RICE KRISPIES are so crisp they actually pop in milk or cream. And what a flavor! Crunchy rice grains — toasted golden crisp!

Rice Krispies are fine for any meal. Give them to the children for supper. Enjoy for a bedtime snack. Easy to digest. Order a red-and-green package from your grocer. Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario.

MALPEQUE

The community of Sea View and surrounding districts were shocked and saddened by the sudden passing of Mr. George Brander on Thursday April, 30th. Mr. Brander had not been in very robust health for two years but was able to be about his daily duties. On Thursday afternoon he left the house to go to the barn and his wife calling him to supper a few minutes later found that he had fallen to the ground; aid was summoned but it was too late — the life had passed to the life beyond.

The deceased was twenty-two years of age, was a life long resident of Sea View and was a farmer and a fisherman. He was a lover of horses and knew and valued a good horse. Mr. Brander was twice married, his first wife, Miss Annie Adams, predeceased him many years ago, the children by this marriage, all of whom are living, are as follows:— Three daughters Miss Thursa Brander of Medford Mass, Mrs. William Harding (Grace) French River, Mrs. Edgar Bryenton (Carrie) Hamilton and two sons, Mr. James Brander, Baltic and Mr. William Brander of Sea View. His wife formerly Miss Jannetta Duggan survives him. The funeral which was held on Saturday afternoon was largely attended and was conducted by his pastor the Rev. E. M. Aitken who spoke from the words "Be ye also ready etc." The pall bearers were— Messrs Roy Adams, Earl Adams, Jeremiah Adams, John D. Duggan, Wilfred Campbell and Alex Campbell. Interment took place in Princetown Cemetery. Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved wife and his family in their sorrow.

Miss Thursa Brander, Medford Mass, arrived home on Friday evening and was in attendance at the funeral of her father the late Mr. George Brander.

Miss Helen Ramsay, and Mr. Erwin Taylor, students at Dalhousie, university arrived home this week and will spend the summer months at their respective homes here. These young people are welcome visitors here.

Messrs Melville and Herbert Donald and Miss Clara Donald motored to Alberton on Saturday afternoon and spent the week end with friends there.

Mrs. L. D. MacNutt, Mrs. J. A. Campbell, Misses Constance MacNutt and Hazel Hopgood and Master Dugald MacNutt were motorists to Summerside on Saturday.

The Rev. E. M. Aitken, was in attendance at the Presbytery meeting in Charlottetown on Tuesday.

Mr. William Sinclair returned to Hamilton on Thursday after having spent the winter at the home of his daughter Mrs. Stanley MacMillan, Halifax.

Mrs. Keir Clark and children, Leslie and Mildred of Kensington spent the past week guests of Mrs. Clark's parents Mr. and Mrs. Winfred Ramsay, Hamilton.

Mrs. Ernest Calbeck and children Keith and Valerie of Linkletter are guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Woodside, Hamilton.

Mr. D. E. Mahar, Darnley, was a recent guest of his daughter Mrs. James M. Ramsay, Hamilton.—M.

The Chief's Error

Goron was chief of the Paris police when the following incident took place: Lombroso had written a book in 1888 on criminality among women, so runs the story, and when it was finished wrote to Goron to send him "forthwith" some portraits of Parisian women criminals. Anxious to please the writer, the package was made up and started on its tour to Italy. When the book came out Lombroso sent a copy, handsomely bound, to Goron, who saw his gift acknowledged on the first page. "It was a scholarly book," said the chief, "and would have had a large sale but for an error on my part. The pictures came out of the wrong drawer of my desk. They were not criminals at all, but women who had applied for hucksters' licenses, and a new edition had to be printed to make good a police mistake."

Two Irishmen were gazing in admiration at Westminster Cathedral. "Shure, Moike," said Pat, "it bates the devil."

"Faith, and that was the intin-tion," replied Michael.

Friend—"Going on the merry-go-round, Rastus?"
Rastus—"No, sub. Ah don't neber ride on dem things. Why, just now I seen Moses Johnson ride an' ride a spin as much as a dollah, an' den get off at the same place as 'e got on at. I sez, 'Moses, you 'spen' you' money, but where you 'been?'"

THE SPINISTERS' CONVENTION

The Cable Head East W. L. staged their famous Musical Comedy, "The Spinister's Convention," in Holy Name Hall, St. Peter's, on the evening of the 27th and achieved a well merited success. "Great! Great! I wouldn't have missed it for anything was the verdict on all sides.

The Young Ladies' Single Blessedness Society possesses a most vigorous and efficient president, in the person of Sister Josephine Jane Green, and she was ably supported by the members who were all just about perfect in make-up and costumes.

Sister Cleopatra Belle Brown discoursed sweet music on her violin, while the other Sisters gracefully "tripped the lilt; fantastic toe," as the President jauntily expressed it.

Sisters Rachael Rebecca Sharp, and Ida Dora Mann revealed themselves as talented elocutionists, and Sister Charity Longface, in bonnet and shawl, with her pet bird, Chirpy, contributed much to the fun of the occasion.

Sister Polly Jane Pratt somehow acquired a "beau" probably by her beautiful dancing, and rather unkindly "crowded over" her Sisters.

Sister Belinda Bluegrass, nattily attired in bloomers, blouse and cigarette made a spirited speech in favor of dress reform.

Boa blia! /TITWetleetaoiaetaoiaoa The Treasurer, Sister Calamity Jane Higgins, is a real plump and jolly Sister, who, in spite of her unfortunate deafness and a tendency to "catnaps" (and snores) misses very little of what is going on. Sister Calamity is the only one of the Sisters in favor of dress reform and thinks that no matter what the scales say, the new "trouser" costume would be very becoming to her.

Sister Hanner Biggerstaff and Beauty Spot Temptation were just newly initiated.

Professor Makeover and his assistant, Mr. Reggie Lewis were in great form, and did wonderful work rejuvenating the Maids. The professor is surely on the road to fame and fortune with his wonderful "Remedioscope."

The specialties were extremely good and well received, especially the song "Joyous Are We" by six little girls.

A number of the local bachelors heard themselves "sized up" as to eligibility, to the intense amusement of the audience.

The Institute tenders its sincere thanks to Miss Minnie Chatsoun, teacher of Goose River School, and to Messrs. Herb Sutherland, Greg Lewis and Jas. O'Hanley for their valuable assistance in making the musical part of the play as good as it was, also to other friends who worked hard to make the show a success.

Do not allow worms to sap the vitality of your children. If not attended to, worms may work irreparable harm to the constitution of the infant. The little sufferers cannot voice their ailments, but there are many signs by which mothers are made aware that a dose of Miller's Worm Powder is necessary. These powders act quickly and will expel worms from the system without any inconvenience to the child.

BRIDAL SHOWER

A large number of the friends of Miss Jennie C. Dollar, numbering about a hundred, gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Dollar, Brookfield, on Monday, April 27th, in honor of her approaching marriage.

All sections and churches were well represented. Rev. G. A. Grant acted as chairman, and after two choruses, in which all the company joined, alluded briefly to the object of the gathering and to the great loss that the church and the community in general was sustaining in Miss Dollars impending removal. Mrs. Redvers Stewart was introduced and read the following address:

Dear Jennie,—

The word has recently reached us that you are about to go out from our midst and make your home in another locality. Such is ill. But we feel that we cannot permit you to depart without expressing in a feeble way our appreciation of the deep interest you have always taken in our community welfare.

To the church, S. S., and Y. P. League you have given fully of your best. It was not always an easy task but you carried on faithfully. By your kind and genial manner you have won a host of friends by whom you will always be lovingly remembered. Our very best wishes go with you to your new home. We trust that your journey through life may be few days in Cape Traverse.

Heart and Nerves So Bad Was Unable To Sleep For Hours

Miss Theresa M. Ravary, Gallingstown, Ont., writes:—"I was troubled, for almost a year, with my heart and nerves, especially on retiring at night when I would be unable to sleep for hours. I was easily fatigued, and became very excitable and irritable. A friend recommended Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and after taking them for a few weeks I could enjoy a good night's rest, and rapidly regained my former state of health."

happy and prosperous. Please accept the accompanying gift as a small expression of our love and goodwill. Signed on behalf of the Committee. Mrs. Redvers Stewart, Edna Proude, Marjorie MacNeill.

A very generous purse was presented by Miss Marjorie MacNeill, to which Miss Dollar made a fitting response. All joined in the chorus, "For she is a Jolly good Fellow." Which was followed by an appropriate and pleasing solo by Mr. Nelson Kent, who was loudly applauded. Mr. A. W. Stewart closed this part of the programme with a brief witty address.

The large company then took part in games and social intercourse and shared in a bountiful luncheon. The happy gathering dispersed with hearty appreciation of the hospitality with which Mr. and Mrs. Dollar received and entertained the guests.
