COTTONS

your picking time during COTTON WEEK - COMMENCING TUESDAY, APRIL 27th

The flowers that bloom in the spring are bright, Bright cottons that send you to luncheon . . . to shop . . . to care for the kiddies in sparkling freshness. They're blithe fashions that take you coolly through blistering summer days, that keep you poised and fresh looking from morn till midnight.
 They're washable . . . colorfast . . . and so prettily detailed.

MEMORIAL GIFTS.—A Memorial service for the late Russell Burns was held on Easter Sunday, March 29th, at the Freetown United Church, where he was a valued and faithful member and where he is greatly missed from his place in the choir. In his memory, two beautiful potted Easter lilies were placed by the pulpit, and a white leather-bound Bible was presented to the church; both were sent by his sister Charlotte and her husband, Mr. Walter Scott, and his two nieces, Miss Alice Scott and Mrs. Edward Coney, all of Gardiner, Maine. The impressive service led by Rev. R. Wagner was deeply appreciated by his wife and family and friends who attended.

Tignish Ladies Aid Organized

A meeting of all the women of Tignish was called for April 18th, and held in the St. Mary's Hall to organize a Ladies Aid. Thirty-two ladies attended. Mrs. A. J.
 MacDonald was appointed chairman and the minutes of the meeting were taken down by Mrs. J. F.
 Gallant. Reverend J. A. MacDonald, parish priest, welcomed the ladies and said he was pleased to sponsor this organization of united women under the title of Tignish Ladies Aid and he considered any work undertaken for such a good cause as helping out in any small way the local hospital at Alberton would be a credit to our community and he promised to give his full support to all worthy attempts undertaken by the ladies. At the conclusion of Father MacDonald's remarks, madam chairman called upon Mrs. J. J. McNally to give an outline of what was meant by Ladies Aid and what would be expected of the members. Mrs. Mc-Nally gave a very clear picture of the duties expected of each one and in her capable manner answered all questions which were asked.
 An election of members to hold office for the year then took place and are as follows:
 President—Mrs. J. J. McNally.
 1st. Vice Pres.—Mrs. John Cameron.
 2nd. Vice Pres.—Mrs. A. J. Mac-Donald.
 Recording Secretary—Mrs. Wilfred Shea.
 Treasurer—Mrs. Eugene Perry.
 The following were appointed to serve on the different committees: Buying committee: Mrs. Peter Burke, convener; Mrs. James Christopher; Mrs. Joseph T. Arcault.
 Sewing committee: Mrs. Joseph Walsh, convener; Mrs. Joseph Mc-Pherson; Mrs. Fred McRae.
 Entertainment Committee: Mrs.
 A. A. MacInnis, convener; Mrs. Alfred Handrahan; Mrs. Fred Fitz-Gerald; Mrs. Terrance Gevin.
 It was decided to hold meetings once a month, first meeting to be held on May 2nd, at the home of Mrs. Joseph Walsh. Meeting was adjourned on a motion made by Mrs. Eugene Perry.
