TO BLOW UP HOUSE WITH THE POLICE.

NANAIMO, B. C., Aug. 20—Rumors of a plot to blow up Vipond's boarding house on Robson Street, where a large number of the special police are quartered, have reached the officers of the militia. A strong squad has been thrown around the place. It was asserted that a number of men held a secret meeting and agreed to dynamite the house last night. Another story which is given considerable credit is that a quantity of arms and ammunition has been discovered in the city.

The flooding of No. 1 shaft of the Western Fuel Company commenced this morning, several large centrifugal pumps being employed in drawing water from the harbor and pouring it down the shaft mouth. This will be continued until the workings have been flooded to put out a fire raging there. As most of the mine is beneath the harbor the leakage is considerable. There are 100 miles of workings and once they are filled with water it will take from six months to a year to pump the mine out.

REVEALS PLOT TO KILL KITCHENER.

LONDON, Aug. 20.—According to the Express, while the police were making enquiries concerning an Egyptian at Oxford recently, an undergraduate revealed a plot to kill Lord Kitchener through the medium of an Egyptian secret society. The matter was taken to the foreign office, which made investigation and found that a certain Oxford student had been promised in seditious circles in London. Lord Kitchener has been warned.
