In Memoriam

MRS. ALPHONSO MELLETT. There passed to her eternal rest on the night of Tuesday, January 27th, Mrs. Alphonso Mellett of Union Road, in her 72nd year.

She leaves to cherish her memory: Her husband; two sons, Alfred of Zurich, Ontario, and Eugene of Charlottetown; two daughters, Evelyn (Mrs. Reginald Parkman) of East Royalty, and Margaret at home; and nine grand-children.

The funeral, held on Saturday, January 31st, was largely attended. The Rev. J. A. Nicholson of York conducted the short private service at the home and assisted by the Rev. Thomas A. Wilson of Covehead, her pastor for many years, preached the funeral sermon and paid very warm tribute to her as having been a faithful, helpful and kindly member of his congregation.

The floral tributes were: Pillow, the family; Wreath, the Women's Missionary Society of Union Road; "Jesus Lover of My Soul" and "Abide With Me." The pall bearers were: Thomas Prowse, George Abbott, Beecher Bryenton, B. C. Hardy, James Maund and Harry Newman.

Peg Linseed Oil Price At 71 Cents

OTTAWA, Feb. 1—(CP)—The wartime price and trade board announced tonight that effective tomorrow the maximum price at which processors may sell linseed oil will be 71 cents a gallon.

Existence of the board secretary Guy Heaton said, adding that it was only one phase of the activities. Further up the education scale are men who have never learned schooling but have never learned a trade. Seventy-five classes are now being held in various parts of the Maritimes, teaching vocations to 1412 men.

Mail Courses Too

For the time being it is impossible to attend regular classes, he board has arranged correspondence courses with universities scattered across the Dominion. About 100 subjects are covered by mail during the month of November alone, 1,000 registered as students.

Entertainment along educational lines is also provided by a lending library, perhaps unrivalled in the three eastern provinces, selects books by the thousands and sends them to the camps and outposts scattered throughout the Maritimes. And the books are all rated as tops in their various fields, be it fiction or non-fiction.

FAREWELL GATHERING

Keith Jenkins one of Mt. Herbert's boys who has joined the Airforce to serve his king and country was honoured before leaving by his friends and neighbours when they gathered at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jenkins to tender him a farewell address and presentation of a beautiful wrist watch. Mr. Russell Driscoll read the address in which was expressed pride that the community felt in his decision to answer the call to duty. Keith replied very feelingly thanking all for their kind wishes and then served by the ladies and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing, singing, etc. A very pleasant evening was brought to a close by singing Ald Lang Syne and God Save the King.

CHAMPION - FRASER NUTRITIONALS

The Eskine and American United Church, Sherbrooke St. Montreal, was the scene of a pretty wedding on January 17th at 7:15 P.M. when the Minister Dr. Leslie Pidgeon, formerly of New London, P. E. I., united in marriage Margaret E. Fraser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Champion, Charlottetown Airport to James R. Fraser of the R. A. F. Ferry Command, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Fraser, Charlottetown. The pretty young bride, who was former employee of the Maritime Central Airways, wore a gown in powder blue with black accessories and a white tulle train. The groom wore a tuxedo with a corsage of sweetheart roses. During the ceremony the church organist played suitable wedding selections. Edson Moloney, R. A. F. Ferry Command, formerly of Charlottetown supported the groom. The bride's mother was dressed in Forest Green with matching accessories and the groom's mother was smart in a navy blue costume. After the wedding a reception and buffet supper was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Myers and largely attended by the fellow members and advisers of the R. A. F. Ferry Command, of which Mr. Myers is also a member. The bride and groom left their home in Montreal and are followed by hosts of good wishes.

Scout News and Notices

The Hitler Youth movement in Germany, sometimes held up as an example of successful youth training, was not in fact a scheme for the benefit of German youth. The sole purpose was to improve the physical quality of the cannon fodder necessary for the carrying out of Hitler's conquests.

The statement was made at a gathering of Scout leaders in Ottawa to discuss ways in which the Scout organization might still further assist in the home-front war effort of the Dominion.

Mr. S. B. McMichael, of Toronto, Dominion Commissioner for Training, speaking of a visit to Germany shortly before the war, told of a German artillery corps reunion at Cologne, when, following each section of the great parade, there stamped by a contingent of Hitler Jugend, lads of Boy Scout age. Elsewhere on the roads of Germany boys were marching in military formations, carrying small rifles or wooden guns.

"It is a great mistake," declared Mr. McMichael, "to give any credit to Hitler for having done something important for German boys. There was no thought in the Hitler Youth movement for their personal benefit or happiness. Hitler's sole purpose was to make of them better physical and mental robots for his war machine. In other words, better cannon fodder."

Mr. W. J. Cairns, Assistant National Director of the Red Cross, told of the valuable role being taken by Boy Scout A.R.P. first aid and messenger units in the coastal provinces. In numbers of smaller Maritime communities the people have been given a greater feeling of confidence by the presence of Boy Scouts and leaders who were prepared to help deal with any war eventualities.

Other reports told of assistance of many kind given the Red Cross, O.D.E. and other local war service bodies. Important salvage work was being carried on by the Scouts in all parts of the Dominion. Special mention was made of the collection of many thousands of soiled signs of used medicine bottles for military, naval and Air Force hospitals. This contribution had averted a serious medicine bottle shortage, and at the same time had saved the Government a substantial sum of money.

Reports on Scout training in the fundamentals of aviation, qualifying for the Scout Flying Lions proficiency badge, shortage of that success classes, several with enrolments over 80, had been held or were in progress at Halifax, Dartmouth, New Glasgow, Yarmouth, St. John's, St. Stephen, Toronto, St. Montreal, Windsor, Winnipeg and Vancouver. Plans were under way for classes in other centres. Many of the instructors were Air Force officers who formerly were Scoutmasters.

Reports were made on the value of Scout training as found by young men now in the Forces. These included several statements by commanding officers indicating that former Boy Scouts fitted at once into army training life, where other men required a period of adjustment. There had been numerous instances where Scout knowledge of first aid, signalling, cooking on the hike, etc., had proved an asset not only to young men themselves but to their army groups.

A regular exchange of letters is being carried on between the boys of the Christ Church Boy Scout troop of Chatham, Ont., and those of Christ Church troop of Chatham, England.

"Support for the Boy Scouts and Girl Guides should be forthcoming from everyone, because they build dependable boys and girls. Never was there such dire need, or dependable people as there is now."—Mayor C. W. Madrum at Brockville Scout-Guide rally.

Boy Scouts of Burrell, Calif., are working on the task of charting water sources throughout Santa Clara County. On a large map they are plotting the course of all streams, and marking springs, lakes and reservoirs. The map will serve as a key to water supplies in event of war emergency.
