Mort Cooper Collects 18th Win of Season

NEW YORK, Aug. 24 (AP) — Mort Cooper kept his hitting streak going today by leading his team to a pair of two baggers, well scattered in Boston today while gaining his 18th victory of the national league season for St. Louis Cardinals with a 10-inning 1-0 shutout over Boston Braves.

The Cardinals ace righthander was assured his fifth whitewashing of the campaign when he pitched one out in the 10th, Harry Walker singled and Stan Musial batted a three-bagger against the fence in right-center.

At Brooklyn, Truett (Rip) Sewell attained his 19th victory against five defeats as Pittsburgh Pirates beat Brooklyn Dodgers 9-6 in a twilight game that was halted by darkness after six innings.

Sewell failed to finish in the face of a 16-hit attack by the Dodgers and three errors by his teammates, but the Pirates, who made 13 sacrifices, scored in every inning and clinched the game with four runs in the fifth.

At New York, the Giants beat Chicago Cubs 8-7 in a weird struggle that opened their doubleheader but the Giants left nothing to chance as they came back to take the second game 6-1.

The first game required two hours and 47 minutes to play with 33 players, including 10 pitchers, taking part.

Sport Shorts From Britain

By Allan Nicklason

Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON, Aug. 24 (CP) — Those autumn race classics of pre-war days, the Cesarewitch and the Cambridgehire, come up for revival on three British tracks this fall, but with a distinctly rationed flavour.

Whereas the peacetime classics were open to all, these will be confined to horses trained in the vicinity of the track so as not to infringe regional restrictions on racing which bar horses from travelling more than short distances to races.

The substitute classics, all $4,400 stakes, will be decided at Newmarket, Ascot and Kempton.

The Ascot Cesarewitch of two miles and the Cambridgehire of 1-1/2 furlongs both will be staged Oct. 22. Newmarket horses gallop two miles in their Cesarewitch Oct. 6 and one mile in the Cambridgehire Oct. 20. Stockton's Cambridgehire Oct. 1-1/4 miles goes to the post Sept. 25 and other austerity.

Scout News and Notices

The military hospital at Charlottetown, has publicly thanked the Scouts of the city for a donation of 3,000 medicine bottles collected by the boys.

Fats, so essential to the war effort, were collected by Boy Scouts of Timmins, to the total of 1,040 pounds in one day. In three collections they have netted 3,790 pounds of fat.

Boy Scouts at St. Thomas, Ont., planted 18,000 young pines and European larch trees in a 15 acre field on the Elgin County gravel farm. Scouts have assisted for many years in the city's annual tree planting programme.

Boy Scouts of Windsor, Ont., in a one day drive, collected more than 6,000 books for the armed forces. At one home they netted 30 volumes of "Book of the Month Club" selections. This was the second such drive by the Windsor Scouts, the first drive netting them more than 5,000 books.

Two Boy Scouts, Jack Tipping and Jack Helstead of Yorkton, Sask., saved the lives of two English airmen when their canoe upset in the Red River. The Scouts responded to their cries for help and brought them safely to shore little the worse for their adventure.

Boy Scouts of the 3rd Sudbury Troop carried out a unique piece of war service recently. Two of their number on an overnight hike stopped at a well kept farm operated by an elderly couple, who complained of the difficulty of securing farm labour. Returning to Sudbury the boys reported the matter to their Scoutmaster and suggested a bee by the Troop. The Scoutmaster organized a volunteer group of 13 Scouts who journeyed to the farm and spent a whole day planting the garden, hoeing the fields, and cutting up several cords of wood with an old fashioned hand operated circular saw. Of course they accepted no pay for their work. It was their Scout's good deed for the day.

One of the most tender and moving stories ever presented on the screen.
