Damaged Liner Under Way

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) MONTREAL, Oct. 4.—The liner Duchess of Atholl, whose steering apparatus was damaged yesterday in an Atlantic storm, was today reported by Canadian Pacific Steamships headquarters here to be 600 miles west of Inistrahull, Ireland. Weather had improved, the ship's officers reported, and the vessel is expected to reach Liverpool Monday night. She is proceeding under her own steam.

BENNETT has everybody's confidence.

Scout News and Notices

Brother Scouts, Things seem to be booming in the Scouting line these days, and everyone seems to be on their toes. 6th Charlottetown Troop (Most Holy Redeemer) have an average attendance of twenty-four, almost 100%. Those assisting Mr. F. Driscoll are: Mr. Chas. Connolly, A.S.M.; Troop Leader Harry Pineau and Patrol Leaders L. McKinnon, J. McCarville, W. Toombs and F. Moran. Efforts are being made to organize a Cub Pack in this group.

3rd Charlottetown (St. James) have started the winter's work with an attendance of fifteen and expect to increase to twenty in the near future. I expect S. M. Lawson feels at home with his old troop.

7th Charlottetown (St. Paul's) had a good attendance on Monday evening. In this troop the Patrol in Council meets during one of the Patrol Corner periods. Tom DeBlols and his Seagulls are making their nest homelike and comfortable. Durell Murray and his Hawks in P. in C. passed a resolution to the effect that every Hawk will be on time on Monday nights. P. Leaders DeBlols and Murray and P. 2nd Beer are arranging for their First Class Hike. The Cubs of this group had a full attendance on Monday. Some time was spent in assembling aircraft.

The Cubs of 9th Charlottetown (Central Christian) are making good progress under Rev. Mr. Outhouse. He reports the attendance as being good. His present assistant is Scout Ira Stewart.

King's Scout Ralph Smith, who has been Troop Leader of 7th Charlottetown, is transferring to 8th Charlottetown as Asst. S. M. Smith will be a tower of strength to the new troop.

We extend a very hearty welcome to Rev. Father McCardle and Mr. Harold Gros who are being invested by Asst. Prov. Commissioner F. Driscoll.

5th Charlottetown (Baptist) troop is being reorganized. There will be more to say about this troop next week.

GREY WOLF

The 3rd Charlottetown Troop (Kirk) held their inaugural banquet in their lower hall last evening, when a magnificent feast was spread by their good friends, the Ladies Auxiliary. The hall and tables were decorated most artistically with flowers and masonry in the Scout colors. Fathers and members of the Scout Troop committee were there, and also Provincial Commissioner Morris, and Field Commissioner Warren. Scoutmaster Lawson ably presided, supported by Ex-Scoutmaster K. M. Martin, A.S.M., William R. Burnett, Cubmaster Niall H. Burnett and A. C. M. Gordon Hyde. Between sixty and seventy sat down and did ample justice to the good things provided for supper, and at intervals rousing choruses were sung. The Kirk Orchestra, consisting of Miss Agnew, Messrs. Ian Burnett, John Denny, Jack Chandler, Jud Logan and Niall Burnett, added greatly to the success of the event, their efforts being much appreciated. The speeches were few, brief, bright and brotherly. Badges were presented, and a thoroughly enjoyable evening concluded with votes of thanks to Mrs. Chandler and her committee and the singing of the National Anthem. Afterwards the Scouts and Cubs adjourned to the upper hall where games were engaged in.
