Aneath the auld hairst moon.

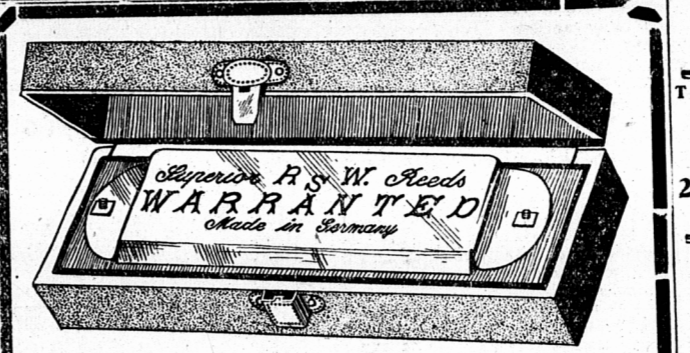

Oh, soon 'twill sit wi' brighter glow
Aboon the cheerless ways,
An' 'tip wi' gowd the copper leaves
That rustle o'er the brass.
The stars that stud the darken'd lift
Will shine wi' sweeter stream
An' thou wilt join me as I rove
An' view their fresh'nin' gleam.

Then let us gae a-rovin',
A-rovin', a-rovin',
Oh! let us gae a-rovin',
Aneath the auld hairst moon.

We'll tak' the path that first did wake
The glory o' the spring;
When first the birds 'mang openin' flowers
In ecstacy did sing.
An' as we rove I'll bless the moon
That gies whit mist I prize—
The light to view the lovin' heart
That glistens thro' thine eyes.

Then let us gae a-rovin',
A-rovin', a-rovin',
Oh! let us gae a-rovin',
Aneath the auld hairst moon.
—Wm. Mather.

ABSOLUTELY CURES STOMACH TROUBLE AND INDIGESTION
The question as to how long you are going to continue a sufferer from Indigestion, Dyspepsia or out-of-order Stomach is merely a matter of how soon you begin taking some Diapepsin.
If your Stomach is lacking in digestive power, why not help the stomach to do its work, not with drastic drugs, but a re-enforcement of digestive agents, such as are naturally at work in the stomach.
People with weak Stomachs should take a little Diapepsin occasionally, and there will be no more Indigestion, no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, no heartburn, Sour risings, Gas on stomach or Belching of undigested food, Headaches, Dizziness or Sick Stomach, and, besides, what you eat will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors. All these symptoms resulting from a sour, out-of-order stomach and dyspepsia are generally relieved in five minutes after taking a little Diapepsin.
Go to your druggist and get a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin now, and you will always go to the table with a hearty appetite, because your stomach and intestines will be clean and fresh, and you will know there are not going to be any more bad nights and miserable days for you. They freshen you and make you feel like life is worth living.
