PURSES TO REV. G. E. AND MRS. ROSS

will still endure. During your pastorate there has been an advance in every department of our church work. The large congregations at public worship, the excellent attendance at the Sabbath School, Christian Endeavor and other societies within the church, and above all the large addition to our church membership, are the best evidence of your zeal and ability as a Christian minister.

The session, of which you have been its respected moderator, takes this opportunity of thanking you for your courtesy, kindness and gentlemanly conduct as its presiding officer. Every meeting was a profit and pleasure. Few know, as we do, how much of yourself and your means you gave help to the needy and erring one, and we know that not only as a generous Christian minister, but as a citizen of Charlottetown, you carry with you all the good will and respect of all those with whom you have been brought in contact.

As we said on former occasions, and it will bear repeating here, our congregation will have reason to remember your work in connection with the Order of your works for the Ministry. Your influence with the young people of the congregation, especially with the young men, has borne much fruit and in the years to come we believe you and they will look back on your associations in Zion Church as amongst the happy days of your lives.

We are confident we speak not only for our session and congregation but for the Presbytery and Synod as well when we say your removal from the Maritime Provinces will be a distinct loss to Presbyterianism in this part of Canada.

In evidence of appreciation not only of your work but of yourself, we ask you to accept this small token of our friendship and esteem.

In saying good-bye, we wish you a safe journey to your new field of labor and pray that God may guide and prosper your every work, and that you, Mrs. Ross and your children, may be spared to enjoy years of usefulness and happiness.

Signed on behalf of the Congregation, Charlottetown, P. E. I.

November 10, 1910.

The evangelistic meetings now being held by Rev. J. F. Floyd in Central Christian Church, Kent Street, are growing in interest and the subject of tonight's discourse will be "The Great Salvation." The solos by Mrs. J. S. Floyd are an attractive feature and add much to the impressiveness of the services.

The residence of James and Mrs. Reeves, Preetown, was the scene of a very pretty home wedding on Wednesday evening, November 9th, when their only daughter, Verna Delvina, became the bride of James Charles Crockett, son of William and Mrs. Crockett, Fitzroy St., City.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. William Johnson in the presence of about fifty invited guests. The bride and groom were unattended. The bride presented a charming appearance and was very becomingly attired in grey silk. At the conclusion of the ceremony the party sat down to a wedding repast after which the remainder of the evening was spent in social and musical festivities.

The bride, who is a widely known and popular young lady, was the recipient of a large number of useful and valuable presents, that of the groom being a handsome gold bracelet set with pearls. Mr. and Mrs. Crockett will reside in this city. The Guardian joins with their many acquaintances and friends in extending to the happy young couple best wishes for a long happy and prosperous journey through life.

Hon. J. H. Cummins had a very unpleasant experience Wednesday which might have terminated fatally but for his presence of mind, and skill, and strength as a swimmer. About three o'clock in the afternoon he was driven by his son from his residence in Webster's Corner to Cranberry Wharf, East River, intending to cross the river to take the train at Scotchfort Station, en route to Charlottetown. When they arrived at the wharf the regular ferryman was not there, but in order that the train might be caught, a young man living near the wharf kindly consented to convey the commissioner across in a small punt. Shortly after the boat had left the wharf the punt gave a lurch throwing the commissioner into the water. The boatman remained in the punt, and Mr. Cummins realizing that an attempt to climb into the punt might throw the other man in to the water, struck out for the shore some distance away. Although wearing a heavy fur coat, he was an excellent swimmer and succeeded in reaching land. So confident was he in being able to save himself, that he did not even remove the pipe from his mouth, and his first question to his terrified son was "Fred, give me a dry match." The Commissioner was driven rapidly to his home. After a change of clothing he was none the worse of the experience. Yesterday morning he crossed the river and came to the city.

Today's Guardian contains twelve pages.

Ever since their introduction into this City by Johnson & Johnson some months ago, "Ivanhoe Chocolates" have enjoyed a large and ever increasing sale, so large in fact that the manufacturers now feel warranted in putting the letters "J & J" on every chocolate manufactured for Johnson & Johnson by whom they are sold in bulk and packages at fifty cents a pound. The firm deserve credit for their enterprise in having a chocolate made especially to their order and the stamp "J & J" on every chocolate will be a guarantee of purity and freshness. The assortment at present is made up of eighteen different flavours, all dark coatings.

Sir:

If the "nappy-go-lucky-slap-it-on-a press-and-let-er-go" kind of advertising you are using is doing you some good doesn't it seem reasonable to suppose that "something different"—bright, convincing, thought-out and mailed regularly "direct" to your list will prove of much greater value (This is intended only for the man who feels the bullet strike him).
