

Immortalized in the writings of Elbert Hubbard, a soldier named ROWAN is well remembered for "carrying a message to Goetz."

We, too, are RELIABLE...

Physicians have come to rely upon this Prescription Pharmacy. They know that no matter how rare the drug—how difficult to obtain—we are most apt to have it, and can compound the prescription precisely as directed.

Since this professional service costs no more than you would pay elsewhere, wouldn't it be prudent to let us compound your next prescription?

Mrs. M. Martin has returned to her home in Emerald after a very nice trip of two weeks in the United States visiting friends.

QUINN-McCARTHY WEDDING

A wedding of interest to friends and relatives in New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island was solemnized at St. Anthony's Church, Montreal, at 7 A.M. on Sept. 18th, when Catherine Hilda, daughter of Mrs. McCarthy and the late Edward McCarthy, Montreal, P. E. I., and Patrick Quinn, Roger Quinn, Redmondville, N.B., were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Rev. Fr. J. A. Ambrose, who also celebrated the Nuptial Mass.

The bride given in marriage by her cousin Mr. Aubrey Hughes, was charmingly attired in a street length dress of Ashes of Roses crepe with navy satin picture hat and navy accessories. Her corsage was white gladioli and maiden hair fern. She carried a white prayer book trimmed with a miniature corsage of matching flowers and satin streamers. Miss Rita Hughes was maid of honor. She wore a grey crepe dress with satin trimming, matching accessories and a corsage of peach gladioli. Miss Margaret Dwan as bridesmaid wore a fuchsia crepe dress with black accessories and her corsage was pale pink gladioli.

Mr. Frank Flynn, cousin of the groom was best man. His brother, Mr. Leo Flynn was usher.

The groom's gift to the bride was a substantial cheque, to the best man and usher, leather billfolds. The bride's gift to the groom was a Gladstone bag, to the maid of honor a rhinestone bracelet, and to the bridesmaid an amber rosary.

A wedding breakfast was served at the Queen Hotel, after which the happy couple left for the groom's home in Redmondville, N. B., where a reception was held in their honor. The following week they visited the bride's home in Montreal, P. E. I., and were tendered a reception there. For travelling the bride wore a grey gabardine suit with navy accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

The happy couple, who will reside in Montreal, were the recipients of many useful and valuable gifts. Prior to her marriage the bride was given a shower by her girl friends at the home of Mrs. Charles Wright.

PEELING TOMATOES

Have you ever wanted a really simple way to peel tomatoes? Maybe you've devised your own method, or picked up ideas from the neighbors. But here are a couple of methods suggested by home economists.

They say that the common method is to scald the tomatoes in hot water for one or two minutes and then dip them quickly into cold water. And after that the skin will peel off easily.

But just as easy a system is to stroke the skin of the fruit with the back of a knife until it loosens. And there's still another way. Run a fork into the tomato and

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Charles Graham who passed away October 28th, 1947.

Time speeds on, one year has passed. Since death its gloom, it's shadows cast. Within our home where all seemed bright. And took from us a shining light. We miss that light, and ever will His vacant place there is none to fill. Down here we mourn, but not in vain. For up in Heaven we will meet again. Lovingly Remembered by His Wife and Family.
