MOTHER AND DAD There's a spot in my heart that I always will save, For the two best friends I ever had, I owe them a lot I can never repay, Those old pals my Mother and Dad. CHORUS They always are happy together, even when their blue skies turned to grey, they keep ever smiling and trying, to cheer folks and brighten their way. When I made a blunder or did something wrong, they always treated me fair, they'd give me a chance when all others would frown, Mother and Dad, what a wonderful pair. CHORUS They always are happy to-gether, even when their blue skies turn to grey, they keep ever smiling and trying, to cheer folks and brighten their way. When I made a blunder or did something wrong, they always treated me fair, they'd give me a chance when all others would frown, Mother and Dad, what a wonderful pair. CHORUS They always are happy to-gether, even when their blue skies turn to grey, they keep ever smiling and trying, to cheer folks and brighten their way.
