The New Dry-Good Store Ladies' Stylish Coats

No Old Goods to show Customers.

The new winter coats which we are showing now, are the newest and best in style, fit and appearance, ever shown in this city. We have gone to considerable trouble and expense too in securing for the ladies' of this city what is considered by everybody who saw them the finest ever shown in this Province.

We are really proud of our fine showing of ladies' coats. We have been talking a great deal of late about these new coats, you will make a mistake if you do not see them now.

And bear in mind we have not a last season's coat in stock. Our stock is entirely new, designed by one of the best ladies' mantle cutters in New York. This is the first season the work of this famous artist has been seen in this city.

In Misses' coats we have a complete line, also ladies' coats $3.75, $4.50, $6.50, $8.00, $9.50, $12.00, $14.00, $24.00, $18.00, $27.00, $30.00. Misses coats $2.35 to $10.00.

GIRL SEES HEAVEN IN 42-HOURS SLEEP

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—After awaking from what appeared to be the sleep of death Ethel Powell, eighteen years old, of Brooklyn, declared she had been in heaven for forty eight hours and had seen the deity and her dead father and brother.

Ethel, a bright and pretty girl, after graduating from school begged to be allowed to go to work and help support the household. One day she complained of being ill and was compelled to take her bed. The family physician pronounced her case one of spinal meningitis. He could do little for her as she brooded over the loss of her father and little brother.

When she went into the stupor word was sent to the Rectory of the Bushwick Avenue Congregational church, and the pastor, the Rev. Dr. John Lewis Clark, hurried to the Powell home. Ethel was one of his flock, and he tried to arouse her. He said that in response to his efforts a bright smile came to the girl's face, and the word "beautiful" was muttered through the tightly closed teeth. Finally at four o'clock Tuesday afternoon, forty-two hours after she fell into what looked like death sleep, Ethel's eyes moved and she spoke.

"Oh, mamma, I have been to heaven," were her first words. "What a beautiful place! Why did they bring me back? It was all so bright and lovely up there and everybody is so happy."

Regarding strength, the girl told her mother a remarkable story. She described a beautiful gate opened to her, and angels carrying her through space until she suddenly saw God before her.

"God had a book, but He told me it was not my time yet," said Ethel. "I saw papa and little Charlie both having wings, and they also said that it was not my time to stay in heaven."

It was so beautiful that I did not want to come back. I pleaded, but I suppose God wanted me to stay on earth and comfort you mamma, and that is the reason I came back, for there is no trouble in heaven; all happiness and no pain."

Dr. Clark was notified that Ethel had awakened from her trance, and going to her bedside heard her tell what she had seen in heaven. The minister was amazed, but Ethel told her story so convincingly that he declared last night there was no reason to doubt it.

A DOZEN HITS IN A FIGHT WITH THE MJRO

MANILA, Oct. 4.—A belated report received today from the Island of Mindanao, tells of a battle between scouts and outlaw Moros in which more than a dozen casualties occurred.

An outpost company of scouts was attacked on Kibitay road by a band of fifty Moros. In the first sudden onslaught one of the scouts was killed and two were wounded. The company rallied, however, driving off the superior force with a loss of nine natives killed and several wounded.

LAW IN YUKON MUST BE OBSERVED

OTTAWA, Oct. 4.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier yesterday received a petition consisting of the Bishop of Ottawa, Mr. Wilson, K. C., of Ottawa, and Rev. A. E. O'Meara, of Genard, Yukon, representing a committee on moral and social reform of the Church of England. Rev. Dr. Armstrong, ex-moderator, Rev. Dr. Rainey and Rev. J. H. Turnbull, of the Presbyterian Church, who urged a more rigid enforcement of the law in Yukon against prostitution.

The prime minister replying to the deputation, read his letter of 22nd of May last, addressed to Rev. Dr. J. G. Shearer, containing an extract from a letter to the commission of the Yukon. Sir Wilfrid Laurier then proceeded to state his understanding of the effect of the contents of a letter written by himself as being that the commission now has full instructions that "every infraction of the law regarding immorality and the suppression of vice, including infractions of the liquor ordinance, must be prosecuted with the utmost vigor" and that such instructions were intended to relate not merely to the enforcement of the local ordinances of the Yukon council, but also to that of the criminal law in Canada.

INDIAN NAMES.

OTTAWA, Oct. 4.—So many places in the west bear the historic Indian names, both eloquently descriptive of some marked natural condition which impressed itself upon the notice of the red men, and at the same time euphonical, that the interpretation of some of the more prominent may be interesting:

- Winnipeg—The muddy water.
- Minnesota—Slightly whitish water.
- Minnesota—Big water.
- Minnesota—To be drowned, or to drown.
- Manitoba—The mouth, or the mouth of a river.
- Manitoba—Spirit, ghost or anything unnatural.
- Omaha—Up stream.
- Chicago—The wild onion or leek.
- Idaho—The light on the mountains.
- Manitowish—The spirit bow.
- Minnehaha—Laughing water.

SHOT MOOSE AT CLOSE RANGE.

ROGERSVILLE, N. B., Oct. 4.—The champion shot, J. A. Martin, brought down a moose last Friday at the distance of 258 yards. The animal dropped immediately with the one shot in the neck. Mr. Martin is one of the great game hunters of the province. In the year 1907 he shot a caribou at the great distance of 300 yards, also with the one shot. He was accompanied by Charles Peters, of Rogersville. He also won many prizes in Chatham last year with the title.

VEGETARIANISM FAD FOR SOCIETY LEADERS.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—The advance of the vegetarian movement is still more fully shown by the fact that a number of cooks from large West End houses are among the pupils at the London Vegetarian Association's Cookery School, which yesterday opened its doors for the autumn session.

"Many of the leaders of society are ardent vegetarians," said the secretary of the association, "and vegetarianism is rapidly spreading."

Shoes

"You can buy your shoes anywhere, but you'd better not. Buying anywhere means anything; it may be half composition, or badly fitted. It's worth something to any man to get into a store where nothing but good quality is to be found; the rule not the exception, nobody but an expert can afford to trust himself where all sorts of qualities are offered; and even experts can be fooled.
