

NEWS OF THE WEEK IN PICTURES FOR GUARDIAN READERS

TO BE PLACED IN CHURCH AT ST. ANTHONY, LABRADOR

ABOVE is shown stained glass window in honor of the work done by Sir Wilfred Grenfell (CENTRE) noted northern mission worker, made and presented to Sir Wilfred by Jessie Van Brunt (LEFT) to be placed in St. Anthony's church at Labrador. Lady Grenfell is shown at RIGHT.

ECCLIASTICAL POMP AND DIGNITY FEATURE OF CONSECRATION OF CHARLOTTETOWN BISHOP IN HAMILTON.

High prelates of the Roman Catholic Church took part in the consecration of Rt. Rev. J. A. O'Sullivan as Bishop of Charlottetown, P. E. I. in St. Mary's Pro-Cathedral, Hamilton, Ont. Princely robes and vestments of the church dignitaries marked the procession as the ceremony moved with solemn dignity and pomp to the consecration office which was filled by his excellency. Most Rev. Andrew Cassulo, apostolic delegate to Canada, and Newfoundland. He is seen in (1) in his robes of office during the ceremony, (2) Shows the bishop leaving the bishop's palace on its impressive march to St. Mary's Pro-Cathedral. (3) LEFT TO RIGHT: Rt. Rev. J. T. McNally, bishop of Hamilton; Rt. Rev. J. A. O'Sullivan, who was consecrated Bishop of Charlottetown at the ceremony, and Archbishop Neil McNeil, of Toronto.

WINNER OF DIAMOND SCULLS TO WED MISS MacDONALD

Miss Alice Mary MacDonal, daughter of Dr. W. J. MacDonal of St. Catharines, Ont., and Mr. John Schofield, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. John Guest of Toronto, whose engagement has just been announced, the marriage to take place very quietly the middle of June. The groom-elect brought the Diamond Sculls home from Henley last year.—Photographs by Mr. Lyonde.

WILL BE JUNE BRIDE

Princess Ioana of Roumania is to marry Archduke Anton von Hapsburg in June, it has been officially announced.

TO DANCE FOR KING CAROL

Mlle. Deresco has just been appointed official entertainer at the court of King Carol of Roumania. She is among the most renowned of Bucharest's beauties and dancers.

AT INVITATION OF MAYOR OF NEW YORK

Edwin Thompson, Lord Mayor of Liverpool, England, and the lady mayoress, who are visiting the United States at the invitation of Mayor Walker, arrived in New York aboard the S. S. Britannia. Photo shows the lord and lady mayoress of Liverpool as they arrived.

RECEIVED BROADCAST FROM AMERICA

At the television exhibition in London, England, this youthful exhibitor Norman Stokes, 14, received very high comments on his television receiver. He is shown with his working set, on which he received a television broadcast from America.—Herbert.

PLANS FOR TRANSATLANTIC FLIGHT TO ROME

Plans for a transatlantic flight to Rome, and possibly as far as Athens and Constantinople have been quietly completed by Russel N. Boardman, Boston aviator, it has been reported. The flier will take off from Barren Island, N. Y. It is said, Boardman will use the 300-horsepower Bellanca plane which he purchased for a flight last year to London in the interest of the American Legion national convention, a flight which failed at the take-off. This photo shows Boardman in the cockpit of the plane.—Arvo P. & A. Photo.

RIGHT

SOVIET'S POLAR PASSENGER

Prof. Samoilovich of Soviet Russia, who will represent his country aboard Graf Zeppelin upon its projected flight to North Pole this summer, when a meeting between airship and submarine Nautilus upon top of the world is said to be arranged.

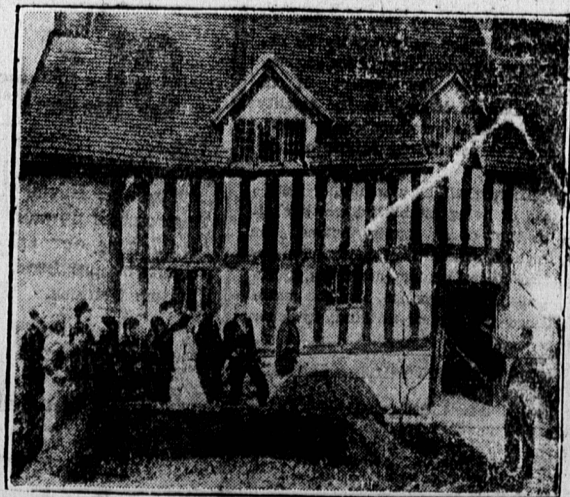

MARRIES LORD DOUGLAS-HAMILTON

Miss Pamela Bowes-Lyon, cousin of Duchess of York, is shown here as she left Beaulieu Abbey, Hampshire, England, with Lord Malcolm Douglas-Hamilton after their recent marriage.

FREETHINKER AT THE WOODBINE

One of the most discussed candidates for the King's Plate is the Sea-ran stable's 4-year-old Freethinker, which made his first appearance of the season on the Woodbine track, Toronto, and attracted the attention of the rail birds. Freethinker appeared to be sound and in good racing condition. This colt was the favorite for last year's Plate race, but went wrong in training.

BUILDING RESTORED BY TRUSTEES

William Shakespeare's mother's cottage at Willmote, Warwickshire, England, was opened to public for the first time recently after being completely restored by Shakespeare birthplace trustees in the interest of Shakespeare's memory.—The Illustrated News.

AT LEFT—Accompanied by the Duke of Miranda (LEFT) Alfonso former Spanish king, walking along quay at Catala to board English mail steamer for his trip to London, where he made arrangements for his son's, Don Juan, enrolment in the British Royal Navy. Other members of his family are living in seclusion at Fontainebleau, France. AT RIGHT—All reminders of Bourbon family were destroyed in Spanish Republican campaign following collapse of Alfonso's throne. The equestrian statue of King Philip III of Spain after mob of Madrid finished task of tearing it from its pedestal.

