Jack Miner is the man who originated the sanctuary idea for protecting, feeding and conserving the wild fowl of the continent. Jack Miner loves the Birds—the birds love Jack Miner, they come back to him season after season; they are as tame with him as our domestic fowl. Hear him tell how he does it.

It costs him between five and six thousand dollars annually to feed the birds that come to his sanctuary. Jack Miner is the only man on earth to catch and tag wild geese to study their route of migration.

Jack Miner has crossed the Continent five times in three years talking in the various cities, to crowded houses. Here's a clipping from a Winnipeg paper, "Winnipeg had the good fortune to hear two famous men in one week. David Lloyd George spoke to 8,000 people while about 13,000 men, women and children heard Canada's greatest Bird man, Jack Miner."

You'll regret it if you don't come.

MONTREAL, April 30. — Cattle receipts 1,061. With an increased offering of cattle there was more bargaining, slower sales, and about 25 cents lower prices. Cows and bulls at prices ranging from $6.00 to $8.50, were the first to be weighed up and at time of writing very few steers had been sold. An odd choice cow brought up to $9.00 and $10.00 was paid for a few good heifers. The bulk of the cows were sold at prices ranging from $7.00 to $8.25 and the bulk of the bulls around $7.00, with tops up to $8.50 and one at $9.00. It was likely that $10.50 would be the top for steers. Quotations—Butcher steers, good, $10.00 to $10.50, medium $9.25 to $9.75, common $8.00 to $8.50, butcher heifers, good $9.25 to $10.00, medium $8.25 to $9.00, common $7.00 to $8.00, butcher cows, good, $7.75 to $8.50, medium $5.00 to $7.25, canners, $3.25 to $3.75, cutters $4.00 to $4.50. ### "Daddy" Greenlee

The following taken from the Echo magazine of the United Theological College of Montreal will be of interest to many here

Few men have been more interested in the welfare and success of the United Theological College than our friend Mr. Greenlee, formerly Librarian of the Presbyterian College, and later, Assistant Librarian of the United College.

Mr. Greenlee is a native of the City of Glasgow, and a Master of Arts of Glasgow University, from which he graduated in the year 1889. He also studied Theology in Glasgow University for two years, and in the Presbyterian College, Halifax, for a third, graduating in the spring of 1891.

Mr. Greenlee was licensed to preach by the Presbytery of Halifax in April of the same year, and was ordained at New Mills, N. B., on the eighth of December following. After a ministry of some years at St. Peter's, Cape Breton, he went, in 1899, to London, England, where he took a year's post-graduate work at the Presbyterian College there. On his return to Canada, he went, by special appointment of the Home Mission Board to Wabana, Nfld., the church, then furthest east in America. Mr. Greenlee's next charge was in Sydney, Cape Breton, where he remained till 1911. During that time he was clerk of the Presbytery for five years. In 1911 he was again asked to go to Newfoundland, this time to Grand Falls, on a special mission. In 1914 he was called to Georgetown, P. E. I., a pastorate which continued till Mr. Greenlee came to the Presbyterian College, Montreal, in 1922. Three times during his ministry, he was chosen to represent the Canadian church at the Assemblies of the Scottish churches, an honour enjoyed by few.

At the college Mr. Greenlee at once was adopted as one of the "boys," and was affectionately known as "Daddy." To many a man he proved a real friend in times of difficulty and need. When 1923 came, Mr. Greenlee loyally followed his church and college into Union. With the readjustment resulting, he became Assistant Librarian of the United College.

During the last year Mr. Greenlee has unfortunately been confined to his home, owing to sickness. The "boys" hope that in the near future he will make a rapid recovery and that next fall he will be with us again.

FAREWELL GATHERING

A very large gathering met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Houston, New Glasgow Road to bid them farewell, and to present them with an address, also a dining-room table and easy chairs as tokens of their greatest esteem.

Mr. James Dover having been appointed chairman, made a few pleasing and very appropriate remarks, after which the address was read by Mrs. Charles Ford, president of the Women's Institute and the gifts presented by Miss Ada Ford and Miss Esther Dover. Mr. and Mrs. Houston made very suitable replies, thanking the people and inviting all to visit them in their new home. Mr. Anthony Buchanan was called upon to speak, which he did in his own humorous style. After the dancing and singing "For They are Jolly Good Fellows" a very enjoyable time was spent in games and music. A nice lunch was served and the meeting closed by singing "God Be With You Till We Meet Again" and the National Anthem. The organists were Mrs. Ashford Andrews, Ada Ford, Miss Florence McRae and Miss Marjory Andrews.

The following is a copy of the address: We the members of New Glasgow Road Institute, with many other neighbors and relatives wish to express our sincere regret at your departure from amongst us.

You, Mrs. Houston, will be missed for your very pleasing personality and obliging ways.

You have been wonderfully kind and thoughtful and so sympathetic, always doing all in your power in any time of trouble. In you the Institute, too, is losing one of its most capable members; and you will assuredly receive a hearty welcome whenever you can come back to our meetings.

Mr. Houston, you, too, will be greatly missed as one of the best of neighbors, also as a very sociable companion, always amusing us with your ready wit and sense of humor.

But as your new home is so near, we look forward to frequent visits from you, when we will again enjoy the pleasant company of you both.

Please accept these gifts as a remembrance and token of our esteem and appreciation.

Signed in behalf of the neighborhood.

In Memoriam

MRS. JAMES KING
The death occurred at the City Hospital on Thursday morning of Mrs. James King one of Charlottetown's respected ladies, after an illness of only a few days.

The late Mrs. King although of a somewhat retiring disposition was kind and charitable, and to those with whom she was acquainted a devoted friend.

Although rearing the four score mark she enjoyed excellent health, her death, resulting from a fall sustained only a few days previously.

Deceased leaves to mourn besides a sorrowing husband, James of the Department of Marine and Fisheries three daughters and two sons, viz: Mrs. Lorne Harper, Miss May, registered nurse of the City Hospital staff, and Miss Bessie, all of the city; John, of the C. N. R. Freight Department and Bradford, also of this city.

The large number of Mass Cards, spiritual and floral offerings testified to the esteem in which she was held by her many friends.

The funeral which was largely attended was held on Saturday morning from her late residence, 21 Sydney Street, to St. Dunstan's Cathedral where a Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Right Reverend Monsignor Maurice McDonald. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Thomas Campbell, James Power, Jos. Ward, Jas. Campbell, Patrick Dennis and Joseph Purcell. Service at the grave was conducted by Rev. P. Walsh.

Hospital Hard Hit By Motor Car Accidents

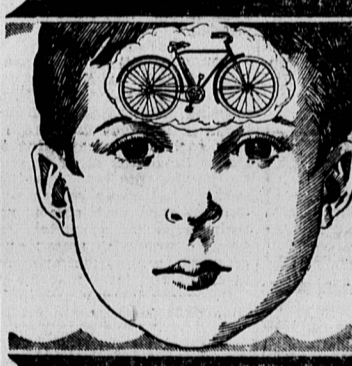

LONDON, April 30.—This is the period of the year when many of the great hospitals of this country usually hold their annual meetings of subscribers. There is hardly a meeting of the character at which reference is not made to the increasing tax upon the resources of hospitals through the treatment of persons injured in motoring accidents. It is depressing to learn that the hospitals have difficulty in recovering the cost of such treatment from patients themselves. The chairman of the Leeds Infirmary stated recently that the cost of treating more than 1,000 people injured in motor accidents had amounted to £4,399, but that all the hospital received from these grateful patients was £62!

It may be, of course, that the hospital authorities were diffident over mentioning the matter of payment to the injured ones, although Leeds is hardly a place where the mention of payment for services rendered would be likely to be considered indelicate. The fact remains, though, that practically all the large hospitals are complaining of the lack of readiness to contribute shown by the motor "casualty." Furthermore, the hospitals have a genuine grievance because they are in a different position from the private practitioner in the matter of the recovery of fees for casual attendance. It is also asserted that the great motor insurance companies are lacking in the realization of their obligations to assist the hospitals.

Birthday Present To Fight Disease

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, April 30.—King Gustaf V. of Sweden will celebrate his 70th birthday on June 16, and the Swedish people, in grateful recognition of his prosperous and peaceful reign of more than 20 years, now intend to collect a national fund to be presented as a gift to the King on that occasion. A general appeal to the Swedish people, signed by the Prime Minister, the Archbishop of Upsala, bishops, governors, politicians, scientists and journalists, is being circulated in all parts of the country. King Gustaf has expressed his intention to use the fund for scientific researches on cancer diseases, and a special research institute may be founded for that purpose in Stockholm. The radium hospital in Stockholm may also be enlarged, and the building of new similar institutions in various parts of the country is planned.

A national jubilee fund was raised when King Oscar II, the father of King Gustaf, reached his 75th birthday and was used to fight against tubercular diseases. King Gustaf, who is in good health, during his 20 years' reign has done much to keep his country out of the world war, has always avoided all interior conflicts by his unvarying loyalty and neutrality in all questions, which has won for him the love and reverence of the whole Swedish nation, and the jubilee gift is intended to give a public expression of these feelings.
