DEATH OF LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR FRASER OF N.S.

An Eminent Public Man Who Had Held Many Positions of Honor and Trust. Brief Sketch of His Career in Provincial and Federal Affairs. Will be Given a State Funeral.

Special to The Guardian. HALIFAX, Sept. 27—Lieut. Governor Fraser died at Guysboro this morning.

Governor Fraser, being in ill health had spent the summer at Guysboro. It was his intention to return to Halifax this week and arrangements had been made to have the Government steamer Lady Laurier go to Guysboro for him.

Yesterday his son telegraphed from Guysboro not to send the steamer. His Honor was then unconscious.

Although the arrangements for the funeral are not yet made, it is understood that a state funeral will take place at Government House here and interment be in Picotou, his native place.

The Lady Laurier, which went to sea yesterday, was communicated with by wireless this morning and will proceed to Guysboro to bring the body to Halifax.

His Honor Duncan Cameron Fraser was a son of Alexander Fraser and his wife Ann Chisholm, both of Pictou County, N. S. His grandparents came from Inverness-shire, Scotland.

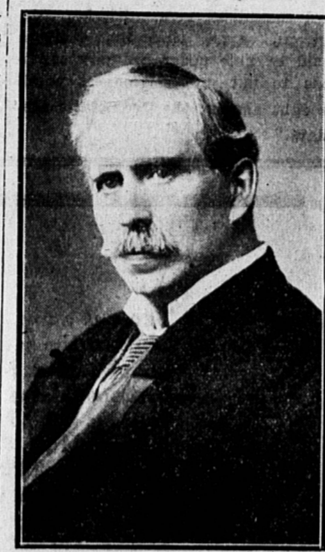

He was born in New Glasgow, October 1, 1845, educated in the public and normal schools, Truro, and taught school for several years. He graduated at Dalhousie University B. A. in 1872.

He was called to the bar of Nova Scotia in 1873 and was elected Mayor of New Glasgow on two occasions. He was called to the Legislative Council in 1878 and entered the Nova Scotia Government, but resigned from the Council the same year to run for the Assembly. He was again called to the Council and to the Executive Council in 1888, becoming the Government leader in the Upper House. He resigned to contest Guysborough for the house of Commons at the general election of 1891 and was elected. He was re-elected in 1896 and 1900. He resigned his seat in 1904 and was appointed to the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia.

He was sworn in as Lieut. Governor of the Province on March 27, 1906. He had been at various times a Grand Master of the Free Masons, and was prominently connected with several colleges. He held the degree of D. C. L. from Dalhousie, St. Francis Xavier and Kings College and also L. D. from Dalhousie.

He was married in 1878 to Bessie, daughter of William Graham, New Glasgow.

The late Governor was reputed a man of high character, and of fine abilities. He excelled as a debater and political campaigner and had a fund of humor and anecdote which made him very popular as a public speaker. In creed he was a Presbyterian.

Mr. Fraser was called to the bar of Nova Scotia in 1873 and was elected Mayor of New Glasgow on two occasions.

LONDON, Sept. 26—A newsboy last night made a distinct success as a tenor singer at the Alhambra Theatre, in the programme of the National Sunday League concert. The name on the bill was B. Neval Landino.

HAS REMARKABLE ESCAPE

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 26—J. A. D. McCurdy, the Canadian aviator came to grief on Friday in a flight preliminary to making the hazardous trip from Allentown, Pa., to Philadelphia, but he won the plaudits of the crowd for his daring. There had been a strong wind all day. The flight was scheduled to start early in the day, and three thousand persons were packed into the fair grounds awaiting the start. They became impatient and finally at 3.30 McCurdy decided to go up, rather, he said than become a "hoot mark" for the persons who had paid their good money for admission.

He did very well for a few minutes, when suddenly his motor stopped, and at 800 feet from the ground a gust of wind struck the aeroplane, almost capsizing it.

But McCurdy hung on, and by wonderful presence of mind righted the machine and glided toward the ground at a terrific pace. Fortunately he landed right side up, but the impact smashed one of the wheels of the machine and some of the interior workings. The aviator was not injured.

The Prince will be subject to ordinary naval discipline. He will make no official visits anywhere.

50 CASES TYPHOID AT CAMPBELLTON

CAMPBELLTON, N. B., Sept. 24—The outbreak of typhoid fever has not abated and daily new cases are reported. The hospital is crowded with patients, and the sisters in charge are greatly overworked in their endeavor to look after the patients. A number of cases which could not be accommodated at the hospital are being cared for at their homes. At present there are about fifty cases and already one death has resulted.

MT. ALLISON BURSARIES

SACKVILLE, Sept. 26—At a meeting of the faculty of Mount Allison University tonight the two $75 bursaries won in the recent matriculation examinations were awarded to Wilfrid Dawson, son of Rev. J. L. Dawson, of Sussex, and Arthur Moss of Sackville, nephew of Prof. Hutton. Latin and French were the subjects in which the prizes were awarded. The attendance at the university this year is the largest in the history of the institution. Many students are boarding in the old commercial building, in the academy and down town, and the residency is crowded.

THOMAS TAIT RESIGNS.

VANCOUVER, Sept. 25.—The News-Advertiser announces in a cable from Australia the resignation of Mr. Thomas Tait, Chairman of the Railway Commission of the State of Victoria. He is resigning, the despatches says, because of recent accidents and loss of life on the State's railway line. The despatch adds that Mr. Tait is returning to Canada.

IS A HEN A BIRD?

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—The new United States court of customs appeals is in full swing of its first session. The much disputed question "Is a hen a bird?" which the treasury officials passed up as hopeless, will probably come before the court at this term. The question is, if bird's eggs are free under the tariff and a hen's eggs are taxed five cents a doz, why isn't a hen a bird? An importer who paid the higher rate of duty wants to know.

WHAT OF THAT?

Tired! Well, what of that? Didst fancy life was spent on beds of ease. Fluttering the rose leaves scattered by the breeze? Come, rose thee! work while it is called to-day! Coward, arise! go forth upon thy way!

Lonely! What of that? Some must be lonely; 'tis not given to all to be a heart responsive rise and fall. To blend another life into its own. Work may be done in loneliness. Work on.

Dark! Well, what of that? Didst find dream the sun would never set? Fear to lose thy way? Take

A SERIOUS FIRE OCCURS IN SUDBURY

Palace Rink Burned With Many Curling Stones and Roller Skates.

Special to The Guardian. SUDBURY, Ont., Sept. 27—One of worst fires that has visited Sudbury for some time broke out shortly before last midnight and as a result the Palace rink is a total ruin.

The loss is estimated at $15,000 partly covered by insurance. Over $2,000 worth of curling stones were destroyed, as well as two hundred pairs of roller skates.

How the fire started is a mystery.

IRRIGATION CONGRESS OPENS AT PUEBLO.

PUEBLO, Colo., Sept. 26—Laying down the policy "that no gang rule shall flourish here," and reiterating the motto of the congress, "save the forest, store the floods, reclaim the desert, make homes on the prairie," President Benjamin A. Fowler, of Phoenix, Ark., in opening the 18th national irrigation congress today pledged himself with those delegates who favor a thorough discussion of all practicable problems of irrigation.

He declared "that the congress is, and must remain, the national forum or consideration of irrigation matters."

A message from President Taft was read to the congress.

BANK ROBBED OF $500,000

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The New York branch of the Russo-Chinese bank brought suit for $400,000 today against the erstwhile youthful cashier, Erwin J. Wider, now awaiting sentence for looting the strong box of more than $500,000. This move to recover money indicates that the bank does not place much trust in Wider's story that he lost all his stealings in Wall street.

DRIVEN OUT BY PHOSPHORUS

SOMERWORTH, N. H., Sept. 26—Five pieces of phosphorus placed in some unexplained manner on a pile of cord-wood, smoked this afternoon out of the high school this afternoon and started a fire, which if it had broken out at night, probably would have destroyed the building. When the school was closed for the summer recess, there were five jars containing phosphorus in the laboratory.

All except one jar had disappeared when the school was re-opened two weeks ago. How it disappeared and by what means the pieces reached the wood are mysterious.

The acting janitor saw smoke pouring from the basement but could find no fires. Fearing the 40 tons of soft coal was burning, the school was dismissed. After water and chemicals had been poured upon the coal, the source of the smoke was discovered. No damage was done.

CANADA'S NEW SETTLERS.

WINNIPEG, Man., Sept. 26—When a Russian woman living east of this city gave birth to twins her husband was so displeased over the addition to his family that he promptly traded one of the babies to another Russian for a pig. The case came to the attention of the authorities, and a constable forced the father to cancel the trade, which he had made over the bitter protests of the mother.
