Georgetown And Vicinity

A motor boat is at present carrying foot passengers across the harbour to Lower Montague, for a few days when it is expected the ferry boat will be in operation.

Mr. Ward Landry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Landry, Water Street, returned to his home on Thursday from Boston, Mass., where he has been since last summer.

Mr. and Mrs. James Morton of New York City have purchased the home formerly known as the Michael MacDonald property and recently renovated by Captain Jack Fitzgerald. Mr. and Mrs. Morton plan on making their future home in Georgetown.—Geo.

With the return of fine weather the waterfront activity has re-activated its spring peak and boats are being launched in increasing numbers. The familiar sound of the boat engine, a harbinger of spring in any fishing community, is to be heard day and night, as supplies and equipment are moved to outside the harbour operational fishing points. From now until the last of June is the lobsterman's vital time of year, and by the industry and effort they are putting into their occupation, they certainly deserve good returns for their labors.

'RAGE IN HEAVEN' RETURNS INGRID BERGMAN, ROBERT MONTGOMERY IN THRILLER

One of the most powerful and suspense-packed pictures ever filmed makes a triumphant return to the Prince Edward screen today with the showing of 'Rage in Heaven', co-starring Ingrid Bergman and Robert Montgomery. This picture, adapted from the novel by James Hilton, author of 'Goodbye, Mr. Chips' and 'Lost Horizon', is memorable as being the most thrilling 'perfect crime' story ever brought to the screen. Montgomery plays a handsome intelligent but emotionally unbalanced young man who weds a beautiful girl only to drive himself to reckless acts by his belief she loves his best friend. This is the background for his plotting a crime so flawless that it will send his friend to the hangman and rid him of a rival. In a climax that will have you on the edge of your seat, his cleverness proves his undoing, and in the picture's final scenes Hilton again proves himself a master of unusual twists of plot that sustain their excitement to the last fadout.

This picture, which has recently scored outstanding successes in such pictures as 'Notorious', 'Spellbound', 'Sarstoga Trunk' and 'The Bells of St. Mary's', gives a brilliant performance as the wife faithful to her husband but terrorized by the realization that he is slowly going mad as the result of his fixation. Montgomery gives an understanding and absorbing study of a weakening and driving to insanity by the belief that his wife loves his best friend, and Sanders is perfectly cast as the friend. Others worthy of mention in an exceptional cast include Lucille Watson as Montgomery's mother, Oscar Homolka and Phillip Merivale.
