WEYMOUTH OFFICIALLY DECLARED ALIVE AND THREE SUSPECTS FREED

BIDDEFORD, Me., June 28—Instead of his body being found buried in the Maine woods, Charles I. Weymouth, for whose supposed murder two men and a woman have been under arrest for several days past, returned from Sherbrooke (Que.) alive and well today. When the two young daughters of Mrs. Maud Snow, the woman arrested as an alleged accessory to the imaginary crime, told the authorities that Weymouth had been beaten to death at the Snow home in Dayton, September, 1909, and his body buried near by, many residents of this section were skeptical.

ABEGWEIT SPORTS A GREAT SUCCESS

The Abegweit sports on Saturday, which furnished about the only attraction in this city on Dominion Day, were as well anticipated as a complete success, and were commended for having so completely attained their end, viz. to supply an afternoon's sport for citizens, many of whom would otherwise have left the city. Their efforts in this direction must either have touched a responsive chord in many, or the more recent promotion of clear amateur sport by the Abegweit Club must have resulted in a reawakening of interest in athletics here, for the attendance yesterday was very large, in fact beyond anticipation—which fact must be gratifying to the officials. Of course the Militia in Camp contributed very largely to the gathering but the attendance of citizens was also large. Among those present were His Honor Lt. Gov. Rogers, Commander Macdonald, of H. M. C. S. Niobe, Capt. Göttsche of S. M. S. Bremen and other officers. The above occupied a reserved section of the stand appropriately draped with flags for the occasion.

It was estimated that there were about 2000 visitors here during the day, the principal attraction being the horse races in the Driving Park in the afternoon which were attended by about 2000 people. Everything passed off in quiet order.

His successful flight marks another milestone in the achievement of daring birdmen. Aviators who witnessed the flight declare that it was more perilous than the recent race across the Alps. ANOTHER CRISIS IN OLD COUNTRY

Political Situation Assumes Critical Appearance—What May be Expected on That Veto.

Special to The Guardian. LONDON, July 2—A political crisis is nearer than is generally anticipated unless the government organ, The Daily News, is mistaken. The News says that unless the Peers accept defeat and withdraw their amendments crippling the veto bill, Premier Asquith next week will announce that the government will immediately invoke their prerogatives. SAYS DEMOCRATES MUST GET RID OF 'BOSS' MURRAY

ALBANY, N. Y., June 28—The absolute elimination of Charles F. Murphy as leader is the only thing that can save the Democratic party in this state, according to Thomas Mott, recently resigned state fish and game commissioner. Mr. Osborne, in a letter from Berlin to James K. Sague, vice-chairman of the Democratic League and mayor of Poughkeepsie, which was made public to-day by Francis A. Willard, secretary of the league, says he "absolutely declines to follow Mr. Murphy's leadership to further disgrace and inevitable defeat." He objects to Mr. Murphy's domination, Mr. Osborne says, "because his leadership has stood and stands for ignorance and commercialism; and its treatment of legislation has been imbecile. When political parties are governed by the material interests of its leaders instead of by general principles," continues Mr. Osborne, "then rottenness and dire corruption are certain to flourish unchecked."

A KIND WORD

During a long life I have proved that not one kind word ever spoken, not one kind deed ever done, but sooner or later returns to bless the giver and becomes a chain binding men with golden threads to the throne of God—Lord Shaftesbury. "THE LONGER WE LIVE, The longer we live in this world, says Edward W. Bok, the more we become convinced how little we know. The people most humble are generally the best educated. It is an art which only a few learn, to be reticent of our opinion. When everyone is expressing his, yet this is one of the attributes of the well educated. Silence of the tongue and wretchedness of the hand."
