DOINGS OF THE SMITH FAMILY HOCKEY TEAM

The Seven Sons May Make Tour of the West.

OTTAWA, Jan. 15.—Henry and Mrs. Smith of the firm of Henry and Smith, returned yesterday from a fortnight's trip in Winnipeg. They went out with the Ottawa hockey team and Mr. Smith, in making arrangements while there to get on matches for his team of seven sons, with the western clubs next year. Mr. Smith thinks Winnipeggers should take a lesson from Ottawas in the matter of cleaning their streets. The walks in winter, he says, resemble an Indian trail. But the city is a very busy center and is destined to be a big place.

From Chicken-Pox to Cholera

Cure-Alls No Longer Tolerated.

In early days every barber shop was an operating room and the town physician resorted to bleeding as the sure cure for all ailments from chicken-pox to cholera. As a result, many, including our first President, died prematurely. The present low rate of mortality is due in large measure to the advance made in medical science and the knowledge of the specific treatment needed for each disease known.

There is no disease more common among American and English people than dyspepsia. So prevalent has it become that thousands suffer with it half unconsciously, consider the symptoms as natural to their physical constitution and resign themselves to living on in that condition.

There is a remedy for dyspepsia, and only one, recommended and endorsed generally by physicians: Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have stood the test of years of use by millions of sufferers, have been subjected to governmental analyses in Europe and America and alone have been found to contain the elements which Nature has put into the stomach for digestion—pepsin, diastase and other ferments.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets relieve the stomach and bowels in a perfect way naturally by helping them do their work. If the stomach is weak in greatest distress, Stuart's Tablets make up the deficiency. If the muscles are inactive, Stuart's Tablets invigorate them. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets digest every form of food entering the stomach, one grain of the active principle of these Tablets being capable of digesting 3,000 grains of meat, eggs and other foods. They are not cathartic pills—their action is simply that of a digestant.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets cure nothing but dyspepsia, water-brash, sour stomach and kindred ailments resulting from the imperfect digestion of food, but these diseases they positively cure. We will gladly send you a trial package to prove the truth of our claims. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets can be gotten of all druggists at 50 cents. F. A. Stuart Co., 60 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

MONTREAL THUGS ROBBED AND BEAT A NEW YORKER

Knocked Unconscious On St. Andre Street For Hours Before Found.

MONTREAL, Jan. 15.—Thomas Lilly of New York, is not touched with the hospitality of Montreal except in the way he has no use for. He knows all about New York's sandbaggers, but, although he has never made the personal acquaintances of any members of the profession.

On Friday he came to Montreal on business, and in the evening Montreal hold-up men promptly held out their arms in welcome. Mr. Lilly was walking along St. Andre Street above Mt. Royal Avenue, when he was set upon by a gang of two and although he is a strong, athletic man of twenty-six and put up a fight, he quickly got the worst of the encounter.

He remembered going for the man in front of him, and then received a smashing blow on the side of the head from the other man behind him. He went down, and was again hit, laid unconscious on the ground. All the money—about $100—had been taken from his pockets, also some bills in a pocket-book in his vest pocket, and his watch.

NOBLESSE OBLIGE.

OU LE LEGEND DE L'ECOLE DE LA RUE PRINCE.

ACT I SCHOOL YARD.

The school children are at recess. The Captain of the seniors drill class is handed a telegram which states that in honor of the first sod being cut of the approach to the Tunnel the Mayor wishes the students to be given an hour's recess. After cheering the good news the little ones decide they will dance Sir Roger de Coverly, the intermediates decide on a dainty Gavotte while the seniors promise a Drill. The boys erupt hilarity and freedom of the children's old fashioned romp—Sir Roger—is succeeded by a stately drill from a corps of young Amazons. The perfect discipline is marred by an untoward incident, one of the students talks in class. At once summary justice is inflicted. The disciplinary committee is convened and the culprit is in military phraseology "Put back for Trial by Jury."

The class legend relates how the class "motto" came into being and the high ideal the seniors strive to live up to. The penalties for infringement of the rules are dire and are recalled with becoming severity by the Captain. Scene three finds the Intermediates in caucus assembled, sympathizing and flowers are advocated for Hazel and the Jury, even the Judge is to be remembered. While the flowers are en route the dainty Gavotte is trodden by deft and agile feet. The curtain falls on their last graceful bow.

Act II Court Room, ushers us into a court room. An obsequious usher ushers all with dignity into the sacred precincts of Justice. The Judge enters and is received with a Handclasp welcome.

The charges by the Prosecuting Counsel is a great effort, the Defendant's rejoinder is able and as far as the Judge is concerned very commendable. He announces amidst wild consternation that he insists on freeing the culprit himself. Several pretty stage pictures, enough of animation to keep the audience in close attention, some good singing, much fun and perhaps a modicum of profit will be found in "Noblesse Oblige."

The author shelters himself under the creative pseudonym of Anon averring that a mark that is not in view cannot well be hit. If there should be applause he dedicates it to those on the stage-pre-knowing that they will claim it anyway.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Absolutely Harmless. Every mother should know that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is perfectly safe for children to take, as it contains nothing harmful. For sale by all druggists.

Some time ago a Debating and Literary Society was organized at West St. Peter with Henry C. McEwen as President, A. C. McAdam, Vice-Pres. and Robert McKay, Secretary. The Society is progressing rapidly there being quite a large attendance with a goodly number of speakers. A number of debates from outlying districts are in attendance, Cherry Hill and Morrell being among the societies which contribute to its success. The young members of the society are worthy of praise for the discussions and no doubt some of them may be heard in the near future.

EARL ABERDEEN VISITING POPE

LONDON, Jan. 15.—The visit on January 3rd, of the Earl of Aberdeen, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to Rome and his reception by the Pope in private audience, develops some comment on the unusual course of the Government's Chief Irish official going on such pilgrimages. This had brought out a semi-official explanation that the Earl of Aberdeen's conference with the Pope, was similar course taken when King Edward visited Rome, and that it related chiefly to Lady Aberdeen's activities in the International Women's organization.

Heaviness, Lassitude, Drowsy and Dull. Do You Feel That Way?

How provoking these symptoms are! You sleep well, but when you awake there is none of the exhilaration that sleep and rest should confer. In stead of being alert, having quickness of apprehension, there is languor, dulness, a disinclination to do things. These are signs for this feeling. Lax liver, lax kidneys, and a mighty lazy stomach which does its work very poorly and compels the other organs to do things they are unequal to, for any length of time.

Note the consequence—blood is filled with wastes—poisons weigh down the nervous system—rebuilding processes are absolutely stopped.

You'll note an instant change when you take Ferruzone. Appetite improves, digestion becomes good as ever—skin grows ruddy and clear—all sense of languor, weakness and depression fades away and finally disappears.

Ferruzone clarifies the brain, supplies and vigor, imparts clearness and strength. You feel like a new person, full of life, full of ambition, ready to do things, and able to do them also.

Think it over, Ferruzone is a tonic that uplifts, uplifts, that nourishes and restores the sick by supplying the element that weakened system need.

It can't help, but do you good. For men women and children, in fact anyone seeking strength and health, Ferruzone is invaluable; try it, sold by all druggists in 50c boxes.

The Grip. "Before we can sympathize with others we must have suffered ourselves." No one can realize the suffering attendant upon an attack of the grip, unless he has had the actual experience. There is probably no disease that causes so much physical and mental agony, or which so successfully defies medical aid. All danger from the grip, however, may be avoided by the prompt use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy, not one case has ever been reported that has resulted in pneumonia or that has not recovered. For sale by all druggists.
