PROTESTANT ORPHANAGE APPEAL

Our Orphanage depends entirely on public support and the children must not be forgotten, even in the face of multitude demands.

If it were not for the Orphanage many homeless waifs would be scattered over our province, and their lot would be a hard one indeed.

During the years many unfortunate little ones have been fed, clothed, educated and carefully trained so that the majority of them have proven a valuable asset to our province and to the Empire for today many of them are serving their King and Country.

In this war our one objective is TO WIN but we must not fail the human needs on the Home Front.

We need help-You know how living costs have increased. We are depending on the ever generous public to continue to share in this worthy work.

Romantic Thriller High Spotted By Cracking Comedy

Paramount's Technicolor adventure romance, "Aloma of the South Seas," starring Dorothy Lamour and Jon Hall, opens today at the Prince Edward Theatre. Comedy, thrills and melodrama crackle throughout the length of the picture which features an all-star supporting cast including Lynne Overman, Philip Reed, Katherine deMille, Fritz Leiber, Esther Dale and many other screen favorites.

New Tim Holt Starrer Has Thrilling Theme At Capitol To-day

What happens when a resourceful young rancher finds himself pitted against an unscrupulous band of crooks who seek both his land and his life, makes the exciting theme of "Robbers of the Range," Tim Holt's latest outdoor starring film playing at the Capitol Theatre today, Friday and Saturday.

The crooks are busily engaged in acquiring rights of way for a new road, and in selling these to the rancher at exorbitant prices. Holt, refusing to sell out to them, is framed on a charge of murdering a fellow-rancher, in order to get him out of the way.

But he manages to escape while on the way to his trial and, assuming the identity of a notorious killer, boldly seeks a job at the headquarters of the gang. This enables him to learn the land agents' plans, and thus to save the lives of several of the gang's intended victims.

Eventually Holt's real identity is exposed - but by this time he has enough evidence to bring the crooks to justice and in a gun-blazing finish, does so.

Giving the young actor his best role to date, this RKO Radio film also presents Virginia Vale as the heroine and a notable supporting cast headed by Ray Whitley, Emmett Lynn, Lefty Mason, Howard Hickman, Tom London and Ernie Adams, Edward Kelly directed.
