Wood arose and in a pleasant speech on behalf of all present told the purpose of the gathering, congratulating Mr. and Mrs. Gard on the occasion of such a home and wishing them many years of health and happiness in it, etc. while Mr. Guy Stewart made the presentation of a beautiful bevelled glass mantle mirror. Mr. and Mrs. Gard responded in appropriate words after which all joined in singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows." A dainty lunch was then served by the ladies, and after all did ample justice all joined hands singing "Auld Lang Syne," then departing to their homes voting it a pleasant time. New Annapolis and Vicinity.—And still the snow comes down. Even though it has stormed quite heavily during past few days the cars continue to pass along this way. An odd one takes the ditch, another is stuck in a snow drift while more continue on their way with no obstructions whatsoever. This, the morning of the ninth came in with more snow gently falling, surely before long car drivers shall have to again get used to old cobble the "ever faithful" at this time of the year. The management of the stores in Summerside deserve merited praise for their prettily arranged decorations during this Xmas season.

Mr. John Pillman, Travellers Rest is spending a few days in the land of Uncle Sam.

Mrs. E. J. Wright is at present visiting her daughter, Mrs. Harry Brown, Margate.

Congratulations are heartily extended to Mr. Edward Urch, Travellers Rest, upon attaining such high prices for his foxes this fall. It is said that Mr. Urch's foxes are of splendid quality and he certainly deserves a boost for having such a display of good all round stock in his ranch.

Mr. James Champion spent the week end at his home in Travellers Rest.

Mr. Allie McNeill is spending a pleasant visit with relatives in the States.

Her friends are glad to hear that Miss Annie Mathieson has returned to her home in Travellers Rest after a recent operation in the Prince County Hospital. Miss Mathieson who is one of P. E. Island's efficient school teachers has many friends throughout this Isle who "wish her well."

Mrs. Edward Urch, Travellers Rest, returned from a short but pleasant visit with friends in Moncton.

During the past week, Summerside has been quite a busy town. Among those in the city Saturday 7th, last, were Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson and family, Mr. Cleve Baker, Margate, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Curtis, Mrs. E. C. Caseley, Messrs. NOTES ON WILDEY LODGE AND ST. LAWRENCE LODGE BOWLING MATCH.—VanDerstine, the official scorer for St. Lawrence was noted for his absence, stated on business, we think he took cold feet.

Adams, the Captain of Wildey, is still putting on flesh and must go in training. Would suggest more practice in bowling.

The cheer-leader, Tar-brush, was there with his usual TAR.

The Captain of St. Lawrence is always down and has started smoking fags. The result of the Dance Class? Who knows? Whoa Maud.

Gill made a very poor score in the first match and left on the 645 for West, thought the matter over and rolled. Mowing machines are no good in a ground drift. MacEachern may know something regarding gasoline engines but the Calipers are no good on the "good pin." The lemon carriers, Laphorn and MacNair are always present. Why so serious Jack? Lou Stewart makes his dough hard but loves to spend a dime bowling. Pres. Soutner may be a good blacksmith but had an extra nail or so last evening. Stevenson, commonly known as "Punch" was away off, Three Eggs Sold the game. How about the dance. Kelsey Burhoe's good score keeping for Wildey won the game though a number didn't think so. Leitch is a bit short on one leg but is always there as a good sport. Jack Stewart for Wildey takes everything serious even the seed potato game. Although Wildey won both games they still next to contend with the old timers next Tuesday evening. Who knows. Cleaver MacLean may know something about rolling stock of the C. N. R. but is lost rolling stock of the Charlottetown Alleys.
