

MISSING LETTER CONTEST

There is a chance to win a valuable prize. In some of the advertisements appearing in the contest you will find a missing letter. These missing letters put together will form the name of some firm on the page on which the prize winning solution will be decided.

Contestants must enclose with their solution a current week paid bill from one of the advertisers in The Missing Letter Competition.

TIGNISH

Mr. Edward Hornby of the Provincial Bank, Tignish, spent New Year's with his parents Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hornby, Charlottetown.

Miss Stella Brennan, Tignish, is spending a short vacation with her sister, Mrs. R. J. Praught, Charlottetown.

Mr. Ralph Harper, Boston, Mass., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Harper, Tignish.

A number of the young people of Tignish were hospitably entertained at the home of Miss Francis Harper who very prettily arranged three tables of bridge on Wednesday last, Dainty refreshments and peppy music garnished the games.

A number of the poultry raisers near Tignish have been complaining of a notable shrinkage in their stock from day to day. Nothing however has been done but we expect in short the offender will receive the same fate as did the white owl of recent history.

Mrs. MacDonald and little granddaughter, Joyce MacDonald, Tignish are visiting Mr. P. A. MacDonald who at present is being treated at the Provincial Sanatorium. We are pleased to know that Mr. MacDonald's condition is decidedly favourable.

Monday and Tuesday of last week a large number of fresh lobsters were found along the shore where they had been washed by the storm. These fish were in perfect condition for consumption, provided the finder would furnish a hot bath, needless to say they were a welcome treat for many of those who are confined to his bed with influenza for the holidays.

Magnesia Best for Your Indigestion

Most people who suffer, either occasionally or chronically from gas, sourness and indigestion, have now discontinued disagreeable diets, patent foods and the use of harmful drugs, stomach tonics, medicines and artificial digestants, and instead, following the advice so often given in these columns, take a teaspoonful or four tablets of Bisurated Magnesia in a little water after meals with the result that their stomach no longer troubles them, they are able to eat as they please and they enjoy much better health.
